3.—(1) The first application under paragraph 10D(5) of Schedule 1 for an order under paragraph 10D(1) of Schedule 1 for the further detention of property seized under paragraph 10B of Schedule 1 must be made in writing and sent to the court before which the applicant wishes to make the application.

(2) But where the reasonable grounds for suspicion which led to the seizure of property to which an application under paragraph 10D(5) of Schedule 1 relates are connected to—

- (a) the reasonable grounds for suspicion which led to the seizure of other cash or property to which a previous order made under paragraph 3(2) or 10B(2) of Schedule 1 relates; or
- (b) the reasonable grounds for suspicion which led to the making of a previous account freezing order under paragraph 10S(2) of Schedule 1,

(3) Except where paragraph (4) or paragraph (7) applies, a copy of the written application and notification of the hearing of the application shall be given by the applicant to the person from whom the property was seized.

(4) Where seized property is found in a letter, parcel, container or other means of unattended dispatch, copies of the written application and notification of the hearing of the application shall be sent by the applicant to the sender and intended recipient of the letter, parcel, container or other means of unattended dispatch.

(5) But where paragraph (4) applies the applicant is not required to send copies of the written application and notification of the hearing to a sender or intended recipient who cannot be identified.

(7) Where unattended property is seized (other than where the property is found in a means of unattended dispatch) the applicant need not give a copy of the written application and notification of the hearing to any person.

(8) The applicant must inform the court of any person known to be affected by the order, as soon as practicable after that person is so identified.

(9) The court must give—

- (a) notice of the order; and

(3) The court must fix a date for the hearing of the application, which, unless directed otherwise, shall not be earlier than seven days from the date on which it is fixed, and must notify that date to the applicant and every person to whom notice of the previous orders has been given.

(4) The applicant must inform the court of any person known to be affected by the order, as soon as practicable after that person is so identified.

(3) The court must send a copy of the application to the authorised officer who seized the property and to every person to whom notice of the order made under paragraph 10D(1) of Schedule 1 has been given.

(4) The court must fix a date for the hearing of the application, which, unless directed otherwise, shall not be earlier than seven days from the date on which it is fixed, and must notify that date to the applicant, the authorised officer who seized the property and every person to whom a copy of the application is required to be sent under paragraph (3).

(5) At the hearing of an application under paragraph 10F or 10O of Schedule 1, the court may, if it thinks fit, order that the applicant be joined as a party to all the proceedings in relation to the detained property.

(6) A direction under paragraph 10F(2) of Schedule 1 must provide for the release of the property within seven days of the date of the making of the direction or such longer period as with the agreement of the applicant may be specified in the direction, except that property shall not be released whilst paragraph 10F(4) of Schedule 1 applies.

(7) An order under paragraph 10O(4) or (5) of Schedule 1 must provide for the release of the property within seven days of the date of the making of the order or such longer period as with the agreement of the applicant may be specified, except that property shall not be released whilst paragraph 10G(7) or (8) of Schedule 1 applies.

Application for forfeiture of detained property

6.—(1) An application under paragraph 10G(1) of Schedule 1 for the forfeiture of detained property must be made in writing and may be sent to the court to which applications for the continued detention of the property under paragraph 10D(5) of Schedule 1 have been sent.

 - (ii) the making of an account freezing order under paragraph 10S(2) of Schedule 1, to the court which made the order listed in sub-paragraph (i) or (ii).

(3) The applicant must send a copy of the application to every person to whom notice of an order made under paragraph 10B(2) of Schedule 1 in respect of the detained property has been given and to any other person identified by the court as being affected by the application.

(5) At the directions hearing, the court may give directions relating to the management of the proceedings, including directions as to the date for the hearing of the application.

(6) If neither the person from whom the property was seized, nor any other person who is affected by the detention of the property, seeks to contest the application, the court may decide the application at the directions hearing.

(7) A copy of an order for the forfeiture of detained property under any of paragraphs 10G(2), 10I(1) and 10J(7) of Schedule 1 must be given by the court to every person to whom notice of an order made under paragraph 10B(2) of Schedule 1 in respect of the detained property has been given and to any other person known to be affected by the order.

Transfer of proceedings

16.—(1) Any person who is a party to, or affected by, proceedings to which these Rules apply may, at any time, make an application to the court dealing with the matter for the proceedings to be transferred to a different magistrates’ court.

(2) Any such application must be made in writing and sent to the court in which the proceedings are being dealt with and must specify the grounds on which it is made.

17.—(1) At the hearing of an application under Part 4A of Schedule 1, any person to whom notice of the application has been given may attend and be heard on the question of whether the application should be granted, but the fact that any such person does not attend shall not prevent the court from hearing the application.

(2) Subject to the foregoing provisions of these Rules, proceedings on such an application shall be regulated in the same manner as proceedings on a complaint, and accordingly for the purposes of these Rules, the application shall be deemed to be a complaint, the applicant a complainant, the respondents to be defendants and any notice given under rules 4(3), 5(4), 6(4), 8(4) or 16(4) to be a summons: but nothing in this rule shall be construed as enabling a warrant of arrest to be issued for failure to appear in answer to any such notice.

(3) At the hearing of an application under Part 4A of Schedule 1, the court must require the matters contained in the application to be sworn by the applicant under oath, may require the applicant to answer any questions under oath and may require any response from the respondent to the application to be made under oath.
