EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order applies sections 731, 733 and 734 of the Income Tax (Trading and Other Income) Act 2005 (periodical payments of personal injury damages) to certain periodical payments under a scheme established by the Scottish Ministers to persons infected by hepatitis C or HIV, or both, through contaminated blood or blood products used by the NHS. The effect of the Order is that no liability to income tax will arise for the recipients of these payments.

Article 1 defines the Scottish Scheme and Scheme beneficiary. The Scottish scheme is the “Scheme of Support and Assistance for those Infected with Hepatitis C, or HIV, or both, as a result of NHS treatment” made by the Scottish Ministers and dated 21st February 2017. A copy of the scheme document may be obtained on the website at <http://www.gov.scot/Topics/Health/Services/Blood> or upon request from Scottish Government, Blood Policy Team, 3E, St Andrew’s House, Regent Road, Edinburgh EH1 3DG. Scheme beneficiary is defined by reference to the provisions of the Scottish scheme.

Article 2 applies the exemptions from income tax in sections 731, 733 and 734 to payments made to a Scheme beneficiary pursuant to the Scottish scheme, subject to the modifications specified in that article.

A Tax Information and Impact Note covering this instrument will be published on the website at <https://www.gov.uk/government/collections/tax-information-and-impact-notes-tiins>.
