The Judicial Pensions (Fee-Paid Judges) Regulations 2017

[^{F1}PART 2B

Pre-1995 Provisions

CHAPTER 1

Retirement Benefits

[^{F1}Retirement under normal pension age: entitlement to preserved pension

11I.—(1) This regulation applies to a member (“P”) whose benefits are to be calculated under this Part in respect of one or more eligible fee-paid judicial offices (each “a relevant office”) where—

- (a) P retires;
- (b) if P retires by virtue of having been removed from all judicial offices held by P and the appropriate Minister makes a recommendation under regulation 11G(1)(c), P does not make an election under regulation 11G(3); and
- (c) on the day on which P retires, P—
 - (i) has not reached normal pension age for a relevant office, and
 - (ii) has at least 2 years’ qualifying judicial service.

(2) On the pension start day, P becomes entitled to the payment for life of a pension in respect of the relevant office.

(3) In this regulation “the pension start day” means—

- (a) the day on which P—
 - (i) reaches the normal pension age for the relevant office, or
 - (ii) (if later) would have completed the requirement for qualifying judicial service in relation to the relevant office, if P had continued to hold a judicial office; or
- (b) if later, the amendment day.]
