DECISION MAKING

CHAPTER 5

Constitution of Meetings

The chair – attendance, interventions and questions

5.21. The chair of a meeting may—

- (a) allow any person who has given reasonable notice of wishing to attend to participate in a virtual meeting or to be admitted to a physical meeting;
- (b) decide what intervention, if any, may be made at a meeting of creditors by any person attending who is not a creditor; and decide what questions may be put to any present or former officer of the company.
