Temporary authorisation U.K.

20. After regulation 12, insert—

“Deemed authorisation to provide a data reporting service

12A.—(1) A person to whom this regulation applies is to be treated, for the period determined in accordance with regulation 12C, as if that person is authorised to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations.

(2) This regulation applies to a person—

(a) who immediately before exit day—

(i) is established in an EEA state other than the United Kingdom;

(ii) is authorised in that EEA state in accordance with Title V of the markets in financial instruments directive or is permitted to provide a data reporting service in accordance with Article 59.2 of that directive; and

(b) who has taken the steps set out in paragraph (3).

(3) The steps referred to in this paragraph are that the person has, on or after the day on which this regulation comes into force and no later than 30 working days before the day on which exit day occurs, notified the FCA that the person wishes to be treated in accordance with paragraph (1) by—

(a) making an application for authorisation to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations; or

(b) making a statement to that effect and tendering the fee (if any) prescribed under paragraph 23 of Schedule 1ZA to the Act.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b), the statement must—

(a) be made in such manner, and during such period, as the FCA may direct; and

(b) contain, or be accompanied by, such other information as the FCA may direct.

(5) The FCA's powers under these Regulations are exercisable in respect of a person to whom this regulation applies as they are in respect of a person who is authorised to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations, in particular in relation to the variation or cancellation of an authorisation to provide such a service.

(6) The power to give directions under this regulation includes the power—

(a) to give different directions in relation to different statements or categories of statements;

(b) to vary or revoke previous directions.

Regulator response

12B.—(1) Within 28 days beginning with the date of receipt of a notification made in accordance with regulation 12A(3)(a), the FCA must—

(a) if it considers that the requirements of regulation 7 have been satisfied, confirm in writing to the person making the application that it constitutes a valid notification;

(b) if it considers that those requirements are not satisfied, confirm in writing to the person making the application—

- (i) that it does not constitute a valid application, and
 - (ii) the details of any requirements that have not been satisfied.
- (2) Within 28 days beginning with the date of receipt of a notification made in accordance with regulation 12A(3)(b), the FCA must—
- (a) if it considers that the steps in regulation 12A(3) have been taken (in accordance with any direction), confirm in writing to the person making the statement that it constitutes a valid notification;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (3), if it considers that the steps in regulation 12A(3) have not been taken (in accordance with any direction), confirm in writing to the person making the statement that—
 - (i) the notification was not valid; and
 - (ii) as applicable, the steps that have not been taken, or the directions that have not been complied with.
- (3) Within 28 days beginning with the day of receipt of a notification made in accordance with regulation 12A(3)(b), the FCA may, if—
- (a) it considers that a direction given in accordance with regulation 12A(4) has not been complied with; and
 - (b) it would not be possible or practicable for the applicant to comply with the direction in time, waive the requirement to comply with the direction and confirm in writing to the person submitting the statement that it nevertheless constitutes a valid notification.

Period during which regulation 12A is to apply

12C.—(1) For the purpose of regulation 12A(1), the period is one that begins with exit day and ends—

- (a) after one year beginning with the day on which exit day occurs, or
- (b) if earlier, with a day determined as follows.

(2) Paragraph (3) applies to a person who has applied for authorisation to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations on or after the date on which this regulation comes into force, and not withdrawn that application.

(3) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) if the application is granted, the period ends with the day before the date stated in the written notice (issued in accordance with regulation 10(6));
- (b) if the application is refused, the period ends with the day before the day stated in the decision notice (issued in accordance with regulation 10(9)(c)).

(4) Paragraph (5) applies to a person who has not applied for authorisation to provide a data reporting service under these Regulations on or after the date on which this regulation comes into force (or has made such an application but withdrawn it without submitting another).

(5) Where this paragraph applies, the period ends with the day before the day on which the decision notice (issued in accordance with regulation 11) takes effect.”

- (a) of four years beginning with [^{F37}IP completion day]; or
- (b) ending on the day directed by the Treasury, where this is earlier.

3B. During the transitional period, the FCA may suspend the use of a waiver provided for in Article 4(1)(a) and 4(1)(b)(i) for a period of up to six months to ensure that its use does not unduly harm price formation if the FCA considers it necessary to do so to advance the FCA's integrity objective under section 1D of FSMA.

3C. The FCA may renew a suspension imposed under paragraph 3B at the end of the six-month period referred to in that paragraph if it considers that the conditions which led it to impose a suspension still exist at that date.

3D. In deciding whether to suspend the use of a waiver under paragraph 3B, or to renew a suspension under paragraph 3C, the FCA—

- (a) must also take into account—
 - (i) its consumer protection objective and competition objective under sections 1C and 1E of FSMA;
 - (ii) the thresholds applying under Article 5 of [^{F38}Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council on markets in financial instruments as it has effect in EU law]; and

Article 50

Treasury Regulations

1. Any power to make regulations conferred on the Treasury by this Regulation is exercisable by statutory instrument.
2. Such regulations may—
 - (a) make incidental, supplemental, consequential or transitional provision; and
 - (b) make different provision for different purposes.
3. Unless paragraph 5 applies, a statutory instrument containing regulations made under this Regulation is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
4. No regulations to which paragraph 5 applies may be made unless—
 - (a) a draft of the instrument containing them has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House; or
 - (b) paragraph 6 applies.
5. This paragraph applies to any regulations made for the purposes set out in paragraphs 2 and 3 of Schedule 3 which contain a statement by the Treasury that, in their opinion, the effect (or one of the effects) of the proposed regulations would be that an activity which is not a regulated activity for the purposes of FSMA would become a regulated activity.
6. This paragraph applies if regulations to which paragraph 5 applies also contain a statement that the Treasury are of the opinion that, by reason of urgency, it is necessary to make the regulations without a draft being so laid and approved.
7. If paragraph 6 applies, the regulations—

- (a) must be laid before Parliament after being made; and
- (b) cease to have effect at the end of the relevant period unless before the end of that period the regulations are approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament (but without affecting anything done under the regulations or the power to make new regulations).

8. The “relevant period” is a period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the regulations are made.

9. In calculating the relevant period no account is to be taken of any time during which Parliament is dissolved or prorogued or during which both Houses are adjourned for more than four days.

Article 50A

Treasury Directions

1. Treasury directions under this Regulation may be varied or revoked.

2. A direction given by the Treasury must be laid before each House of Parliament and published in a way appearing to the Treasury to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

Article 50B

FCA Directions

1. A direction may only be given, amended or revoked by the FCA under Article 5, Article 9 or Article 14 (“an FCA direction”) with the approval of the Treasury.

2. An FCA direction—

- (a) may specify different countries in relation to different financial instruments;
- (b) must specify the date on which the direction comes into effect and the financial instruments or class of instruments to which it applies;
- (c) may be amended or revoked.

3. The Treasury may refuse to approve an FCA direction if it appears to the Treasury that—

- (a) the giving of that direction would prejudice any current or proposed negotiations for an international agreement between the United Kingdom and one or more other countries, international organisations or institutions; or
- (b) there are grounds under section 410 (international [F73 obligations])^{M46} of FSMA to direct the FCA not to give that direction.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/12/2018. This version of this

Instrument contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018. (See end of Document for details)

4. For the purposes of paragraph 3, “international organisations” includes the European Union.

5. The Treasury must notify the FCA in writing whether or not they approve an FCA direction within four weeks from the day on which that direction is submitted to the Treasury for approval (“the relevant period”).

6. If the Treasury do not give notice under paragraph 5 before the end of the relevant period the Treasury are deemed to have approved the direction.

7. Provision of a draft direction to the Treasury for consultation does not amount to submission of the direction for approval.

8. A copy of each FCA direction given under this Article must be must be laid before Parliament and published in a way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

Article 51

Transfer of MiFID functions

1. The Treasury may make regulations for the purposes specified in Part 1 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation.

2. The FCA may make technical standards for the purposes set out in Part 2 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation.

3. The FCA may make technical standards for the purposes set out in Part 3 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation applying to authorised persons who are not PRA-authorised persons.

4. The PRA may make technical standards for the purposes set out in Part 3 of Schedule 3 to this Regulation applying to authorised persons who are PRA-authorised persons.

5. For the purposes of this Article—

“authorised persons” has the meaning given in section 31(2) of FSMA;

“PRA-authorised person” has the meaning given in section 2B(5) of FSMA.”

Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/565

Commission Regulation 2017/565 U.K.

38. Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/565 supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards organisational requirements and operating conditions for investment firms and defined terms for the purposes of that Directive is amended in accordance with regulations 39 to 56.

Status: Point in time view as at 20/12/2018. This version of this

Instrument contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Markets in Financial Instruments (Amendment) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

I34 Reg. 38 in force on "exit day" in accordance with reg. 1(3), see 2018 c. 16, s. 20(1)(2)-(5)

Application, scope and definitions U.K.

39.—(1) Before Article 1, insert—

“Article 1

Application

1. Subject to paragraph 2, this Regulation applies to—

- (a) an investment firm which has its head office in the United Kingdom;
- (b) a person authorised by the FCA to provide a data reporting service under the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017^{M104};
- (c) a market operator which has its registered office (or if it has no registered office, its head office) in the United Kingdom, including any UK regulated markets they operate.

2. This Regulation does not apply to—

- (a) any person excluded from the definition of “investment firm” in Schedule 3 to the Regulated Activities Order;
- (b) any firm which has permission under Part 4A of FSMA to carry on regulated activities as an exempt investment firm, within the meaning of regulation 8 of the Markets in Financial Instruments Regulations 2017.”.

(2) In Article 1—

- (a) in paragraph 1, for the words from “in accordance with” to the end of the paragraph, substitute “ in relation to the services described in paragraph 1A. ”;
- (b) after paragraph 1, insert—

“1A. The services referred to in paragraph 1 are—

- (a) management of portfolios of investments, including those owned by pension funds, in accordance with mandates given by investors on a discretionary, client-by-client basis, where such portfolios include one or more of the instruments listed in Part 1 of Schedule 2 to the Regulated Activities Order^{M105};
 - (b) investment advice concerning one or more of the instruments referred to in sub-paragraph (a);
 - (c) safe-keeping and administration in relation to units of collective investments undertakings; and
 - (d) reception and transmission of orders in relation to financial instruments.”;
- (c) in paragraph 2, for the words from “referred to in Article 1(3)” to the end, substitute “ (so far as relevant) in Chapters II to IV of this Regulation ”;

(d) after paragraph 2, insert—

“3. Chapters I, II, III and VI apply to relevant firms.

4. Chapters IV and V apply to a firm which has temporary permission to operate an organised trading facility as a branch in the United Kingdom under the EEA Passport Rights (Amendment, etc., and Transitional Provisions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2018.

5. If—

(a) a relevant firm complies with a requirement in Chapter II, III or VI of [F90Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/565 supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards organisational requirements and operating conditions for investment firms and defined terms for the purposes of that directive F91 as it has effect in EU law] (“the EEA requirement”) in relation to the services it provides in the United Kingdom; and

(b) the EEA requirement has equivalent effect to a requirement in this Regulation as it applies in the United Kingdom (“the UK requirement”), the firm is to be treated as complying with the UK requirement.

6. - (b) after paragraph 1, insert—

“1A. Subject to paragraph 1B, during the transitional period (within the meaning of Article 5(3A) of Regulation 600/2014/EU), paragraph 1 does not apply except as follows—

- (a) the FCA must make and publish the assessment required by—
 - (i) point (a) of paragraph 1, where a share, depository certificate, exchange traded fund or a certificate (“a relevant instrument”) is traded on a UK trading venue for the first time after [F^{III}IP completion day];
 - (ii) point (d) of paragraph 1;
- (b) the FCA may make (and if it does so must publish) the assessments required by point (b) or (c) of paragraph 1 if it has the data it needs to do so;
- (c) subject to point (f), if no assessment has been carried out by the FCA under this paragraph, where any obligation in retained EU law relating to markets in financial instruments requires the determination of whether a particular relevant instrument has a liquid market, the most recent assessment made before [F^{III}IP completion day] by a competent authority under this Article (as it was in force in the European Union before [F^{III}IP completion day]) is to apply;
- (d) if no assessment had been made by the FCA under this paragraph or by any competent authority before [F^{III}IP completion day] in relation to a relevant instrument, that instrument is to be deemed not to have a liquid market for the purposes of article 2(1)(17)(b) of Regulation 600/2014/EU, unless an assessment has been made by the FCA under paragraph 1;
- (e) the FCA may disregard the most recent assessment made in relation to a relevant instrument before [F^{III}IP completion day] and direct that the instrument concerned is to be treated as not having a liquid market if—

- (i) an assessment would be required under point (b) or point (c) of paragraph 1 but the FCA does not have the data to carry out such an assessment; and
- (ii) it appears to the FCA that—
 - (aa) the liquidity of the financial instrument in UK trading venues has reduced since the relevant instrument was last assessed, and
 - (bb) the extent of the reduction in liquidity is so material that continuing to treat the relevant instrument as having a liquid market would have an adverse effect on price formation in that instrument;
- (f) a direction given by the FCA under point (e) must be published as soon as possible.

1B. The FCA must make at least one assessment required by paragraph 1 no later than the date six weeks before the end of the transitional period in relation to every relevant instrument which is traded on a UK trading venue.

1C. If any assessment has been made and published by the FCA in accordance with paragraph 1A (including an assessment given by direction under point (e)) during the transitional period that assessment is to be used by the FCA, market operators and investment firms (including investment firms operating a trading venue)—

- (a) from the date on which the assessment is published, in the case of an assessment in accordance with point (a)(ii) of paragraph 1A;
- (b) from the date six weeks after the date on which that assessment was published in all other cases.”;
- (c) in paragraph 2, for “competent authorities” both times it occurs, substitute “ the FCA ”;
- (d) in paragraph 3—

- (e) after paragraph 3, insert—

4. For the purposes of this Article, the “relevant area” consists of the United Kingdom and those countries or regions specified by the FCA by direction.

5. The FCA may only give a direction under paragraph 4 specifying that a country or region is within the relevant area in relation to one or more financial instruments for the purposes of this Article if the FCA is able to obtain sufficient reliable trading data to enable it to assess the volume of trading in the financial instruments concerned in that country or region.

6. Article 50B of Regulation 600/2014/EU (“the Regulation”) applies to a direction given by the FCA for the purposes of this Article as it applies to a direction given by the FCA for the purposes of Article 5, 9 or 14 of the Regulation.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers in section 8 of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union (and in particular, the deficiencies under paragraphs (b), (c), (e), (f) and (g) of section 8(2)). They amend the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Regulated Activities) Order 2001, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Markets in Financial Instruments) Regulations 2017, and the Data Reporting Services Regulations 2017. They also amend Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 on markets in financial instruments and Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/565/EU supplementing Directive 2014/65/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council as regards organisational requirements and operating conditions for investment firms and defined terms; and Commission Delegated Regulation 2017/567/EU supplementing Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to definitions, transparency, portfolio compression and supervisory measures on product intervention and positions.

These Regulations refer to the Rulebook made by the Prudential Regulation Authority under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000, and sourcebooks made by the Financial Conduct Authority under that Act. The Rulebook is available on <http://www.prerulebook.co.uk> and copies of the rules referred to can be obtained from the Prudential Regulation Authority, 20 Moorgate, London EC2R 6DA, where it is also available for inspection. Sourcebooks made by the Financial Conduct Authority are available on <https://www.handbook.fca.org.uk/handbook> and copies of the rules referred to can be obtained from the Financial Conduct Authority, 12 Endeavour Square, London E20 1JN, where it is also available for inspection.

An impact assessment of the effect that this instrument, and other instruments made by HM Treasury under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 at or about the same time, will have on the costs of business, the voluntary sector and the public sector will be available from HM Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London SW1A 2HQ and will be published alongside this instrument at www.legislation.gov.uk.
