The Equine Identification (England) Regulations 2018

PART 4

Criminal offences

Offences relating to implantation of transponder

- 29. A person is guilty of an offence if the person knowingly—
- (a) implants, or attempts to implant, into an equine, a device which—
    - (i) is not a genuine transponder; or
    - (ii) has previously been inserted into, or used for, another animal; or
    - (iii) tampers with, or otherwise alters, a transponder with intent to deceive.
