EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which extend to England and Wales only, amend the Sexual Offences Act 2003 (Prescribed Police Stations) (England and Wales) Regulations 2018 (“the 2018 Regulations”).

The Sexual Offences Act 2003 (“the 2003 Act”) imposes notification requirements on offenders convicted of certain sex offences. These offenders are called “relevant offenders”. The 2003 Act requires relevant offenders to notify certain personal information to the police. Section 87(1) of the 2003 Act provides that relevant offenders give such notifications by attending at any police station in the relevant offender’s local police area which is prescribed in regulations. The 2018 Regulations prescribe those police stations in England and Wales.

These Regulations make changes to the list of police stations prescribed in 12 of the local police areas.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
