6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 The Order is being made to give effect in United Kingdom (UK) legislation to the 2018 Protocol, which has been signed by the two Governments. The arrangements in the 2018 Protocol are specified in the Schedule to the Order, and are given domestic legislative effect. The Order does not implement European Union legislation.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 The 2018 DTA replaced the arrangements set out in the 1974 DTA between the two Governments for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income and Capital Gains. DTAs aim to prevent income or gains being taxed both in the territory in which they arise and the territory in which the recipient is resident. They do this by allocating the taxing rights that each treaty partner has under its domestic law over the same income and gains and/or by providing relief from double taxation.
- 7.2 Under the 1974 DTA, all pensions, including government service pensions, were taxable only in the state of which the recipient of the pension was a resident. As a result, under the 1974 DTA a Cypriot resident in receipt of a government pension from the UK was taxable on that pension only in Cyprus. Under Cypriot law, a resident of Cyprus in receipt of a pension for services rendered outside of Cyprus can opt for their pension income to be taxed at a rate of 5 per cent.
- 7.3 The 2018 DTA changed the basis of taxation of government service pensions so that they would generally be taxable only in the state paying the pension. This approach follows the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development Model Tax Convention and is considered an internationally accepted practice. As a result of the change, a Cypriot resident in receipt of a government pension from the UK will generally be taxable on that pension only in the UK and at their marginal rate of UK income tax.
- 7.4 The 2018 Protocol amends the Entry into Force provisions of the 2018 DTA so that a person in receipt of a government service pension can elect to continue to be taxed in accordance with the provisions of the 1974 DTA for a period of up to 5 years.
- 7.5 This amendment is intended to give persons affected by the change in the taxation of government service pensions under the 2018 DTA sufficient time to plan for the revised tax treatment of their income.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- 8.1 This instrument does not relate to withdrawal from the European Union.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 An informal consolidated version of the 2018 DTA will be published on the HMRC pages of the gov.uk website on entry into force of the 2018 Protocol.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 The arrangements in the 2018 Protocol were made in response to representations received in respect of the 2018 DTA from Members of Parliament, individuals resident in Cyprus and groups representing the interests of pensioners in Cyprus. These representations expressed concern about the increase in the rate of tax payable by persons resident in Cyprus in receipt of a UK government pension, the effect that this increase would have on their disposable income, and the short period of time between the announcement of the change in their tax treatment and those changes taking effect.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 Guidance on the effect and operation of the 2018 Protocol can be found on the HMRC pages of the gov.uk website at:

12. Impact

- 12.1 There is no, or no significant, impact on business, charity or voluntary bodies.
- 12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector.
- 12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument because it gives effect to a DTA. DTAs do not introduce new tax burdens; rather, they provide relief from tax. Taxpayers may have to make a claim to HMRC or the other territory's fiscal authority in order to benefit from the Arrangements.

13. Regulating small business

- 13.1 This Order does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses.

14. Monitoring & review

- 14.1 The approach to the monitoring of this legislation is that both governments will keep the Arrangements scheduled to the Order under consideration to ensure that they continue to meet the policy objectives set out above in Section 7.
- 14.2 The Order does not include a statutory review clause. In accordance with section 28(3)(a) Small Business, Enterprise and Employment Act 2015 there is no requirement to make provision for review of any secondary legislation that makes or amends provision imposing, abolishing or varying any tax, duty, levy or other charge.
