PART 2

Article 28: new Article

“Article 28

Existing enactments

1. Nothing in this Regulation prevents the maintenance of enactments on optional quality terms that are not covered by this Regulation and are in force immediately before exit day, provided that they comply with retained EU law.

2. In paragraph 1, ‘maintenance’ includes repeal and replacement, and revocation and replacement, without, in both cases, any substantive modification.”

PART 3

New Article 52a

“Article 52a

Applications pending on exit day

1. An application made under EU Regulation 1151/2012 before exit day to which paragraph 2 applies is deemed to be an application made under Article 49(1) of this Regulation for which scrutiny under Article 50(1) of this Regulation has not been commenced. Unless requested not to do so in writing by the applicant who submitted the application, the Secretary of State must scrutinise the application under Article 50(1) of this Regulation. The six month period specified in Article 50(1) starts from the day on which exit day falls.

2. This paragraph applies to an application submitted to the Secretary of State on or after 1st January 2019 or the Secretary of State or the Department for Environment Food and Rural Affairs before that date:

- (a) to register:
 - (i) a name of a geographical area in, or partly in, the United Kingdom as a designation of origin,
 - (ii) a name of a geographical area in, or partly in, the United Kingdom as a geographical indication, or
 - (iii) a name as a traditional speciality guaranteed, and
- (b) that has not been scrutinised under Article 49(2) of EU Regulation 1151/2012 before exit day or has been subject to scrutiny under Article 49(2) before exit day but for which no decision has been taken as to whether it meets the relevant conditions of EU Regulation 1151/2012 or is justified.

3. An application made under EU Regulation 1151/2012 before exit day to which paragraph 4 applies is deemed to be an application made under Article 49(1) of this Regulation that has been found by the Secretary of State, for the purpose of Article 50(2), to fulfil the conditions laid down in this Regulation but for which the documents specified in Article 50(2) have not been published.

In the case of an application to register the name of a designation of origin or geographical indication, the Secretary of State must, unless requested not to do so in writing by the applicant who submitted the application, publish the single document and product specification submitted with the application made under EU Regulation 1151/2012 as soon as reasonably practicable after exit day.

In the case of an application to register the name of a traditional speciality guaranteed, the Secretary of State must, unless requested not to do so in writing by the applicant who submitted the application, publish the product specification submitted with the application made under EU Regulation 1151/2012 as soon as reasonably practicable after exit day.

The publication of the documents specified in the second or third subparagraph by the Secretary of State initiates the opposition procedure to which Article 51 of this Regulation applies in relation to the application.

4. This paragraph applies to an application submitted to the Secretary of State on or after 1st January 2019 or the Secretary of State or the Department for Environment Food and Rural Affairs before that date:

- (a) to register:
 - (i) the name of a geographical area in, or partly in, the United Kingdom as a designation of origin,
 - (ii) the name of a geographical area in, or partly in, the United Kingdom as a geographical indication, or
 - (iii) a name as a traditional speciality guaranteed, and
- (b) that has been scrutinised under Article 49(2) of EU Regulation 1151/2012 and been found by the Secretary of State to meet the conditions of, and to be justified under, EU Regulation 1151/2012 before exit day but for which the Commission has not adopted an implementing act under Article 52 of EU Regulation 1151/2012 before exit day.”

- (b) may take into account evidence that was not available to the Secretary of State.

4. The FTT may:
 - (a) dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) if it allows the appeal, exercise any power specified in the corresponding entry in the third column of the table in Annex 3.
5. The Secretary of State may consider a decision specified in the first column of the table in Annex 3 afresh if evidence becomes available to the Secretary of State after making the original decision that was not available to the Secretary of State at the time of the original decision.
6. Paragraph 5 applies even though an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of the original decision.
7. Where the Secretary of State decides to consider an original decision afresh in a case where an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of that decision, the appeal to the FTT is suspended until such time as the Secretary of State has made a fresh decision in relation to the matter.
8. If the Secretary of State makes the same decision again, the appeal to the FTT restarts. If the Secretary of State makes a different decision, the appeal to the FTT ceases unless the FTT directs otherwise.

Article 54b

Appeals: applications to register designations of origin, geographical indications and traditional specialities guaranteed

1. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to approve an application to register a designation of origin, geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed, and the Secretary of State has made an entry in the relevant register pursuant to Article 52 relating to that registration, the entry in the register is to be maintained but is in suspense and must be marked to indicate that it is in suspense until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.
2. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to approve an application to register a designation of origin, geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed, and the Secretary of State has not made an entry in the register, the Secretary of State must not make an entry in the register until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

Article 54c

Appeals: applications to amend product specifications

1. Paragraph 2 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to approve an application of the type specified in Article 53(2) to amend a product specification relating to a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed and the Secretary of State has not updated the entry in the relevant register relating to it pursuant to Article 14(3) of Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 668/2014 by replacing the copy of the product specification attached to the relevant register with the amended version of the product specification.
2. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the existing copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the relevant register relating to the protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed applies without amendment but the entry in the relevant register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the amendment of the product specification is pending.
3. Paragraph 4 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to approve an application of the type specified in Article 53(2) in relation to the amendment of a product specification relating to a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed and the Secretary of State has updated the entry in the relevant register relating to the protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed by replacing the copy of the product specification with the approved amended version.

4. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the previous copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the relevant register is to be restored but the entry in the relevant register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the amendment of the product specification is pending.

5. Paragraph 6 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to reject an application of the type specified in Article 53(2) to amend a product specification relating to a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed.

6. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the existing copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the relevant register is to be maintained but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to an application to amend the product specification is pending.

7. Paragraph 8 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to approve an application of the type specified in Article 6(4) and (4)(a) of Regulation 664/2014 to amend a product specification relating to a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed on a temporary basis and the Secretary of State has not included an entry in the relevant register relating to the temporary amendment of the product specification pursuant to Article 14(3b) of Commission Implementing Regulation (EU) 668/2014.

8. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the existing copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the relevant register applies without amendment but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the temporary amendment of the product specification is pending.

9. Paragraph 10 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to approve an application of the type specified in Article 6(4) of Regulation 664/2014 in relation to the temporary amendment of a product specification relating to a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed and the Secretary of State has updated the entry in the relevant register by including an entry relating to the temporary amendment of the product specification.

10. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the relevant register applies and the entry in the relevant register relating to the temporary amendment must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the temporary amendment of the product specification is pending.

11. Paragraph 12 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to reject an application of the type specified in Article 6(4) and (4)(a) of Regulation 664/2014 to amend a product specification relating to a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed on a temporary basis.

12. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the copy of the product specification attached to the entry in the relevant register applies but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to an application to amend the product specification on a temporary basis is pending.

Article 54d

Appeals: applications to cancel registered designations of origin, geographical indications and traditional specialities guaranteed

1. Paragraph 2 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the registration of a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed under Article 54 and the Secretary of State has not removed the entry in the relevant register.
2. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the relevant register is to be maintained but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to its cancellation is pending.
3. Paragraph 4 applies where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the registration of a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed and the Secretary of State has removed the entry in the relevant register.
4. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the register must be restored but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to its cancellation is pending.
5. Paragraph 6 applies where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State not to cancel the registration of a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed.
6. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the relevant register relating to the protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending.”

SCHEDULE 3 Regulation 9(3)(b), (20)(c), (22),
(29), (34)(b) and (36)

Regulation (EU) No 251/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council: new provisions

PART 1

Article 2(1): new definitions

“(4) ‘constituent nation’ means England, Northern Ireland, Scotland or Wales;

(5) ‘country’, in relation to the United Kingdom, means the United Kingdom as a whole and does not mean any of the individual constituent nations forming part of the United Kingdom;

(6) ‘enactment’ includes enactments of the type specified in paragraphs (a) to (f) of the definition of ‘enactment’ in section 20(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 but does not include enactments of the type specified in paragraphs (g) and (h) of that definition;

(7) ‘FTT’ means the First-tier Tribunal;

(8) ‘register’ means the register established and maintained by the Secretary of State pursuant to Article 21;

(9) ‘third country’ means any country, other than the United Kingdom, and includes:

- (a) the Bailiwick of Guernsey;
- (b) the Bailiwick of Jersey;
- (c) the Isle of Man.”

PART 2

Article 24: new paragraph 3

“3. In a case where the proposed amendment is only minor and the Secretary of State decides not to follow the procedure laid down in Articles 14(2) and 15, the Secretary of State, after making a decision in relation to the application, must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time:

- (a) a notice informing the applicant and the public of the decision made in relation to the application, and
- (b) where the application is approved, a copy of the single document and product specification for the geographical indication incorporating the approved amendment.”

PART 3

New Articles 25a to 25d

“Article 25a

Appeals: general

1. An appeal may be made to the FTT against a decision of the Secretary of State specified in the first column of the table in Annex 4.
2. Such an appeal may be made:
 - (a) in all cases, by a person specified in the corresponding entry in the second column of the table in Annex 4;

- (b) in the case of a decision affecting an application submitted by the authorities of a third country, the authorities of that third country.
- 3. In determining such an appeal, the FTT:
 - (a) must consider the decision appealed against afresh, and
 - (b) may take into account evidence that was not available to the Secretary of State.
- 4. The FTT may:
 - (a) dismiss the appeal, or
 - (b) if it allows the appeal, exercise any power specified in the corresponding entry in the third column of the table in Annex 4.
- 5. The Secretary of State may consider a decision specified in the first column of the table in Annex 4 afresh if evidence becomes available to the Secretary of State after making the original decision that was not available to the Secretary of State at the time of the original decision.
- 6. Paragraph 5 applies even though an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of the original decision.
- 7. Where the Secretary of State decides to consider an original decision afresh in a case where an appeal has been made to the FTT in respect of that decision, the appeal to the FTT is suspended until such time as the Secretary of State has made a fresh decision in relation to the matter.
- 8. If the Secretary of State makes the same decision again, the appeal to the FTT restarts. If the Secretary of State makes a different decision, the appeal to the FTT ceases unless the FTT directs otherwise.

Article 25b

Appeals: applications to register geographical indications

- 1. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to approve an application to register a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has made an entry in the register relating to that geographical indication, the entry in the register is to be maintained but is in suspense and must be marked to indicate that it is in suspense until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.
- 2. Where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision to approve an application to register a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has not made an entry in the register relating to that geographical indication, the Secretary of State must not make an entry in the register until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State.

Article 25c

Appeals: applications to amend product specifications

- 1. Paragraph 2 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to approve an application made under Article 24 to amend a product specification for a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has not updated the entry in the register relating to the indication to incorporate the approved amendment.
- 2. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the existing entry in the register relating to the geographical indication is to be maintained but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the amendment of the product specification is pending.
- 3. Paragraph 4 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to approve an application made under Article 24 in relation to the amendment of a product specification for a geographical indication and the Secretary of State has updated the entry in the register relating to the geographical indication to incorporate the approved amendment.

4. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the previous entry in the register for the protected geographical indication is to be restored but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the amendment of the product specification is pending.

5. Paragraph 6 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision by the Secretary of State to reject an application made under Article 24 to amend a product specification for a protected geographical indication.

6. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the existing entry in the register is to be maintained but the entry in the register must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to an application to amend the specification is pending.

Article 25d

Appeals: applications to cancel geographical indications

1. Paragraph 2 applies where an appeal is made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the registration of a protected geographical indication under Article 25 and the Secretary of State has not removed the entry in the register relating to the geographical indication.

2. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the register for the geographical indication is to be maintained but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to its cancellation is pending.

3. Paragraph 4 applies where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State to cancel the registration of a protected geographical indication and the Secretary of State has removed the entry in the register for the geographical indication.

4. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the register must be restored but must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to its cancellation is pending.

5. Paragraph 6 applies where an appeal has been made to the FTT relating to a decision of the Secretary of State not to cancel the registration of a protected geographical indication.

6. Until the FTT has determined the appeal and any necessary consequent action or decision has been taken by the Secretary of State, the entry in the register relating to the protected geographical indication must be marked to indicate that an appeal relating to the cancellation of the entry is pending.”

PART 4

New Article 33

“Article 33

Provisions relating to regulations

1. Any power to make regulations conferred on the Secretary of State by this Regulation is exercisable by statutory instrument.

2. Such regulations may:

(a) contain supplementary, incidental, consequential, transitional or saving provision (including provision amending, repealing or revoking enactments and retained direct EU legislation);

(b) make different provision for different purposes.

3. Except as specified in paragraph 4, a statutory instrument containing regulations under this Regulation is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

4. A statutory instrument containing regulations under Article 28 may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.”

SCHEDULE 4

Regulation 10(9)

Commission Delegated Regulation (EU) No 664/2014, Article 6: new paragraphs 3a to 3d and 4 to 4l

“3a. Temporary amendments concerning products originating in third countries must be communicated to the Secretary of State before the end of the period of two weeks beginning with the day after the first day on which the amendments apply in the relevant third country.

3b. The temporary amendments must be communicated to the Secretary of State by a group having a legitimate interest or by the authorities of the relevant third country.

3c. The communication must be accompanied by:

(a) the reasons for the amendments, and

- (b) as appropriate, evidence of the relevant sanitary and phytosanitary measures or a copy of a document issued by the authorities of the relevant third country recognising the natural disaster or adverse weather conditions.

3d. The Secretary of State must make the temporary amendments public in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State from time to time.

4. Paragraphs 4a to 4l apply to an application for a temporary amendment to a product specification for a protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed ('the temporary amendments application') concerning the production of products originating in the United Kingdom where it is impossible or difficult to comply with a requirement in a product specification in relation to the production of a product in the United Kingdom:

- (a) because of the imposition of an obligatory sanitary or phytosanitary measure in the United Kingdom by a public authority, including the Secretary of State, or
- (b) for reasons linked to a natural disaster or adverse weather conditions recognised by a public authority, including the Secretary of State.

4a. The temporary amendments application may be made to the Secretary of State.

4b. The procedure laid down in Articles 49 to 52 of Regulation (EU) No 1151/2012 does not apply to the temporary amendments application.

4c. The temporary amendments application may be made by a group having a legitimate interest in the relevant protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed. If the application is not made by the group that submitted the application to register the relevant protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed ('the original applicant group'), the Secretary of State must give the original applicant group the opportunity to make comments on the application if that group still exists.

4d. The temporary amendments application must:

- (a) describe the amendment applied for,
- (b) be accompanied by a copy of the product specification annotated in a way to show the proposed temporary amendment,
- (c) compare, for each amendment—
 - (i) the original product specification against the proposed amended product specification, and
 - (ii) where relevant, the original single document against the proposed amended single document,
- (d) provide a summary of the reasons why an amendment is required, explaining how the circumstances specified in point (a) or (b) of paragraph 4 affect the production of products to which the protected designation of origin, protected geographical indication or traditional speciality guaranteed applies,
- (e) be accompanied, as the case may be, by:
 - (i) evidence of the sanitary or phytosanitary measure or a reference to that measure that will enable the Secretary of State to identify the measure, and obtain a copy of it, easily, or
 - (ii) a copy of a document issued by the relevant public authority recognising the natural disaster or adverse weather conditions or a reference to that document that will enable the Secretary of State to identify the document, and obtain a copy of it, easily,
- (f) provide an estimate, where this is possible, of the period during which it is anticipated that the temporary amendment will need to apply, and

(g) be self-sufficient and contain all amendments to the product specification, and, where relevant, to the single document, for which approval is sought.

4e. A temporary amendments application that does not comply with paragraph 4d is not admissible. The Secretary of State must inform the applicant if the application is inadmissible as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the application.

4f. The Secretary of State may approve a temporary amendments application if the Secretary of State considers that a temporary amendment to the product specification is appropriate.

4g. Where a temporary amendments application is approved, the Secretary of State must specify the period for which the temporary amendment is approved.

4h. That period may be specified by reference to a set period of time or may be specified by reference to the a period expiring on the happening of an event specified in the decision. The Secretary of State, in deciding the period, must take into account the conditions prevailing at the time the decision to approve the application is taken and the period for which the Secretary of State anticipates that those conditions will continue.

4i. The Secretary of State may extend the temporary amendment on one or more occasions if the Secretary of State considers it is appropriate to do so having regard to the conditions prevailing at the time that decision is made.

4j. After making a decision in relation to a temporary amendments application, the Secretary of State must publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State:

(a) a notice informing the applicant and the public of the decision made in relation to the application, and

(b) where the application is approved, details of the temporary amendments made to the product specification and the period during which those temporary amendments apply.

4k. Where a temporary amendments application is approved and the period during which such temporary amendments are to apply is extended, the Secretary of State must, on each occasion the period is extended, publish in such manner as appears appropriate to the Secretary of State a notice informing the applicant and the public of the extension of the period.

4l. In this paragraph ‘public authority’ has the meaning given in section 20(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.”

SCHEDULE 8

Regulation 17(3) and (4)(g)

The Veterinary Medicines Regulations 2013: new provisions

PART 1

New Schedule 1A

“SCHEDULE 1A

Regulation 4(4)

Converted EU marketing authorisations

1. In this Schedule—

“converted EU marketing authorisation” means an EU marketing authorisation to which paragraph 2 applies;

“EU marketing authorisation” means a marketing authorisation for a veterinary medicinal product granted by the European Commission in accordance with Title 3 of Regulation (EC) No 726/2004 of the European Parliament and of the Council laying down Community procedures for the authorisation and supervision of medicinal products for human and veterinary use and establishing a European Medicines Agency^(a).

2. This paragraph applies to an EU marketing authorisation which—

- (a) was granted before exit day, and
- (b) remains in force immediately before exit day.

3. A converted EU marketing authorisation has effect on and after exit day for the purposes of these regulations as if it were a marketing authorisation granted by the Secretary of State under these Regulations on the date it was originally granted—

- (a) on the terms which were in force immediately before exit day,
- (b) with the benefit of any periods of data marketing exclusivity from which the holder benefited immediately before exit day, and
- (c) subject to any suspension or post-authorisation obligations which were in force immediately before exit day.

4. Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph 3—

- (a) the holder of a converted EU marketing authorisation is subject to the annual fee as set out in paragraph 26 of Schedule 7;
- (b) a converted EU marketing authorisation is to be treated as having been granted in accordance with regulation 4(3) and Schedule 1 for the purposes of Regulation (EC) No 469/2009.”

(a) OJ No L 136, 30.4.2004, p 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU) No 1027/2012 (OJ No L 316, 14.11.2012, p 38).

SCHEDULE 9

Regulation 18(2), (3),
(4)(a) and (6)

Regulation (EC) No 470/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council: new provisions

PART 1

New Article 8

“Article 8

Application for a maximum residue limit

1. An application under these Regulations for a new or amended maximum residue limit for a substance intended for use in a veterinary medicinal product must be made to the appropriate authority.
2. An application must include all necessary administrative information, and all scientific documentation necessary for demonstrating the safety of the substance.
3. The applicant must pay to the appropriate authority the application fee, which is—
 - (a) for a new maximum residue limit in respect of a substance, £62,300;
 - (b) for an amended maximum residue limit in respect of a substance, £18,850.
4. The appropriate authority must ensure that where a valid application is received, the substance is classified under Article 14 within 210 days.
5. For the purposes of paragraph 4 an application is valid when both the requirements in paragraphs 2 and 3 have been complied with.
6. As soon as practicable after the substance is classified under Article 14, the appropriate authority must publish—
 - (a) a notice setting out the classification;
 - (b) the assessment report that has been prepared, with any commercially confidential or personal information deleted.
7. If the appropriate authority classifies a substance under Article 14(2)(b) or (d), it must notify the applicant accordingly, and the applicant may appeal to the Veterinary Products Committee under regulation 29 of the Veterinary Medicines Regulations 2013.

8. For the purposes of paragraph 7, regulations 29 and 30 of the Veterinary Medicines Regulations 2013 are to be read as if references to the Secretary of State were references to the appropriate authority.”

PART 2

New Article 9

“Article 9

Further power for appropriate authority to classify substances

1. The appropriate authority may classify a substance intended for use in a veterinary medicinal product which is to be administered to food-producing animals under Article 14 without an application having been made under these Regulations.
2. The power in paragraph 1 includes power to classify a substance which has previously been classified under Article 14.”

PART 3

Article 10(1): new paragraphs

“1. An application for the classification of a pharmacologically active substance intended to be used in a biocidal product used in animal husbandry pursuant to Article 19(7) of Regulation (EU) 528/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council concerning the making available on the market and use of biocidal products must be made under Article 8, notwithstanding that it is not a substance intended for use in a veterinary medicinal product to be administered to food-producing animals.

1A. The power to classify a substance under Article 9 may be exercised in respect of a pharmacologically active substance intended to be used in a biocidal product used in animal husbandry, notwithstanding that it is not a substance intended for use in a veterinary medicinal product to be administered to food-producing animals, where the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to do so for the purposes of Article 19(1)(e) of Regulation (EU) 528/2012.

1B. Where proposals are made for the classification of a substance under Article 9 in the circumstances described in paragraph 1A by a devolved authority, the Secretary of State must have regard to such proposals when exercising functions under that paragraph.

1C. In this Article, “devolved authority” has the meaning given in section 20(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018.”

PART 4

New Article 14A

“Article 14A

MRL register

1. The appropriate authority must maintain a register (“the MRL register”) in accordance with this Article.
2. The MRL register must contain—
 - (a) a list of substances which have been classified under Article 14;
 - (b) in respect of each such substance—

- (i) any maximum residue limit or other matter established under paragraph 2 of Article 14;
 - (ii) any conditions or restrictions included in the classification pursuant to paragraph 7 of Article 14.
3. The MRL register must be kept up to date.
 4. The MRL register must contain a search facility.
 5. The appropriate authority must make the MRL register available for inspection by the public on a website maintained by the appropriate authority.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) (in particular under section 8(2)(a), (b), (c), (d), (e) and (g)) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union.

These Regulations make amendments to legislation relating to—

- (a) aromatised wine;
- (b) the quality scheme for agricultural products and foodstuffs;
- (c) spirit drinks;
- (d) wine;
- (e) veterinary medicines;
- (f) residues.

Part 2 amends subordinate legislation and Part 3 amends and revokes retained direct EU legislation as regards the subjects in paragraphs (a) to (d). Part 4 amends subordinate legislation as regards the subject in paragraph (e) and Part 5 amends retained direct EU legislation as regards the subjects in paragraphs (e) and (f).

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
