The Victims' Payments Regulations 2020

PART 4

Determination of entitlement

Notification to the applicant

17. Following determination of eligibility for victims' payments, the Board must as soon as reasonably practicable notify the applicant in writing of the following matters—

- (a) whether the applicant is eligible for victims' payments;
- (b) any determination under regulation 12(3)(c);
- (c) the assessed degree of relevant disablement of the applicant or, as the case may be, the deceased;
- (d) in any case where an assessment is made under regulation 14, the interim period specified or extended;
- (e) a summary of the reasons for the matters in sub-paragraphs (a) to (d), and
- (f) the right to appeal.
