2020 No. 1592

1. Introduction

1.1 This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

- 2.1 This instrument extends the Sudan (Sanctions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2020 (S.I. 2020/753) (“the 2020 Regulations”), as amended from time to time, to all British overseas territories (except Bermuda and Gibraltar which implement sanctions through their own domestic legislation) with the modifications required to enable implementation and enforcement of the sanctions regime by the authorities in those territories (“the modified Regulations”).
- 2.2 It also extends to those British overseas territories, with suitable modifications and for the purposes of the modified Regulations, sections 44, 52(3) and 53 of the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (“the Sanctions Act”) which are required to ensure the effective implementation in those territories of the modified Regulations.
- 2.3 It also implements in those territories the travel ban imposed by paragraph 3(d) of United Nations Security Council Resolution 1591 (2005) (“UNSCR 1591”) in relation to persons designated by the Security Council or its Committee under paragraph 3(c) of that Resolution (which is implemented in the United Kingdom by way of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971).

5. European Convention on Human Rights

- 5.1 As this instrument is not subject to parliamentary procedure, no statement is required.

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 This instrument is made in exercise of statutory powers under section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 and section 63(3)(c) and (4) of the Sanctions Act.
- 6.2 The 2020 Regulations were made on 16th July 2020 using the powers in Part 1 of the Sanctions Act and were laid before Parliament on 20th July 2020. They are intended to ensure that the United Kingdom can operate an effective sanctions regime in relation to Sudan after the end of the Transition Period. When the 2020 Regulations come into force, they will replace in the United Kingdom, with substantially the same effect, the EU sanctions regime relating to Sudan that is currently in force under EU legislation and related United Kingdom regulations. The sanctions regime gives effect to the United Kingdom’s obligations under UNSCR 1591 in respect of financial and trade sanctions with the aim of supporting an end to conflict and suffering in Sudan by restricting the supply of arms to conflict areas in Sudan, and by imposing targeted sanctions measures on certain persons who impede the peace process, constitute a threat to stability in Darfur and the region, or have committed violations or abuses of human rights or international humanitarian law. The United Kingdom’s obligations under UNSCR 1591 in respect of immigration sanctions (“the UN travel ban”) are implemented in the United Kingdom separately by way of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971.
- 6.3 Section 63(3)(c) of the Sanctions Act provides that Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for any provision of Part 1 of that Act, or any regulations under Part 1 of that Act, to extend with or without modifications to any of the British overseas territories. Section 63(4) provides that this includes the power to extend any regulations as amended from time to time. This instrument extends to the Territories with relevant modifications both the 2020 Regulations and the provisions of the Sanctions Act required for the effective implementation in the Territories of the 2020 Regulations, namely in relation to protection for acts done for purposes of compliance, Crown application and saving for prerogative powers.

6.4 Section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 provides that Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as appears to Her necessary or expedient for enabling the effective application of certain measures where, under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Security Council has called upon Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to apply such measures to give effect to any decision of that Council. In accordance with subsection (2) of that section, such Orders in Council may extend to the British overseas territories. This instrument implements the UN travel ban in respect of Sudan.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 Her Majesty's Government's policy on Sudan is to promote peace, stability and security in Sudan including through the resolution of the conflicts that have impacted the people of Sudan for decades, and through the promotion of respect for democracy, the rule of law and good governance. The security situation in conflict areas within Sudan remains fragile and of concern to both the UK and the international community. Although there has been an overall reduction in conflict and shifts in the political makeup of the country, the security situation for internally displaced persons, refugees and civilians continues to be of concern. Despite welcome commitments to securing a comprehensive peace agreement there has been no lasting settlement between the armed groups and authorities in Khartoum and a number of the root causes of the conflict have not been addressed comprehensively. This has resulted in some armed groups remaining active.
- 7.2 UN sanctions were first imposed on Sudan under UNSCR 1556 (2004) as an arms embargo with the aim to prevent the flow of weaponry associated with armed conflict and human rights abuses. UNSCR 1591 (2005) further imposed an asset freeze and travel ban, and also expanded the arms embargo. In line with its international obligations under the Charter of the United Nations, the United Kingdom is committed to the implementation of UN sanctions in the Territories.
- 7.3 The EU implements UN sanctions through EU Council Decisions and Regulations. The EU first adopted an arms embargo in respect to Sudan by way of a Council Decision in 1994. The current EU regime is contained in EU Council Decision 2014/450 of 10th July 2014 and EU Council Regulation 747/2014 of 10th July 2014. The 2020 Regulations are intended to deliver in the United Kingdom substantially the same policy effects as those sanctions currently in force through EU legislation, as well as enabling Her Majesty's Government to impose further sanctions autonomously.
- 7.4 It is the policy of Her Majesty's Government to give effect in the Territories to United Kingdom autonomous sanctions measures, in order to make sanctions as effective as possible.
- 7.5 Therefore, this instrument extends the 2020 Regulations, and relevant provisions of the Sanctions Act, to the Territories, as well as implementing the UN travel ban, so that the sanctions measures in the Territories in relation to Sudan, together with associated criminal offences and enforcement powers, align with the sanctions regime in the United Kingdom. Schedule 2 to this instrument sets out the modifications to be made to the 2020 Regulations as extended by article 2 so that they can be effectively implemented and enforced in the Territories.

- 7.6 In particular, the modified Regulations ensure that the financial sanctions measures in the 2020 Regulations apply with the same effect in the Territories in respect of persons designated by the Secretary of State under the 2020 Regulations, as well as to persons designated by the UN Security Council or its Committee under paragraph 3(c) of UNSCR 1591. The names of designated persons are not included in this instrument or the modified Regulations. Instead, the Governor of the Territory is required to publish, and keep up to date, a list of designated persons under this sanctions regime.
- 7.7 The modifications set out in Schedule 2 to this instrument ensure that persons designated for the purposes of immigration sanctions by the Secretary of State under the 2020 Regulations (i.e. who are to be excluded from the United Kingdom) are also to be excluded from the Territories. This instrument also makes separate provision for persons designated by the UN Security Council or its Committee established under paragraph 3(a) of UNSCR 1591 to be excluded from the Territories.
- 7.8 The provisions in the 2020 Regulations in relation to licences which may be issued in respect of financial and trade sanctions measures are modified by Schedule 2 of this instrument so that the licensing powers in the Territories are exercisable by the Governor of a Territory only with the consent of the Secretary of State. The provisions enabling directions to be given by the Secretary of State in relation to the immigration provisions in the 2020 Regulations are also modified so that the Governor of the Territory may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, direct that the immigration provisions in the modified Regulations do not apply to specified persons. The modified Regulations also provide that a person's conduct outside the Territory will not contravene a prohibition under the modified Regulations if the conduct has been authorised by a licence issued by the Secretary of State or Treasury under the 2020 Regulations; similarly, a person's conduct in another British overseas territory or a Crown Dependency will not contravene a prohibition under the modified Regulations if the conduct has been authorised by a licence or similar authorisation issued under the law of that British overseas territory or Crown Dependency.
- 7.9 The modifications set out in Schedule 2 in relation to criminal penalties and enforcement powers are intended to ensure that the implementation and enforcement of the Sudan sanction regime in the Territories is aligned, as far as possible and reflecting the unique legal and governance arrangements in each Territory, with its implementation and enforcement in the United Kingdom.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- 8.1 This instrument is not being made under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act but relates to the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. This is because it extends the 2020 Regulations to the Territories and the 2020 Regulations replace in the United Kingdom, with substantially the same effect, the existing EU sanctions regime in relation to Sudan. The Order in Council which currently implements the EU sanctions regime in the Territories will be revoked at the end of the Transition Period.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 This instrument does not consolidate previous instruments.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 Officials at the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office have engaged with the Territories on sanctions regimes established under the Sanctions Act, including consultation on the approach to modifications and on the ‘model’ drafting to be included in the Orders in Council.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office is working with the Territories to ensure that adequate information and guidance is published to ensure the effective implementation and understanding of the sanctions regime in the Territories.

12. Impact

- 12.1 The territorial extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories: no, or no significant, impact is foreseen on business, charities or voluntary bodies in the United Kingdom.
- 12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector in the United Kingdom.
- 12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

13. Regulating small business

- 13.1 The territorial extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories: the legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses in the United Kingdom.

14. Monitoring & review

- 14.1 The Sanctions Act requires regular reviews of regulations made under section 1 of that Act. These obligations apply to the 2020 Regulations which are extended to the Territories by this instrument.
- 14.2 The UN sanctions are monitored and reviewed by the UN Security Council and by its Sanctions Committee. If the UN sanctions are suspended or lifted by the Security Council, this instrument will be reviewed and updated or revoked as necessary.
