

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM TO
THE ISIL (DA’ESH) AND AL-QAIDA (UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS)
(OVERSEAS TERRITORIES) ORDER 2020

2020 No. 1608

1. Introduction

1.1 This explanatory memorandum has been prepared by the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office and is laid before Parliament by Command of Her Majesty.

2. Purpose of the instrument

2.1 This instrument extends the ISIL (Da’esh) and Al-Qaida (United Nations Sanctions) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019 (S.I. 2019/466) (“the 2019 Regulations”), as amended from time to time, to all British overseas territories (except Bermuda and Gibraltar which implement sanctions through their own domestic legislation) with the modifications required to enable implementation and enforcement of the sanctions regime by the authorities in those territories (“the modified Regulations”).

2.2 It also extends to those British overseas territories, with suitable modifications and for the purposes of the modified Regulations, sections 44, 52(3) and 53 of the Sanctions and Anti-Money Laundering Act 2018 (“the Sanctions Act”) which are required to ensure the effective implementation in those territories of the modified Regulations.

2.3 It also implements in those territories the travel ban imposed by paragraph 1(b) of United Nations Security Council Resolution 2368 (2017) (“UNSCR 2368”) in relation to all persons included on the ISIL (Da’esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions list created pursuant to UNSCRs 1267 (1999), 1333 (2000), 1989 (2011), 2083 (2012), and 2161 (2014) and 2253 (2015) (“the ISIL (Da’esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions list”) (which is implemented in the United Kingdom by way of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971).

Matters of special interest to the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments

3.1 None.

Matters relevant to Standing Orders Nos. 83P and 83T of the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relating to Public Business (English Votes for English Laws)

3.2 As this instrument is not subject to parliamentary procedure there are no matters relevant to Standing Orders Nos. 83P and 83T of the Standing Orders of the House of Commons relating to Public Business.

4. Extent and Territorial Application

4.1 The extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is: Anguilla, British Antarctic Territory, British Indian Ocean Territory, Cayman Islands, the Falkland Islands, Montserrat, Pitcairn (including Henderson, Ducie and Oeno Islands), St Helena, Ascension and Tristan da Cunha, South Georgia and the South Sandwich

Islands, the Sovereign Base Areas of Akrotiri and Dhekelia, the Turks and Caicos Islands and the Virgin Islands (“the Territories”).

- 4.2 Subject to paragraph 4.3, the application of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories.
- 4.3 The modified Regulations which are extended to the Territories by this instrument also apply to conduct by a Territory person where that conduct is wholly or partly outside the Territory. “Territory person” is defined in regulation 2 of the modified Regulations as meaning, in relation to the Territory, a person who is:

5. European Convention on Human Rights

- 5.1 As this instrument is not subject to parliamentary procedure, no statement is required.

6. Legislative Context

- 6.1 This instrument is made in exercise of statutory powers under section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 and section 63(3)(c) and (4) of the Sanctions Act.
- 6.2 The 2019 Regulations were made on 5th March 2019 using the powers in Part 1 of the Sanctions Act and were laid before Parliament on 6th March 2019. They are intended to ensure that the United Kingdom can operate an effective sanctions regime in relation to ISIL (Da’esh) and Al-Qaida after the end of the Transition Period. When the 2019 Regulations come into force, they will replace in the United Kingdom, with substantially the same effect, the EU sanctions regime implementing UN obligations relating to ISIL (Da’esh) and Al-Qaida that is currently in force under EU legislation and related United Kingdom regulations. The sanctions regime gives effect to the United Kingdom’s obligations under UNSCR 2368 in respect of financial and trade sanctions. The United Kingdom’s obligations under UNSCR 2368 in respect of immigration sanctions (“the UN travel ban”) are implemented in the United Kingdom separately by way of section 8B of the Immigration Act 1971.
- 6.3 Section 63(3)(c) of the Sanctions Act provides that Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for any provision of Part 1 of that Act, or any regulations under Part 1 of that Act, to extend with or without modifications to any of the British overseas territories. Section 63(4) provides that this includes the power to extend any regulations as amended from time to time. This instrument extends to the Territories with relevant modifications both the 2019 Regulations and the provisions of the Sanctions Act required for the effective implementation in the Territories of the 2019 Regulations, namely in relation to protection for acts done for purposes of compliance, Crown application and saving for prerogative powers.

- 6.4 Section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946 provides that Her Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as appears to Her necessary or expedient for enabling the effective application of certain measures where, under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations, the Security Council has called upon Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom to apply such measures to give effect to any decision of that Council. In accordance with subsection (2) of that section, such Orders in Council may extend to the British overseas territories. This instrument implements the UN travel ban in respect of ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida.

7. Policy background

What is being done and why?

- 7.1 Her Majesty's Government ("HMG") employs counter-terrorism sanctions as a key part of the UK's national, and international, response to global terrorism. Sanctions form an important part of the UK's counter-terrorism policy; their objective is to further the prevention of global terrorism, fulfilling the UK's international responsibility to comply with the relevant UN obligations.
- 7.2 Global terrorism is a serious threat to international peace and security. The UK remains concerned about the extremist ideology and violent actions of terrorists. ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida and their affiliates continue to be responsible for the deaths of innocent civilians and other victims, the destruction of property, and for greatly undermining stability through terrorist attacks around the world. HMG will continue to play a leading role in supporting global effort against terrorism.
- 7.3 The UN's counter-terrorism sanctions regime was created by UNSCR 1267 (1999) which first imposed sanctions on the Taliban. It has been amended and extended on numerous occasions since then, most notably to include Al-Qaida in 2000 (UNSCR 1333 (2000)), and ISIL (Da'esh) in 2015 (UNSCR 2253 (2015)). UNSCR 2368 provides for a travel ban, trade and financial measures on persons included on the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions list. In line with its international obligations under the Charter of the United Nations, the United Kingdom is committed to the implementation of UN sanctions in the Territories.
- 7.4 The EU implements UN sanctions through EU Council Decisions and Regulations. The 2019 Regulations are intended to deliver in the United Kingdom substantially the same policy effects as those sanctions currently in force through EU legislation in relation to the UN ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida sanctions regime.
- 7.5 Therefore, this instrument extends the 2019 Regulations, and relevant provisions of the Sanctions Act, to the Territories, as well as implementing the UN travel ban, so that the sanctions measures in the Territories in relation to ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida, together with associated criminal offences and enforcement powers, align with the sanctions regime in the United Kingdom. Schedule 2 to this instrument sets out the modifications to be made to the 2019 Regulations as extended by article 2 so that they can be effectively implemented and enforced in the Territories.
- 7.6 In particular, the modified Regulations ensure that the financial sanctions measures in the 2019 Regulations apply with the same effect in the Territories in respect of persons included on the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions list. The names of designated persons are not included in this instrument or the modified Regulations. Instead, the Governor of the Territory is required to publish, and keep up to date, a list of designated persons under this sanctions regime.

- 7.7 This instrument also makes separate provision for designated persons on the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida Sanctions list for the purposes of paragraph 1(b) of resolution 2368 (travel ban) to be excluded from the Territories.
- 7.8 The provisions in the 2019 Regulations in relation to licences which may be issued in respect of financial sanctions measures are modified by Schedule 2 of this instrument so that the licensing powers in the Territories are exercisable by the Governor of a Territory only with the consent of the Secretary of State. The modified Regulations also provide that a person's conduct outside the Territory will not contravene a prohibition under the modified Regulations if the conduct has been authorised by a licence issued by the Treasury under the 2019 Regulations; similarly, a person's conduct in another British overseas territory or a Crown Dependency will not contravene a prohibition under the modified Regulations if the conduct has been authorised by a licence or similar authorisation issued under the law of that British overseas territory or Crown Dependency.
- 7.9 The modifications set out in Schedule 2 in relation to criminal penalties and enforcement powers are intended to ensure that the implementation and enforcement of the ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida sanctions regime in the Territories is aligned, as far as possible and reflecting the unique legal and governance arrangements in each Territory, with its implementation and enforcement in the United Kingdom.

8. European Union (Withdrawal) Act/Withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union

- 8.1 This instrument is not being made under the European Union (Withdrawal) Act but relates to the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union. This is because it extends the 2019 Regulations to the Territories and the 2019 Regulations replace in the United Kingdom, with substantially the same effect, the existing EU sanctions regime in relation to ISIL (Da'esh) and Al-Qaida. The Order in Council which currently implements the EU sanctions regime in the Territories will be revoked at the end of the Transition Period.

9. Consolidation

- 9.1 This instrument does not consolidate previous instruments.

10. Consultation outcome

- 10.1 Officials at the Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office have engaged with the Territories on the approach to the extension to the Territories of sanctions regimes established under the Sanctions Act, including consultation on the approach to modifications and on the 'model' drafting to be included in the Orders in Council.

11. Guidance

- 11.1 The Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office is working with the Territories to ensure that adequate information and guidance is published to ensure the effective implementation and understanding of the sanctions regime in the Territories.

12. Impact

- 12.1 The territorial extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories: no, or no significant, impact is foreseen on business, charities or voluntary bodies in the United Kingdom.

12.2 There is no, or no significant, impact on the public sector in the United Kingdom.

12.3 An Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument.

13. Regulating small business

13.1 The territorial extent of this instrument and the modified Regulations is the Territories: the legislation does not apply to activities that are undertaken by small businesses in the United Kingdom.

14. Monitoring & review

14.1 The Sanctions Act requires regular reviews of regulations made under section 1 of that Act. These obligations apply to the 2019 Regulations which are extended to the Territories by this instrument.

14.2 The UN sanctions are monitored and reviewed by the UN Security Council and by its Sanctions Committee. If the UN sanctions are suspended or lifted by the Security Council, this instrument will be reviewed and updated or revoked as necessary.
