Eligibility for authorisation

4.—(1) The following criteria must be met before an authorisation is granted to a person to use the bulk Customs declaration process—

- (a) an HMRC officer ^{M3} must be of the opinion that it is possible to exercise control of any goods declared under the bulk Customs declaration process without the effects being disproportionate to the benefit to the person of using the process; and
- (b) an HMRC officer must be satisfied that the person will exercise proper conduct of the operations necessary to comply with the requirements of the bulk Customs declaration process.

(2) For the purposes of considering whether the person will exercise proper conduct of the operations necessary to comply with the requirements of the bulk Customs declaration process, the matters that an HMRC officer may take into account include (for example)—

- (a) whether the person, or any directors or senior employees of the person, has been involved in a breach of an obligation relating to tax or of a Customs obligation, which in the opinion of an HMRC officer is—
 - (i) a serious breach having regard to the circumstances and nature of any breach and the number of any breaches; and
 - (ii) relevant to the suitability of the person to use the bulk Customs declaration process;
- (b) whether the person, or any directors or senior employees of the person, has any criminal conviction which in the opinion of the HMRC officer is—
 - (i) serious having regard to the type of conviction; and
 - (ii) relevant to the suitability of the person to use the bulk Customs declaration process;
- (c) whether the person maintains a logistical system and records that identify sufficiently the movement of, and transactions in, chargeable goods and domestic goods and facilitate compliance with Customs obligations;
- (d) whether—
 - (i) the person meets any professional standards of competence specified in a notice published by HMRC under regulation 93(2) of the import duty regulations; or
 - (ii) in the opinion of an HMRC officer the person's practical experience makes that person suitable to be an authorised declarant.

M3 “HMRC officer” is defined in section 37(1) of the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018 as an officer of Revenue and Customs.

The bulk Customs declaration process

5.—(1) The bulk Customs declaration process is the process in relation to Customs declarations provided by this regulation such that the requirements made by or under Part 1 of the Act in relation to a Customs declaration which would otherwise apply are disapplied or simplified.

(2) ^{M4}Subject to paragraph (4), an authorised declarant may use a single Customs declaration (“bulk Customs declaration”) to declare for the free-circulation procedure goods contained within two or more postal packets where—

- (a) each postal packet is sent from a country or territory outside of Great Britain to a recipient in Great Britain;
- [^{F2}(b) at the time of import, full relief from import duty is available for all the goods contained in each postal packet by virtue of the case described in section 5 of the UK Reliefs document (consignments containing goods of negligible value);]
- (c) the number of postal packets declared does not exceed such number as may be specified in a notice published by HMRC; and
- (d) the postal packets are imported in such manner as may be specified in a notice published by HMRC.

(3) HMRC must publish a notice under paragraph (1)(c) or (d).

(4) A bulk Customs declaration may not be used to declare goods where—

- (a) the goods are subject to excise duty;
- (b) the goods are moved in accordance with the UP Convention;
- (c) the goods are subject to a transit procedure ^{M5} at the time the bulk Customs declaration is made;
- (d) the goods are the subject of a restriction on import imposed under an enactment; or
- (e) the goods are of a description specified in a notice published by HMRC.

(5) For the purpose of this regulation “excise duty” has the meaning given in section 53 of the Act.
