

SCHEDULE 1

Regulations 7, 10, 13 and 14,

Procedure in adjudication proceedings

PART 1

Interpretation

Interpretation

1.—(1) In this Schedule—

“the appeal period” has the meaning given in paragraph 2(4);

“document exchange” means a document exchange providing a system of delivery of documents by reference to numbered boxes at document exchanges (DX);

“hearing” means an oral hearing;

“working day” means any day except—

- (a) a Saturday or a Sunday,
- (b) Good Friday,
- (c) Christmas Day, or
- (d) a day which is a Bank Holiday in England by virtue of the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971(1).

(2) In this Schedule, in relation to an appeal or any process connected with an appeal—

“the disputed decision” means the decision appealed against;

“the enforcement authority” means the enforcement authority which made the disputed decision;

“the original representations” means the representations to the enforcement authority under regulation 5(1), 8(5) or 11(3).

PART 2

Initiating an appeal

2.—(1) An appeal must be made by delivering a notice of appeal to the proper officer.

(2) A notice of appeal—

(a) must be in writing and signed by—

- (i) the appellant, or
- (ii) a person authorised to do so by the appellant,

(b) must state the name and address at which the appellant wishes documents in connection with the appeal to be sent,

(c) must state the date and any reference number of the disputed decision and the name of the enforcement authority, and

(1) 1971 c. 80.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (d) may include any representations which the appellant desires to make in addition to the original representations.
- (3) Sub-paragraph 2(2)(a)—
 - (a) is satisfied, in the case of a document transmitted by fax, if a copy of the signature of the relevant person appears on the transmitted copy, and
 - (b) does not apply in relation to a document transmitted by other means of electronic data transmission.
- (4) If the notice of appeal is delivered to the proper officer after the end of the period specified in regulation 7(2)(a), 10(2)(a) or 13(2)(a) (as the case may be) (“the appeal period”)—
 - (a) the appellant must include in the notice a statement of the reasons which are relied upon for justifying the delay, and
 - (b) the adjudicator must treat any such statement of reasons for delay as a request to extend that period.

Action upon receipt of notice of appeal and copy of such notice

- 3.—(1) Upon receiving a notice of appeal the proper officer must—
 - (a) send an acknowledgement of its receipt to the appellant, and
 - (b) enter particulars of the appeal in the register.
- (2) If the proper officer is satisfied that the notice of appeal is made in accordance with paragraph 2, the proper officer must send to the enforcement authority—
 - (a) a copy of the notice of appeal, and
 - (b) the directions extending the period for appealing (if any).
- (3) Where an enforcement authority receives a copy of a notice of appeal sent to it under sub-paragraph (2), the authority must, within seven days of the day on which it receives that copy, deliver to the proper officer a copy of each of the following—
 - (a) the original representations,
 - (b) the relevant penalty charge notice (if any), and
 - (c) the notice of rejection.
- (4) If the proper officer receives a notice of appeal and considers that it may not be in accordance with paragraph 2, the proper officer must refer the issue of its validity to an adjudicator.
- (5) If the adjudicator determines that the notice of appeal referred to the adjudicator under sub-paragraph (4) is in accordance with paragraph 2, the proper officer must deal with it in accordance with sub-paragraph (2).
- (6) Sub-paragraph (7) applies where—
 - (a) a notice of appeal is delivered outside the appeal period with a request to extend the appeal period and the adjudicator declines to direct that the period be extended, or
 - (b) the adjudicator determines that a notice of appeal is not in accordance with paragraph 2.
- (7) Where this sub-paragraph applies, the proper officer must—
 - (a) inform the appellant that the adjudicator has declined the request for an extension or, as the case may be, of the reasons why the adjudicator considers that the notice does not accord with paragraph 2, and
 - (b) record the action taken in the register.
- (8) In this paragraph “notice of rejection” means a notice of a decision made by an enforcement authority not to accept representations made to it under regulation 5, 8 or 11;

Further representations by the parties

4.—(1) Any party may deliver representations in relation to the matters referred to in regulation 5(2)(b), 8(5) or 11(3), as appropriate in the circumstances, to the proper officer at any time before the appeal is determined.

(2) The adjudicator may invite a party to deliver to the proper officer representations dealing with such matters relating to the appeal as may be specified by the adjudicator.

(3) Any representations in response to an invitation under sub-paragraph (2) must be delivered to the proper officer within the time and in the manner specified by the adjudicator.

(4) Where a party fails to respond to an invitation under sub-paragraph (2), the adjudicator may draw such inferences as appear proper to the adjudicator.

(5) Any representations delivered under this paragraph must be signed by the party in question or by someone authorised by that party to sign those representations.

(6) Sub-paragraph (5)—

(a) is satisfied, in the case of a document transmitted by fax, if a copy of the signature of the relevant person appears on the transmitted copy, and

(b) does not apply in relation to a document transmitted by other means of electronic data transmission.

(7) Where the appellant delivers representations to the proper officer under this paragraph, the proper officer must send a copy of the representations to the enforcement authority.

(8) Where the enforcement authority delivers representations to the proper officer under this paragraph, it must at the same time send a copy of the representations to the appellant.

(9) This paragraph is without prejudice to the powers of an adjudicator under paragraph 10.

Adjudicator's power to require attendance of witnesses and production of documents

5.—(1) The adjudicator may send a notice, in writing, to any person (including a party to the appeal) requiring that person to—

(a) attend, at a time and place specified in the notice, to give evidence at the hearing of an appeal, and

(b) produce any documents in that person's custody, or under that person's control, relating to any matter in the proceedings.

(2) A notice sent under sub-paragraph (1) must contain a statement of the effect of sub-paragraphs (3) to (7).

(3) A person who receives a notice under sub-paragraph (1) may apply to the adjudicator to vary or set aside the requirement.

(4) Subject to sub-paragraphs (5) and (6), a person is bound to comply with a requirement made under sub-paragraph (1) if—

(a) they have been given at least seven days' notice of the hearing, or

(b) otherwise, they have informed the adjudicator that the shorter notice period is accepted.

(5) No person, other than the appellant, is bound to comply with a requirement in under sub-paragraph (1) unless the necessary expenses of that person's attendance are paid or tendered to that person.

(6) No person is required to give any evidence or produce any documents under sub-paragraph (1) which would not be required to be given or produced in the trial of an action in a court of law.

(7) A person who fails to comply with a requirement made under sub-paragraph (1)—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (a) commits an offence, and
- (b) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.

Disposal of an appeal without a hearing

6.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, the adjudicator may dispose of an appeal without a hearing.

(2) The adjudicator must not dispose of an appeal without a hearing if, in the adjudicator's opinion, the appeal raises issues of public importance such as to require that a hearing be held.

(3) The adjudicator must not dispose of an appeal without a hearing if either party has requested a hearing unless—

- (a) the party who made the request withdraws the request before notice of a hearing has been sent to the other party under paragraph 7,
- (b) both parties have subsequently consented to the appeal being disposed of without a hearing, or
- (c) the party requesting the hearing, having been sent a notice of the hearing of an appeal in accordance with paragraph 7, fails to attend or be represented at the hearing.

(4) Where the adjudicator is minded to dispose of an appeal without a hearing, the appeal must not be so disposed of unless and until either—

- (a) there has elapsed a period of 28 days beginning with the date on which an acknowledgment is sent in accordance with paragraph 3(1) during which neither party has requested a hearing, or
- (b) both parties have consented to its disposal without a hearing.

Notice of time and place of hearing

7.—(1) This paragraph has effect where a hearing is to be held for the purpose of disposing of an appeal.

(2) The proper officer must—

- (a) fix the time and place of the hearing, and
- (b) not less than 21 days before the time so fixed, or such shorter time as the parties agree—
 - (i) send to each party a notice that the hearing is to be at that time and place, or
 - (ii) inform them of those matters in such other manner as the proper officer thinks fit.

(3) The adjudicator may alter the time and place of any hearing.

(4) If the adjudicator makes an alteration under sub-paragraph (3), the proper officer must, not less than seven days, or such shorter period as the parties agree, before the date on which the hearing is then to be held—

- (a) send to each party notice of the new time and place of the hearing, or
- (b) inform them of those matters in such other manner as the proper officer thinks fit.

(5) This paragraph applies to an adjourned hearing but, if before the adjournment, the time and place of the adjourned hearing are notified to all persons expected to attend, no further notice is required.

Public and private hearings and admission to a hearing

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, a hearing is to be held in public.

(2) The adjudicator may direct that the whole or any part of a hearing be held in private if satisfied that it is just and reasonable to do so by reason of—

- (a) the likelihood of disclosure of intimate personal or financial circumstances,
- (b) the likelihood of disclosure of commercially sensitive information or information obtained in confidence, or
- (c) exceptional circumstances not falling within paragraph (a) or (b).

(3) Any other adjudicator is entitled to attend the hearing of an appeal which is held in private.

(4) The adjudicator, with the consent of the parties, may permit any other person to attend the hearing of an appeal, which is held in private or, where part of it is so held, that part.

(5) Without prejudice to any other powers an adjudicator may have, the adjudicator may exclude from the hearing of an appeal, or part of it, any person whose conduct has disrupted, or is likely, in the opinion of the adjudicator, to disrupt, the hearing.

Appearances at a hearing

9.—(1) The parties may appear at the hearing of an appeal.

(2) Any other person may appear at a hearing at the discretion of the adjudicator.

(3) At the hearing of an appeal, the appellant may conduct their case in person (with assistance from any person if the appellant wishes) or may be represented by a solicitor, counsel or any other person.

(4) If in any particular case the adjudicator is satisfied that there are sufficient reasons for doing so, the adjudicator may prohibit a particular person from assisting or representing either party at the hearing.

Procedure at a hearing

10.—(1) At the beginning of the hearing of an appeal the adjudicator must explain the order of proceedings.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, the adjudicator must conduct the hearing of an appeal in the manner most suitable to the clarification of the issues and generally to the just handling of the proceedings, and the adjudicator must seek to avoid formality in the proceedings, so far as appears to the adjudicator to be appropriate.

(3) At the hearing of an appeal—

- (a) the parties are entitled to give evidence, to call witnesses and to address the adjudicator both on the evidence and generally on the subject matter of the appeal;
- (b) the adjudicator may receive evidence of any fact which appears to the adjudicator to be relevant even if such evidence would be inadmissible in proceedings before a court of law.

(4) Without prejudice to paragraph 6(3)(c), where a party who has been sent a notice of the hearing of an appeal or has otherwise been notified of the hearing in accordance with paragraph 7 fails to attend the hearing, the adjudicator may dispose of the appeal in that party's absence.

Decisions on appeals

11.—(1) The adjudicator must give the reasons for a decision on an appeal.

(2) Where an appeal is disposed of at a hearing, the adjudicator may—

- (a) give the decision and the reasons orally at the end of the hearing, or
- (b) reserve the decision and give it and the reasons subsequently in writing.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (3) Upon the decision being given (whether at a hearing or otherwise), the proper officer must—
 - (a) as soon as practicable record the decision in the register, together with the adjudicator's reasons and any directions given, and
 - (b) send a copy of the register entry to each party.

Review of adjudicator's decision

- 12.—(1) The adjudicator may, on the application of a party, review—
 - (a) any decision not to grant an extension of the period of time for bringing an appeal, or
 - (b) any decision to determine that a notice of appeal does not accord with paragraph 2 or to dismiss or allow an appeal, or any decision as to costs, on one or more of the following grounds—
 - (i) the decision was wrongly made as the result of an administrative error;
 - (ii) the adjudicator was wrong to reject the notice of appeal;
 - (iii) a party who failed to appear or be represented at a hearing had good and sufficient reason for failing to appear;
 - (iv) where the decision was made after a hearing, new evidence has become available since the conclusion of the hearing, the existence of which could not reasonably have been known or foreseen;
 - (v) where the decision was made without a hearing, new evidence has become available since the decision was made, the existence of which could not reasonably have been known or foreseen;
 - (vi) the interests of justice require such a review.
- (2) An application under sub-paragraph (1) must—
 - (a) be delivered to the proper officer within the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the copy of the entry in the register is served on the parties, and
 - (b) state the grounds in full.
- (3) The parties must have the opportunity to be heard on any application for review under sub-paragraph (1).
- (4) Having reviewed the decision, the adjudicator may direct that it be—
 - (a) confirmed,
 - (b) revoked, or
 - (c) varied.
- (5) If, having reviewed a decision, the adjudicator directs that it be revoked, the adjudicator must substitute a new decision or order a re-determination by—
 - (a) that adjudicator,
 - (b) the original adjudicator, or
 - (c) a different adjudicator.
- (6) Paragraph 11 applies to the confirmation, revocation or variation of a decision under this paragraph as it applies to a decision made on the disposal of an appeal.

Costs

- 13.—(1) An adjudicator must not normally make an order awarding costs and expenses.

(2) But, subject to sub-paragraph (3), an adjudicator may make an order awarding costs and expenses—

(a) against a party (including an appellant who has withdrawn an appeal or an enforcement authority which has consented to an appeal being allowed), if the adjudicator considers that—

(i) the party has acted frivolously or vexatiously, or

(ii) the party's conduct in making, pursuing or resisting an appeal was wholly unreasonable;

(b) against an enforcement authority, where the adjudicator considers that the disputed decision was wholly unreasonable.

(3) An order must not be made against a party unless that party has been given an opportunity to make representations against the making of the order.

(4) An order must require the party against whom it is made to pay to the other party a specified sum in respect of the costs and expenses incurred by that other party in connection with the proceedings.

Consolidation of proceedings

14.—(1) Where there are pending two or more appeals and at any time it appears to an adjudicator that—

(a) some common question of law or fact arises in both or all the appeals, or

(b) for some other reason it is desirable to make an order under this paragraph,

the adjudicator may order that both or all of the appeals or those specified in the order are to be considered together and may give such consequential directions as may appear to the adjudicator to be necessary.

(2) An order must not be made under this paragraph unless all parties concerned have been given an opportunity to make representations against the making of the order.

Miscellaneous powers of adjudicators

15.—(1) An adjudicator may—

(a) extend the time appointed by or under this Schedule for the doing of any act even where the time appointed has expired;

(b) if an appellant at any time gives notice of the withdrawal of their appeal, dismiss the proceedings;

(c) if an enforcement authority consents to an appeal being allowed, allow the appeal;

(d) if both or all of the parties agree in writing on the terms of a decision to be made by an adjudicator, decide accordingly;

(e) adjourn a hearing.

(2) An adjudicator may exercise the powers conferred by this Schedule (other than paragraph 12) on the application of a party or on the adjudicator's own motion.

Clerical errors

16. Clerical mistakes in any document recording a direction or decision of the adjudicator, or errors in such a document arising from an accidental slip or omission, may be corrected by the proper officer on the direction of the adjudicator.

PART 3

Service of documents

Service of documents on a party to an appeal

17.—(1) This paragraph applies to any notice or other document required or authorised by these Regulations to be sent to a party to an appeal (an “appeal document”).

(2) An appeal document is to be regarded as having been sent to that party if it is—

- (a) delivered to that party,
- (b) left at that party’s proper address,
- (c) sent by first class post to that party at that address, or
- (d) transmitted to that party by fax or other means of electronic data transmission in accordance with sub-paragraph (3).

(3) An appeal document may be transmitted to a party by fax or by other means of electronic data transmission where—

- (a) the party has indicated in writing to the person sending the document that this form of communication is acceptable if it is transmitted to a specified FAX telephone number or, as the case may be, a specified electronic address, and
- (b) the document is transmitted to that number or address.

(4) In the case of an enforcement authority, an indication under sub-paragraph (3)(a) may be expressed to apply in relation to any appeal to which it is the respondent.

(5) For the purposes of this Schedule, and of section 7 (references to service by post) of the Interpretation Act 1978(2) (“the 1978 Act”) in its application to this paragraph—

- (a) the proper address of the appellant is the address stated under paragraph 2(2)(b);
- (b) the proper address of an enforcement authority in proceedings in which it is the respondent is such address as the authority may from time to time specify, in a notice delivered to the proper officer, as being the authority’s address for service in all such proceedings.

(6) If no address has been stated under paragraph 2(2)(b) or, as the case may be, specified by the enforcement authority, the proper address for the purposes of this Schedule, and section 7 of the 1978 Act, is—

- (a) in the case of an individual, their usual or last known address;
- (b) in the case of a partnership, the principal or last known place of business of the firm within the United Kingdom;
- (c) in the case of an incorporated or unincorporated body, the registered or principal office of the body.

(7) Where a party’s proper address includes a box number at a document exchange, the delivery of an appeal document may be effected by leaving the document addressed to that box number—

- (a) at that document exchange, or
- (b) at a document exchange which transmits documents every working day to that exchange.

(8) A party may at any time, by notice in writing delivered to the proper officer, change their proper address for the purposes of this Schedule and section 7 of the 1978 Act.

(9) A party may, by notice in writing delivered to the other party and the proper officer, vary or revoke any indication given under sub-paragraph (3)(a).

(2) 1978 c. 30.

- (10) Unless the contrary is proved—
- (a) where an appeal document is left at the proper address of a party it is to be taken to have been delivered on the second working day after the day on which it was left;
 - (b) where an appeal document is sent by fax or other means of electronic data transmission it is to be taken to have been delivered on the first working day after the day on which it was transmitted;
 - (c) where an appeal document is left at a document exchange in accordance with sub-paragraph (7) it is to be taken to have been delivered on the second working day after the day on which it was left.

Delivery of documents to the proper officer

18.—(1) This paragraph applies to any notice or other document required or authorised by or under this Schedule to be delivered to the proper officer (a “PO document”).

(2) A PO document may be delivered to the proper officer by being transmitted to the proper officer by fax or other means of electronic data transmission, but only to a FAX telephone number or, as the case may be, electronic address for the time being published by the proper officer for the purpose of receiving PO documents.

(3) Unless the contrary is proved, any PO document transmitted in accordance with sub-paragraph (2) is to be taken to have been delivered on the second working day after the day on which it was transmitted.

(4) Where the address of the proper officer includes a box number at a document exchange, the delivery of such a document may be effected by leaving the document addressed to that box number—

- (a) at that document exchange, or
- (b) at a document exchange which transmits documents every working day to that exchange.

(5) Unless the contrary is proved, any PO document which is left at a document exchange in accordance with sub-paragraph (4) is to be taken to have been delivered on the second working day after the day on which it was left.

PART 4

Directions as to invalid notices

Directions as to invalid notices

19.—(1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the order of a county court which has been made against a person (a “relevant person”) is deemed to have been revoked following the making of a witness statement in accordance with regulation 23 of the 2022 General Regulations, and
- (b) the enforcement authority refers the case to the adjudicator for directions.

(2) The proper officer must enter particulars of the case in the register.

(3) The adjudicator must give directions as to the conduct of the proceedings unless the adjudicator decides that no such directions are necessary.

(4) The adjudicator may, in particular—

- (a) if it appears to the adjudicator that no appeal has been made by the relevant person in relation to the subject matter of the case, direct that the case proceed as an appeal;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (b) if it appears to the adjudicator that an appeal has been made by the relevant person in relation to the subject matter of the case and that the appeal has been dismissed, direct that the case proceed as an application under paragraph 12 to review that decision.
- (5) Where the adjudicator gives a direction under sub-paragraph (4)(a), Parts 1 to 3 of this Schedule (except paragraphs 2 and 3) apply as if an appeal had been duly made by the relevant person.
