The Warm Home Discount (England and Wales) Regulations 2022

PART 6

Review

Reviews of the Scheme

- 30.—(1) The Secretary of State must conduct a review of the Scheme, or any aspect of the Scheme, if the Secretary of State is satisfied that a review would be desirable in order to achieve greater reductions in fuel poverty or because—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers have consulted, or are consulting, the Secretary of State in accordance with section 14A(5)(a) of the Energy Act 2010(1), or
 - (b) there has been a significant change in circumstances since the commencement day.
- (2) The Secretary of State must conduct a review of regulation 6 if the Secretary of State is satisfied that a review would be desirable in order to—
 - (a) promote effective competition between suppliers, or
 - (b) protect the interests of GB domestic customers.
- (3) The Secretary of State must conduct a review of any aspect of the Scheme if the Secretary of State is satisfied that a review would be desirable—
 - (a) to protect the interests of GB domestic customers who have significant health problems or a disability and who are in fuel poverty or in a fuel poverty risk group,
 - (b) because that aspect of the Scheme is not, or may not be, operating effectively, or
 - (c) because the effectiveness of that aspect of the Scheme could be improved.
