PART 4

Super-complaints

CHAPTER 2

Power to make super-complaints

Criterion for the revocation of designations

90. The criterion specified for the revocation of a designation is that one or more of the following sets of circumstances apply in relation to the body—

- (a) it is failing to represent the interests of the public effectively in its role as a designated body;
- (b) it is failing to act independently and with integrity in that role;
- (c) it no longer has the capability necessary to carry out that role;
- (d) it no longer has effective arrangements for the appropriate storage and handling of data that it may obtain in its role as a designated body;
- (e) it is failing to have regard to guidance in relation to the making of super-complaints under regulation 88(1) which is given to designated bodies by the Chief Inspector;
- (f) it has become—
 - (i) a trade union; or
 - (ii) an association (other than a trade union) which represents the interests of members of a service police force;
- (g) it is—
 - (i) failing to collaborate effectively with bodies which are not designated bodies but which are, or may be, aware of matters which could form the basis of a super-complaint; or
 - (ii) failing to make super-complaints in appropriate cases on the basis of matters raised with it by such bodies.
