The Trade Remedies (Increase in Imports Causing Serious Injury to UK Producers)
(EU Exit) (Amendment) Regulations 2023

Part 1

Introductory

Application

- 2.—(1) These Regulations apply in relation to—
- (a) safeguarding investigations⁽¹⁾ under Part 2 of Schedule 5 to the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018 initiated by the TRA after the commencement of these Regulations,
 - (b) reviews under Part 6 and investigations under Part 7A of the Safeguards Regulations—
 - (i) initiated by the TRA after the commencement of these Regulations;
 - (ii) initiated by the TRA but not completed before the commencement of these Regulations,
 - (c) a recommendation made by the TRA under Part 7 of the Safeguards Regulations—
 - (i) after the commencement of these Regulations;
 - (ii) before the commencement of these Regulations, where the Secretary of State has not made a decision in relation to that recommendation before the commencement of these Regulations, and
 - (d) a suspension application made under regulation 40(1) of the Safeguards Regulations after the commencement of these Regulations.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), “initiated by the TRA” means—
- (a) in the case of a safeguarding investigation, that the TRA has published a notice of its decision to initiate the investigation;
 - (b) in the case of a review under Part 6 of the Safeguards Regulations, that the TRA has published a notice of initiation of a review under that Part;
 - (c) in the case of an investigation under Part 7A of the Safeguards Regulations, that the TRA has published a notice of its initiation of an international dispute investigation under regulation 42C of those Regulations.

⁽¹⁾ See paragraph 6 of Schedule 5 to the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018 for the meaning of “safeguarding investigation”.
