Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) the contractual arrangements give the lender a substantial degree of control over the assets and the income that they generate;
- (iii) the primary source of repayment of the obligation is the income generated by the assets being financed, rather than the independent capacity of a broader commercial enterprise;

“securitisation position” means an exposure to a securitisation;

“securitisation repository” means a body corporate that centrally collects and maintains the records of securitisations;

“securitisation special purpose entity” or “SSPE” means a corporation, trust or other entity, other than an originator or sponsor, established for the purpose of carrying out one or more securitisations, the activities of which are limited to those appropriate to accomplishing that objective and the structure of which is intended to isolate the obligations of the securitisation special purpose entity from those of the originator;

“small registered UK AIFM” has the meaning given in regulation 2(1) of the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013(17);

“sponsor” means a credit institution or an investment firm as defined in paragraph 1A of Article 2 of Regulation 600/2014/EU(18), whether located in the United Kingdom or in a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, which—

- (a) is not an originator, and
- (b) either—
 - (i) establishes and manages an ABCP programme or other securitisation that purchases exposures from third party entities, or
 - (ii) establishes an ABCP programme or other securitisation that purchases exposures from third party entities and delegates the day-to-day active portfolio management involved in that securitisation to an entity which is authorised to manage assets belonging to another person in accordance with the law of the country or territory in which the entity is established;

“STS criteria” has the meaning given in regulation 9(1)(a);

“STS notification” means a notification under regulation 10(1);

“STS securitisation” has the meaning given in regulation 9;

“territory” includes the European Union and any other international organisation or authority comprising countries or territories;

“third party verifier” has the meaning given in regulation 24;

“tranche” means a contractually established segment of the credit risk associated with an exposure or a pool of exposures, where a position in the segment entails a risk of credit loss greater than or less than a position of the same amount in another segment, without taking account of credit protection provided by third parties directly to the holders of positions in the segment or in other segments;

“the Tribunal” means the Upper Tribunal;

“trustees or managers”, in relation to an occupational pension scheme, means—

- (a) in relation to a scheme established under a trust, the trustees, and
- (b) in relation to any other scheme, the persons responsible for the management of the scheme;

(17) S.I. 2013/1773.

(18) EUR 2014/600. Paragraph 1A of Article 2 was inserted by S.I. 2018/1403.

PART 2

Designated activities

Activities specified as designated activities for purposes of FSMA 2000

4.—(1) The following activities are specified under section 71K of FSMA 2000(20) as designated activities for the purposes of that Act, where those activities are carried out by a person that is established in the United Kingdom—

(a) acting as one of the following in a securitisation—

- (i) an originator,
- (ii) a sponsor,
- (iii) an original lender, or
- (iv) a securitisation special purpose entity;

(b) selling a securitisation position to a retail client located in the United Kingdom.

(2) In this regulation “retail client” has the meaning given in rules made by the FCA.

Commencement Information

I4 Reg. 4 in force at 30.1.2024, see reg. 2\(1\)\(b\)

FCA rules

5.—(1) The FCA may make designated activity rules relating to the activities specified in regulation 4.

(2) Rules made by virtue of paragraph (1) may not impose requirements on a PRA-authorized person with respect to—

- (a) due diligence in relation to any securitisation, including monitoring, stress-testing and risk management,
- (b) the retention of any interest or risk in any securitisation or the selection of the assets for the securitisation,
- (c) the provision of information in relation to any securitisation,

(19) 1971 c. 80.

(20) Inserted by section 8(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) the inclusion of securitisation positions in the underlying exposures that may be used in a securitisation, or
 - (e) arrangements concerning the granting of credit applying to exposures to be securitised, or verification of the making of such arrangements where the originator purchases exposures from a third party on its own account.
- (3) Paragraph (2) does not apply to the imposition of requirements with respect to STS criteria or STS notifications.
- (4) The FCA must consult the PRA before making rules by virtue of paragraph (1) imposing a requirement on a PRA-authorized person.
- (5) The FCA may by notice suspend any rules made by virtue of paragraph (1) for such period as it considers appropriate (and see section 71N(6)(21) which imposes a duty to consult the PRA beforehand).
- (6) Rules made by virtue of paragraph (1) may include provision—
- (a) enabling requirements imposed by the rules to be dispensed with, modified, or reimposed (with or without modification) in such cases or circumstances as may be determined by the FCA under the rules;
 - (b) enabling publication of any decision made under sub-paragraph (a) in the way appearing to the FCA to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of persons likely to be affected by it.

Power of FCA to give directions

6.—(1) The FCA may give directions under section 71O of FSMA 2000(22) imposing on a person or a description of persons such requirements as the FCA considers appropriate in relation to the carrying on of an activity specified in regulation 4.

(2) In the following provisions of this regulation “a direction” means a direction given under section 71O of FSMA 2000 by virtue of paragraph (1).

- (3) The FCA may give a direction only if it appears to the FCA—
- (a) in the case of a direction given to a person, that in carrying on the activity the person is failing, or is likely to fail, to comply with a requirement imposed—
 - (i) by designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5, or
 - (ii) by Part 4 (simple, transparent and standardised securitisations), or
 - (b) in the case of a direction given to a person or a description of persons, that it is desirable to exercise the power—
 - (i) in order to reduce risks, including reputational risks, arising from participation in securitisations or investment in securitisations, or
 - (ii) in order to advance any of the FCA’s operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000(23).
- (4) Subject to paragraph (5), the power to give a direction includes (among other things) power—

(21) Inserted by section 8(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023.

(22) Inserted by section 8(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023.

(23) Section 1B was inserted by section 6(1) of the Financial Services Act 2012.

- (a) to prohibit a person from selling a securitisation position to retail clients;
- (b) to impose requirements with respect to—
 - (i) due diligence in relation to any securitisation, including monitoring, stress-testing and risk management,
 - (ii) the retention of any interest or risk in any securitisation or the selection of the assets for the securitisation,
 - (iii) the provision of information in relation to any securitisation,
 - (iv) the inclusion of securitisation positions in the underlying exposures that may be used in a securitisation, or
 - (v) arrangements concerning the granting of credit applying to exposures to be securitised, or verification of the making of such arrangements where the originator purchases exposures from a third party on its own account.
- (5) A direction may not impose requirements on a PRA-authorized person with respect to any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (4)(b).
- (6) Paragraph (5) does not apply to the imposition of requirements with respect to STS criteria or STS notifications.
- (7) Before giving, varying or revoking a direction where the exercise of the power relates to a PRA-authorized person, the FCA must consult the PRA.

Commencement Information

I6 Reg. 6 in force at 30.1.2024, see reg. 2\(1\)\(b\)

Directions: procedure

- 7.—(1) This regulation applies to an exercise by the FCA of the power to give a direction under section 71O of FSMA 2000(24) by virtue of regulation 6 unless—
- (a) the direction is given to a description of persons, and
 - (b) the FCA considers it appropriate to publish the direction under subsection (9) of section 71O instead of proceeding under subsection (8) of that section.
- (2) If the FCA proposes to give a direction, or gives a direction with immediate effect, the FCA must give written notice to the person concerned (“P”).
- (3) A direction takes effect—
- (a) immediately, if the notice under paragraph (2) states that this is the case,
 - (b) on such other date as may be specified in the notice, or
 - (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.
- (4) A direction may be expressed to take effect immediately, or on a specified date, only if the FCA, having regard to the ground on which it is giving the direction, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the direction to take effect immediately, or on that date.
- (5) The notice under paragraph (2) must—
- (a) give details of the direction,
 - (b) state the FCA’s reasons for the direction and for its determination as to when the direction takes effect,

(24) Inserted by section 8(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) inform P that P may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not P has referred the matter to the Tribunal), and
 - (d) inform P of P’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (6) The FCA may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (7) If, having considered any representations made by P, the FCA decides—
- (a) to give the direction proposed, or
 - (b) if the direction has been given, not to revoke the direction,
- it must give P written notice.
- (8) If, having considered any representations made by P, the FCA decides—
- (a) not to give the direction proposed,
 - (b) to give a different direction, or
 - (c) to revoke a direction which has effect,
- it must give P written notice.
- (9) A notice under paragraph (7) must inform P of P’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.
- (10) A notice under paragraph (8)(b) must comply with paragraph (5).
- (11) If a notice informs P of P’s right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.
- (12) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of FSMA 2000.
- (13) A person who is aggrieved by the exercise of the FCA of its powers in relation to a direction relating to the person may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

Commencement Information

17 Reg. 7 in force at 30.1.2024, see reg. 2\(1\)\(b\)

PART 3

Matters to consider when making rules

Matter to which FCA and PRA must have regard when making rules relating to securitisation

- 8.—(1) The coherence of the overall framework for the regulation of securitisation is specified for the purposes of section 138EA of FSMA 2000(25) (matters to consider when making rules).
- (2) The specification under paragraph (1) applies to the following—
- (a) the power of the FCA to make designated activity rules by virtue of regulation 5,
 - (b) the power of the FCA to make rules under any provision of these Regulations,
 - (c) the power of the FCA to make rules under section 137A of FSMA 2000(26) relating to securitisation, and

(25) Inserted by section 31(2) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023.

(26) Inserted by section 24(1) of the Financial Services Act 2012.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) the power of the PRA to make rules under section 137G of FSMA 2000(27) relating to securitisation.

Commencement Information

18 Reg. 8 in force at 30.1.2024, see reg. 2\(1\)\(c\)

PART 4

Simple, transparent and standardised securitisations

STS securitisations

- 9.—(1) In these Regulations, “STS securitisation” means a securitisation which—
- (a) meets such criteria as to simplicity, transparency and standardisation as may be specified for the purposes of this regulation in designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5 (“the STS criteria”),
 - (b) also meets the further condition in paragraph (2), and
 - (c) is included on the list published by the FCA under regulation 10.
- (2) The further condition is—
- (a) in the case of a securitisation which is not an ABCP programme or an ABCP transaction, that the originator and sponsor involved in the securitisation are established in the United Kingdom;
 - (b) in the case of a securitisation which is an ABCP programme, that the sponsor involved in the ABCP programme is established in the United Kingdom;
 - (c) in the case of a securitisation which is an ABCP transaction, that the sponsor involved in the ABCP programme of which that ABCP transaction forms part is established in the United Kingdom.
- (3) In paragraph 2 of Schedule 3 (which relates to securitisations notified to the FCA before the main commencement day), sub-paragraph (3) treats certain securitisations as meeting the STS criteria if they comply with the provisions mentioned in that sub-paragraph.

Commencement Information

19 Reg. 9 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

STS notification requirements

- 10.—(1) Where the sponsor or originator of a securitisation notifies the FCA in accordance with designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5 that the securitisation falls within regulation 9(1)(a) and (b), the FCA must publish the notification on its official website.
- (2) The FCA must maintain on its official website a list of all the securitisations notified to it (together with the securitisations to which paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 3 applies) and must update the list on a regular basis.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The FCA must remove a securitisation from the list if—
- (a) the FCA does not consider the securitisation to be an STS securitisation, or
 - (b) the FCA has been notified by the originator or sponsor that the securitisation is no longer an STS securitisation.
- (4) The PRA must notify the FCA whenever the PRA imposes a sanction on the ground that the originator, sponsor or original lender in relation to an STS securitisation has failed to comply with a requirement that is applicable to that person in the person’s capacity as originator, sponsor or original lender and is imposed by rules made by the PRA under section 137G of FSMA 2000 relating to—
- (a) risk retention requirements,
 - (b) transparency requirements, or
 - (c) credit-granting requirements.
- (5) Paragraph (6) applies where the FCA—
- (a) imposes a sanction on the ground that the originator, sponsor, original lender or SSPE in relation to an STS securitisation has failed to comply with a relevant requirement,
 - (b) imposes a sanction on the ground that a third party verifier has failed to comply with regulation 25(3), or
 - (c) receives a notification under paragraph (4).
- (6) The FCA must immediately indicate the fact within paragraph (5) in relation to the securitisation concerned on the list maintained under paragraph (2).
- (7) Where the FCA gives a notice under regulation 11(2) relating to the removal of a securitisation from the list on a future date under paragraph (3)(a), the FCA must immediately indicate that fact in relation to the securitisation concerned on the list.
- (8) Where the FCA has exercised its power under paragraph (3)(a) to remove a securitisation from the list maintained under paragraph (2) but the matter remains open to review, the FCA must include on the list an indication that the decision to remove the securitisation remains open to review.
- (9) In paragraph (5), “relevant requirement” means a requirement which is applicable to a person in the person’s capacity as originator, sponsor, original lender or SSPE and is imposed—
- (a) by designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5 relating to—
 - (i) risk retention requirements,
 - (ii) transparency requirements,
 - (iii) credit-granting requirements,
 - (iv) STS criteria, or
 - (v) the notification of an STS securitisation or that a securitisation has ceased to be an STS securitisation, or
 - (b) by regulation 12.
- (10) For the purposes of paragraph (8), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of FSMA 2000.

Commencement Information

I10 Reg. 10 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2(1)(e)(2)

Removal of STS securitisation from FCA list: procedure

11.—(1) The removal of a securitisation under regulation 10(3)(a) from the list maintained under regulation 10(2) takes effect—

- (a) immediately, if the notice under paragraph (2) states that that is the case;
- (b) in any other case, on such date as may be specified in the notice.

(2) If the FCA removes, or proposes to remove, a securitisation under regulation 10(3)(a), it must give written notice to the originator or sponsor who gave the FCA the STS notification.

(3) The notice must—

- (a) give details of the FCA’s action or proposed action,
- (b) state the FCA’s reasons for considering that the securitisation does not comply with regulation 9(1)(a) or (b) and for choosing the date on which the removal took effect or takes effect,
- (c) inform the person to whom the notice is given (“P”) that P may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not P has referred the matter to the Tribunal),
- (d) inform P of the date on which the removal took effect or takes effect, and
- (e) inform P of P’s right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(4) The FCA may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.

(5) If, having considered any representations made to it, the FCA decides to maintain, vary or revoke its earlier decision it must give written notice to the person to whom the notice under subsection (2) was given.

(6) Where a notice has been given under paragraph (2) or (5) in relation to a securitisation, the originator or sponsor may refer the matter to the Tribunal.

Use of STS designation

12.—(1) The originator, sponsor or SSPE may use the designation “STS” or “simple, transparent and standardised”, or a designation that refers directly or indirectly to those terms, for their securitisation only where the securitisation is—

- (a) an STS securitisation,
- (b) an overseas STS securitisation, or
- (c) a qualifying EU securitisation.

(2) In paragraph (1)(b) “overseas STS securitisation” means a securitisation of a description in relation to which a country or territory outside the United Kingdom is designated by regulations under regulation 13.

(3) In paragraph (1)(c) “qualifying EU securitisation” means a securitisation—

- (a) which meets all the requirements of Section 1 or Section 2 of Chapter 4 of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017,
- (b) of which the European Securities and Markets Authority was notified pursuant to Article 27(1) of that Regulation before the relevant time, and

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(c) which is included in the list referred to in Article 27(5) of that Regulation.

(4) In paragraph (3), any reference to a provision of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017 is a reference to that provision as it had or has effect in relation to the European Union at any time on or after the date of the notification and before the relevant time.

(5) In paragraph (3)(b) and (4) “the relevant time” means 11 p.m. on 31st December 2024.

Commencement Information

Overseas simple, transparent and standardised securitisations regime

13.—(1) The Treasury may by regulations designate a country or territory in relation to securitisations of descriptions specified in the regulations.

(2) The power in paragraph (1) is exercisable only if the Treasury are satisfied that the law and practice which applies in the country or territory, in relation to securitisations of the descriptions specified, has equivalent effect (taken as a whole) to applicable UK law.

(3) In determining whether the condition in paragraph (2) is satisfied, the Treasury must have regard to the effect of any law and practice applying in the country or territory to securitisations of the descriptions to be specified with respect to the following in particular—

- (a) criteria as to simplicity, transparency and comparability;
- (b) the supervision and enforcement framework.

(4) In paragraph (2) “applicable UK law” means any enactment of domestic law as it applies to STS securitisations.

(5) In making regulations under paragraph (1), the Treasury must also have regard, in addition to any other matters they consider relevant, to whether the FCA, and where relevant the PRA, have established effective cooperation arrangements with the competent authorities of the country or territory.

(6) When considering whether to make, vary or revoke regulations under paragraph (1), the Treasury may, by making a request in writing to the FCA, require the FCA to prepare a report on—

- (a) the law and practice of a country or territory outside the United Kingdom, or particular aspects of such law and practice;
- (b) the arrangements mentioned in paragraph (5),

in relation to securitisations of descriptions specified in the request.

(7) If the Treasury request a report under paragraph (6), the FCA must—

- (a) consult the PRA when preparing the report, and
- (b) provide the Treasury with the report within such reasonable period as may be specified in the request or such other period as may be agreed with the Treasury.

(8) Regulations under this regulation are to be made by statutory instrument.

(9) Such regulations may—

- (a) contain incidental, supplemental, consequential and transitional provision, and
- (b) make different provision for different purposes.

(10) Regulations under this regulation are subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

PART 5

Securitisation repositories

Registration of a securitisation repository

14.—(1) A body corporate may apply to the FCA for registration under this regulation as a securitisation repository by means of which originators, sponsors or securitisation special purpose entities make information available in accordance with FCA securitisation rules or PRA securitisation rules.

(2) A trade repository may submit an application for an extension of registration to the FCA with a view to its registration as a securitisation repository.

(3) To be eligible to be registered under this regulation, a body corporate must—

- (a) be established in the United Kingdom,
- (b) apply procedures to verify the completeness and consistency of the information made available to it under FCA or PRA securitisation rules, and
- (c) meet the requirements provided for in Articles 78, 79 and 80(1) to (3), (5) and (6) of EMIR(28).

(4) For the purposes of this Part, Articles 78, 79 and 80 of EMIR have effect in relation to a securitisation repository as they have effect in relation to a trade repository, but as if—

- (a) any reference to EMIR were a reference to this Part, and
- (b) the reference in Articles 78 and 80 to Article 9 of EMIR were a reference to FCA securitisation rules.

(5) In this regulation—

“FCA securitisation rules” means—

- (a) designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5, and
- (b) rules made by the FCA under section 137A of FSMA 2000 in relation to securitisation;

“PRA securitisation rules” means rules made by the PRA under section 137G of FSMA 2000 in relation to securitisation;

“trade repository” means a person who centrally collects and maintains records of derivatives and who is registered by the FCA as such under EMIR.

There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Application for registration

15.—(1) An application for registration, or for an extension of registration, under regulation 14 must—

- (a) be made in such manner as the FCA may direct, and
- (b) contain, or be accompanied by, such information as the FCA may reasonably require.

(2) On receiving an application for registration or for an extension of registration under regulation 14, the FCA must assess whether the application is complete within the period of 20 working days beginning with the receipt of the application.

(3) Where the application is not complete, the FCA must set a deadline by which the applicant is to provide additional information.

(4) After having assessed an application as complete, the FCA must notify the applicant accordingly.

Examination of application

16. The FCA must, within the period of 40 working days beginning with the day on which the notification referred to in regulation 15(4) is made—

- (a) examine the application for registration, or for an extension of registration, based on the compliance of the applicant with this Part,
- (b) make a decision accepting or refusing registration or an extension of registration, and
- (c) give reasons for its decision.

Commencement Information

Register of securitisation repositories

17.—(1) The FCA must maintain a register of securitisation repositories in accordance with this Part.

- (2) The FCA must—
 - (a) publish the register on its official website and make it available for public inspection, and
 - (b) update the register on a regular basis.

Commencement Information

I17 Reg. 17 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Changes to conditions for registration

18. A securitisation repository must, without undue delay, notify the FCA of any material changes affecting its eligibility for registration.

Commencement Information

I18 Reg. 18 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Withdrawal of registration

19.—(1) The FCA may, on its own initiative, withdraw the registration of a securitisation repository where the securitisation repository—

- (a) expressly renounces the registration or has provided no services for the preceding 6 months,
- (b) obtained the registration by making false statements or by any other irregular means, or
- (c) no longer meets the conditions for registration.

(2) The FCA may also, on its own initiative, withdraw the registration of a securitisation repository where it is desirable to do so to advance one or more of its operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000.

(3) The FCA may, on an application by a securitisation repository, withdraw the registration of the securitisation repository.

Commencement Information

I19 Reg. 19 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Notification of decision

20.—(1) On making a decision referred to in regulation 16\(b\) or 19, the FCA must notify its decision to the applicant or securitisation repository concerned.

(2) A refusal of an application for registration or an extension of registration under regulation 16\(b\) comes into effect on the fifth working day after it is made.

(3) A withdrawal of registration under regulation 19\(3\) takes effect—

- (a) immediately upon the making of the decision if the notice states that is the case,
- (b) on such date as may be specified in that notice, or
- (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.

(4) A decision to withdraw registration on the FCA's own initiative under regulation 19\(1\) or (2) may be expressed to take effect immediately or on a specified date only if the FCA, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its power reasonably considers that it is necessary for the withdrawal to take effect immediately or on that date.

(5) If the decision referred to in regulation 16\(b\) or 19 is—

- (a) to refuse the application for registration or an extension of registration,

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) to exercise the FCA’s power under regulation 19(1) or (2) to withdraw the registration of the securitisation repository on the FCA’s own initiative, or
- (c) to refuse an application made by a securitisation repository under regulation 19(3) to withdraw the registration of the securitisation repository, the FCA must give the applicant or securitisation repository a written notice.

- (6) A written notice under paragraph (5) must—
 - (a) give details of the decision made by the FCA,
 - (b) state the FCA’s reasons for the decision,
 - (c) state when the decision takes effect,
 - (d) inform the applicant or securitisation repository that it may either—
 - (i) request a review of the decision by the FCA, and make written representations for the purpose of the review, within such period as may be specified in the notice, or
 - (ii) refer the matter to the Tribunal within such period as may be specified in the notice, and
 - (e) indicate the procedure on a reference to the Tribunal.

(7) If the applicant or securitisation repository requests a review of the decision made by the FCA (“the original decision”) the FCA must consider any written representations made by the applicant or securitisation repository and review the original decision.

(8) On a review under paragraph (7), the FCA may make any decision (“the new decision”) it could have made on the application.

(9) The FCA must give the applicant or securitisation repository written notice of its decision on the review.

- (10) This paragraph applies to a decision—
 - (a) to maintain a decision to refuse an application for registration or for an extension of registration, made under regulation 16(b),
 - (b) to refuse to revoke a decision made under regulation 19(1) or (2) to withdraw the registration of the securitisation repository on the FCA’s own initiative, or
 - (c) to maintain a decision to refuse an application from a securitisation repository under regulation 19(3) to withdraw the registration of the securitisation repository.

- (11) A written notice in relation to a decision to which paragraph (10) applies must—
 - (a) give details of the new decision made by the FCA,
 - (b) state the FCA’s reasons for the new decision,
 - (c) state whether the decision takes effect immediately or on such date as may be specified in the notice,
 - (d) inform the applicant or securitisation repository that it may, within such period as may be specified in the notice, refer the new decision to the Tribunal, and
 - (e) indicate the procedure on a reference to the Tribunal.

(12) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of FSMA 2000.

Commencement Information

I20 Reg. 20 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Tribunal

21.—(1) A securitisation repository may, subject to paragraph (2), refer to the Tribunal the FCA’s decision to—

- (a) refuse to register the securitisation repository or to extend its registration under regulation 16(b),
- (b) exercise its power under regulation 19(1) or (2) to withdraw the registration of a securitisation repository, or
- (c) refuse the securitisation repository’s application under regulation 19(3) to withdraw its registration.

(2) Where there is a review under regulation 20(7), paragraph (1) applies only in relation to the FCA’s decision in response to that review.

Commencement Information

I21 Reg. 21 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Power of FCA to make rules in relation to securitisation repositories

22.—(1) The FCA may make such rules applying to securitisation repositories registered with the FCA—

- (a) with respect to the carrying on by them of securitisation repository activities, or
- (b) with respect to the carrying on by them of activities which are not securitisation repository activities, as appear to the FCA to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of advancing one or more of its operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000.

(2) In paragraph (1) “securitisation repository activities” means the activities of centrally collecting and maintaining records of securitisations.

(3) The rules may make provision applying to securitisation repositories even though there is no relationship between the securitisation repositories to whom the rules will apply and the persons whose interests will be protected by the rules.

(4) The rules may contain requirements which take into account, in the case of a securitisation repository which is a member of a group, any activity of another member of the group.

(5) In paragraph (4) “group” has the same meaning as in FSMA 2000 (see section 421 of that Act).

Commencement Information

I22 Reg. 22 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Power of FCA to impose requirements

23.—(1) If the FCA considers that—

- (a) a securitisation repository has contravened, or is likely to contravene, a requirement imposed by or under this Part, or
- (b) it is desirable to exercise the power in order to advance one or more of its operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000,

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

it may impose, for such period as it considers appropriate, such requirements as it considers necessary or expedient in relation to the carrying on of securitisation repository activities, as defined in regulation 22(2).

(2) A requirement may, in particular, be imposed so as to require a securitisation repository to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

(3) The FCA may—

- (a) withdraw a requirement, or
- (b) vary a requirement so as to reduce the period for which it has effect or otherwise to limit its effect.

(4) The imposition of the requirement takes effect—

- (a) immediately, if the notice given under sub-paragraph (6) states that that is the case, or
- (b) on such date as may be specified in the notice.

(5) The imposition of a requirement may be expressed to take effect immediately, or on a specified date, only if the FCA, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising its power, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the imposition of the requirement to take effect immediately, or on that date.

(6) If the FCA proposes to impose, or imposes a requirement, it must give the securitisation repository written notice.

(7) The notice must—

- (a) give details of the requirement,
- (b) state the FCA's reasons for imposition of the requirement,
- (c) inform the securitisation repository that it may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice, whether or not the securitisation repository has referred the matter to the Tribunal,
- (d) inform the securitisation repository of when the imposition of the requirement takes effect, and
- (e) inform the securitisation repository of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(8) The FCA may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.

(9) If, having considered any representations made by the securitisation repository, the FCA decides—

- (a) to impose the requirement in the way proposed, or
- (b) if the requirement has been imposed, not to rescind the imposition of the requirement,

it must give the securitisation repository written notice.

(10) If, having considered any representations made by the securitisation repository, the FCA decides—

- (a) not to impose the requirement in the way proposed,
- (b) to impose a different requirement, or
- (c) to rescind a requirement which has effect,

it must give the securitisation repository written notice.

(11) A notice under paragraph (9) must inform the securitisation repository of its right to refer the matter to the Tribunal.

(12) A notice under paragraph (10)(b) must comply with paragraph (7).

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(13) If a notice informs the securitisation repository of its right to refer a matter to the Tribunal, it must give an indication of the procedure on such a reference.

(14) A securitisation repository may refer to the Tribunal the FCA's decision to impose a requirement under this regulation.

PART 6

Registration of third party verifying STS compliance

Interpretation of Part 6

24. In this Part—

“third party”, in relation to a securitisation, means a person other than the originator, sponsor or securitisation special purpose entity;

“third party verification service” means a service provided by a third party of assessing the compliance of a securitisation with the STS criteria;

“third party verifier” means a person registered to provide a third party verification service.

Commencement Information

Third party verifying STS compliance

25.—(1) A person providing a third party verification service must be registered by the FCA under this Part.

(2) The FCA must grant an application for registration to provide a third party verification service if all the following conditions are met—

- (a) the person only charges non-discriminatory and cost-based fees to the originators, sponsors or securitisation special purpose entities involved in the securitisations which the person assesses without charging different fees depending on, or correlated to, the results of its assessment;
- (b) the person is neither a regulated entity as defined in regulation 1(2) of the Financial Conglomerates and Other Financial Groups Regulations 2004⁽²⁹⁾ nor a credit rating agency as defined in Article 3(1) of Regulation \(EU\) No 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies⁽³⁰⁾, and the performance of the person's other activities does not compromise the independence or integrity of its assessment;

⁽²⁹⁾ S.I. 2004/1862. The definition of “regulated entity” was substituted by S.I. 2019/264.

⁽³⁰⁾ EUR 2009/1060. Article 3(1) was substituted by S.I. 2019/266.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) the person does not provide any form of advisory, audit or equivalent service to the originator, sponsor or securitisation special purpose entity involved in the securitisations which the third party assesses;
- (d) the members of the management body of the person have professional qualifications, knowledge and experience that are adequate for the task of the person and they are of good repute and integrity;
- (e) the management body of the person includes at least one third, but no fewer than two, independent directors;
- (f) the person takes all necessary steps to ensure that the verification of compliance with the STS criteria is not affected by any existing or potential conflicts of interest or business relationship involving the person, its shareholders or members, managers, employees or any other individuals whose services are placed at the disposal or under the control of the person, and to that end—
 - (i) the person must establish, maintain, enforce and document an effective internal control system governing the implementation of policies and procedures to identify and prevent potential conflicts of interest;
 - (ii) potential or existing conflicts of interest which have been identified must be eliminated or mitigated and disclosed without delay;
 - (iii) the person must establish, maintain, enforce and document adequate procedures and processes to ensure the independence of the assessment of compliance with the STS criteria;
 - (iv) the person must periodically monitor and review those policies and procedures in order to evaluate their effectiveness and assess whether it is necessary to update them;
- (g) the person can demonstrate that it has proper operational safeguards and internal processes that enable it to assess compliance with the STS criteria.
- (3) A third party verifier must notify the FCA without delay of—
 - (a) any material changes to the information provided in respect of paragraph (2), and
 - (b) any other changes that could reasonably be considered to affect the assessment by the FCA of compliance by the third party verifier with the conditions in that paragraph.

Application for registration to provide third party verification service

- 26.—(1) An application for registration to provide a third party verification service must—
- (a) be made in such manner as the FCA may direct, and
 - (b) contain, or be accompanied by, such information as the FCA may reasonably require.
- (2) At any time after the application is received and before it is determined, the FCA may require the applicant to provide it with such further information as it reasonably considers necessary to enable it to determine the application.
- (3) The FCA may give different directions, and may impose different requirements, in relation to different applications or categories of application.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(4) The FCA may require an applicant to provide information which the applicant is required to provide to it under this Part in such form, or to verify it in such a way, as the FCA may direct.

Determination of application for registration to provide third party verification service

27.—(1) The FCA must determine an application for registration to provide a third party verification service before the end of the period of six months beginning with the date on which it received the completed application.

(2) The FCA may determine an incomplete application if it considers it appropriate to do so, and it must in any event determine such an application within 12 months beginning with the date on which it received the application.

(3) The applicant may withdraw its application, by giving the FCA notice, at any time before the FCA determines it.

(4) If the FCA decides to grant an application it must give the applicant notice of its decision specifying the date on which the registration takes effect.

Temporary withdrawal of registration to provide third party verification service

29.—(1) The FCA may decide to withdraw temporarily the registration of a third party verifier if it appears to the FCA that—

- (a) the third party verifier is materially non-compliant with regulation 25\(2\),
- (b) the third party verifier has failed, during a period of at least 12 months, to provide a third party verification service,
- (c) the third party verifier has obtained the registration to provide a third party verification service through false statements or other irregular means;

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

- (d) the third party verifier has failed to comply with regulation 25(3), or
 - (e) it is desirable to do so to advance one or more of the FCA's operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000.
- (2) The FCA may—
- (a) revoke the temporary withdrawal imposed under paragraph (1), or
 - (b) vary the period for which the temporary withdrawal has effect.

Commencement Information

I29 Reg. 29 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Temporary withdrawal of registration to provide third party verification service: procedure

- 30.—(1) When the FCA exercises its functions under regulation 29, its decision takes effect—
- (a) immediately, if the notice given under paragraph (3) states that that is the case,
 - (b) on such other date as may be specified in the notice, or
 - (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.
- (2) A decision of the FCA made under regulation 29 may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the FCA, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising this power, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the decision to take effect immediately (or on that date).
- (3) If the FCA proposes to exercise, or exercises, its functions under regulation 29, it must give the third party verifier written notice.
- (4) The notice must—
- (a) give details of the temporary withdrawal, or the revocation of the temporary withdrawal, or the variation of the temporary withdrawal, including the period of the temporary withdrawal,
 - (b) state the FCA's reasons for the temporary withdrawal, or the revocation of the temporary withdrawal or the variation of the temporary withdrawal,
 - (c) inform the third party verifier that they may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not they referred the matter to the Tribunal),
 - (d) inform the third party verifier when the temporary withdrawal, or the revocation of the temporary withdrawal or the variation of the temporary withdrawal, is to take effect, and
 - (e) inform the third party verifier of their right to refer the matter to the Tribunal and provide an indication of the procedure for such a reference.
- (5) The FCA may extend the period allowed in the notice given under paragraph (4)(c) for making representations.
- (6) If, having considered any representations made by the third party verifier to whom the notice has been given under paragraph (3), the FCA decides—
- (a) to withdraw temporarily, or revoke or vary the temporary withdrawal of, the third party verifier's registration in the way proposed,
 - (b) not to withdraw temporarily, or revoke or vary the temporary withdrawal of, the third party verifier's registration in the way proposed,

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) to revoke the temporary withdrawal or variation of the temporary withdrawal which has taken effect,
 - (d) if the temporary withdrawal or variation of the temporary withdrawal has taken effect, not to revoke the temporary withdrawal or variation of the temporary withdrawal, or
 - (e) to withdraw temporarily or vary the period of a withdrawal in a different way,
- it must give the third party verifier written notice of its decision.

(7) A notice under paragraph (6)(a), (d) or (e) must inform the third party verifier of their right to refer the matter to the Tribunal and provide an indication of the procedure for such a reference.

(8) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of FSMA 2000.

(9) Where the registration of a third party verifier is temporarily withdrawn, the FCA must as soon as practicable update the register accordingly.

Withdrawal of registration to provide third party verification service on initiative of FCA

31.—(1) The FCA may withdraw a registration to provide a third party verification service if it appears to the FCA that—

- (a) the third party verifier is materially non-compliant with regulation 25\(2\),
- (b) the third party verifier has failed, during a period of at least 12 months, to provide a third party verification service,
- (c) the third party verifier has obtained the registration to provide third party verification services through false statements or other irregular means,
- (d) the third party verifier has failed to comply with regulation 25\(3\), or
- (e) it is desirable to do so to advance one or more of the FCA's operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000.

(2) Where the period for a reference to the Tribunal has expired without a reference being made, the FCA must as soon as practicable update the register accordingly.

Withdrawal of registration to provide third party verification service at request of third party verifier

32.—(1) The FCA may, on the application of a third party verifier, withdraw its registration to provide a third party verification service.

(2) A request for withdrawal of a person's registration under this regulation must be made in such manner as the FCA may direct.

(3) The FCA may refuse an application under this regulation if it appears to it that it is desirable to do so in order to advance any of its operational objectives set out in section 1B(3) of FSMA 2000.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

(4) An application under paragraph (1) must be determined by the FCA before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which it received the completed application.

(5) The FCA may determine an incomplete application if it considers it is appropriate to do so, and it must in any event determine such an application within 12 months beginning with the date on which it received the application.

(6) The applicant may withdraw its application, by giving the FCA notice, at any time before the FCA determines it.

(7) If the FCA decides to grant an application, it must give the applicant notice of its decision specifying the date on which the withdrawal of the registration takes effect, and as soon as practicable update the register referred to in regulation 28 accordingly.

PART 7

Due-diligence requirements

Rules relating to due-diligence requirements of institutional investors

33.—(1) The appropriate regulator must make general rules requiring a relevant institutional investor to carry out due diligence—

- (a) before holding a securitisation position, and
- (b) while holding a securitisation position.

(2) In this regulation—

“appropriate regulator”—

- (a) in relation to a relevant institutional investor which is a PRA-authorized person, means the PRA;
- (b) in relation to other relevant institutional investors, means the FCA;

“general rules”—

- (a) in relation to the FCA, has the meaning given in section 137A(2) of FSMA 2000;
- (b) in relation to the PRA, has the meaning given in section 137G(2) of FSMA 2000;

“relevant institutional investor” means an institutional investor which is an authorised person and which is not—

- (a) the trustees or managers of an occupational pension scheme, or
- (b) the originator, sponsor or original lender in that securitisation.

Commencement Information

I33 Reg. 33 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Due-diligence requirements of small registered UK AIFMs as institutional investors

34.—(1) The FCA must make rules requiring a small registered UK AIFM to carry out due diligence—

- (a) before holding a securitisation position, and
- (b) while holding a securitisation position.

(2) Rules under paragraph (1) may require a small registered UK AIFM—

- (a) before holding a securitisation position—
 - (i) to verify specified matters relating to the securitisation position, and
 - (ii) to carry out an assessment of the risks involved in holding the securitisation position, having regard to specified matters;
- (b) while holding a securitisation position, to take specified measures to monitor its performance and the risks involved in continuing to hold it.

(3) References in paragraph (1) and (2) to a securitisation position do not include references to a securitisation position in relation to which the small registered UK AIFM is the originator, sponsor or original lender.

(4) In paragraph (2) “specified” means specified in the rules.

(5) For the purposes of the provisions of the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013 listed in paragraph (6), rules made by the FCA under paragraph (1) are to be taken to be implementing provisions as defined by regulation 2 of those Regulations.

(6) Those provisions are—

- (a) regulation 17 (grounds for revocation of registration);
- (b) regulation 19 (grounds for suspension of registration);
- (c) regulation 21 (disclosure obligations);
- (d) regulation 22 (power of direction).

(7) In the provisions of FSMA 2000 listed in paragraph (8), any reference (however expressed) to provision made by, or a requirement imposed by, the Alternative Investment Fund Managers Regulations 2013 is to be taken to include a reference to provision made by, or a requirement imposed by, rules under paragraph (1).

(8) Those provisions are—

- (a) subsection (2)(aa) of section 1L(31) (supervision, monitoring and enforcement);
- (b) subsection (4)(ja)(ii) of section 168(32) (appointment of persons to carry out investigations in particular cases);
- (c) subsections (2)(c) and (6)(b) of section 204A(33) (meaning of “relevant requirement” and “appropriate regulator”);
- (d) subsection (6)(a)(iii) of section 380(34) (injunctions);
- (e) subsection (9)(a)(iii) of section 382(35) (restitution orders);
- (f) subsection (1A)(b) of section 398(36) (misleading FCA or PRA: residual cases).

(31) Section 1L was inserted by section 6(1) of the Financial Services Act 2012; paragraph (aa) of subsection (2) was inserted by S.I. 2013/1773.

(32) In section 168(4), paragraph (ja) was inserted by S.I. 2013/1773.

(33) Section 204A was inserted by Schedule 9 to the Financial Services Act 2012; subsection (2)(c) was inserted by S.I. 2013/1773 and subsection (6) was substituted by S.I. 2016/225.

(34) Section 380(6)(a)(iii) was inserted by S.I. 2013/1773 and amended by S.I. 2015/1755.

(35) Section 382(9)(a)(iii) was inserted by S.I. 2013/1773.

(36) Section 398(1A) was inserted by S.I. 2013/1773.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. PART 8

Monitoring, disciplinary measures and procedures

Interpretation of Part 8

35. In this Part—

“regulated person” means a person who is not an authorised person and is—

- (a) an original lender,
- (b) an originator,
- (c) a person engaged in the activity specified in regulation 4\(1\)\(b\),
- (d) a sponsor,
- (e) an SSPE,
- (f) a third party verifier, or
- (g) a securitisation repository;

“a regulator” means the FCA or the PRA;

“relevant requirement” means a requirement imposed—

- (a) by designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5,
- (b) by a direction under section 71O of FSMA 2000 given by virtue of regulation 6,
- (c) by or under Part 4 (simple, transparent and standardised securitisations), Part 5 (securitisation repositories) or Part 6 (registration of third party verifying STS compliance),
- (d) by regulation 38 in a case where the temporary prohibition was imposed by the FCA, or
- (e) by the FCA under any other provision of these Regulations or under a provision of FSMA 2000 applied by these Regulations.

Commencement Information

Monitoring and enforcement by FCA

36.—(1) The FCA must maintain arrangements designed to enable it to determine whether regulated persons are complying with relevant requirements.

(2) The FCA must also maintain arrangements for enforcing compliance by regulated persons with relevant requirements.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Temporary prohibition relating to management functions

37.—(1) If the FCA considers that an individual has contravened, or has been knowingly concerned in the contravention of, a relevant requirement, the FCA may impose a temporary prohibition on that individual from holding an office or position involving responsibility for taking decisions about the management of an originator, sponsor or SSPE.

(2) If the PRA considers that an individual has contravened, or has been knowingly concerned in the contravention of—

- (a) PRA securitisation rules,
- (b) regulation 38, in a case where the temporary prohibition was imposed by the PRA, or
- (c) a requirement imposed under section 55M of FSMA 2000⁽³⁷⁾ (imposition of requirements by PRA) which relates to securitisations, the PRA may impose a temporary prohibition on that individual from holding an office or position involving responsibility for taking decisions about the management of an originator, sponsor or SSPE.

(3) A temporary prohibition imposed under paragraph (1) or (2) expires at the end of such period as the regulator imposing it may specify, but the imposition of a temporary prohibition does not affect the regulator’s power to impose a further temporary prohibition under that paragraph.

(4) A temporary prohibition under paragraph (1) or (2) may relate to the management of—

- (a) a named originator, sponsor or SSPE,
- (b) an originator, sponsor or SSPE of a specified description, or
- (c) any originator, sponsor or SSPE.

(5) A regulator may revoke a temporary prohibition imposed by it under this regulation, or vary it so as to reduce the period for which it has effect.

(6) In this regulation, “PRA securitisation rules” means rules made by the PRA under section 137G of FSMA 2000 which make provision of the kind mentioned in regulation 5(2) in relation to securitisations.

Commencement Information

Temporary prohibition relating to management functions: obligations on originator, sponsor or SSPE

38. An originator, sponsor or SSPE must take reasonable care to ensure that no individual holds an office or position involving responsibility for taking decisions about the management of that entity in contravention of a temporary prohibition imposed under regulation 37(1) or (2).

(37) Section 55M was inserted by section 11(2) of the Financial Services Act 2012. There is an amendment that is not relevant.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Imposition of temporary ban on STS notifications

39.—(1) If the FCA considers that—

- (a) an originator, sponsor or SSPE has failed to meet the requirements of designated activity rules made by virtue of regulation 5, so far as those rules relate to STS securitisations, or
- (b) an originator or sponsor has made a misleading STS notification, the FCA may, for such period as it considers appropriate, temporarily ban the originator or sponsor from making an STS notification.

(2) The FCA may—

- (a) revoke a temporary ban imposed under paragraph (1), or
- (b) vary the period for which the temporary ban has effect.

(3) The FCA must consult the PRA before imposing a temporary ban on an originator or sponsor who is a PRA-authorized person, or varying such a ban so as to extend the period for which it has effect.

Commencement Information

I39 Reg. 39 in force at 30.1.2024 for specified purposes and 1.11.2024 (the main commencement day) in so far as not already in force, see reg. 2\(1\)\(e\)\(2\)

Procedure for imposition, variation or revocation of a temporary ban on STS notifications

40.—(1) Where the FCA exercises its functions under regulation 39, its decision takes effect—

- (a) immediately, if the notice under paragraph (3) states that is the case,
- (b) on such other date as may be specified in the notice, or
- (c) if no date is specified in the notice, when the matter to which the notice relates is no longer open to review.

(2) A decision of the FCA made under regulation 39 may be expressed to take effect immediately (or on a specified date) only if the FCA, having regard to the ground on which it is exercising this power, reasonably considers that it is necessary for the decision to take effect immediately (or on that date).

(3) If the FCA proposes to exercise, or exercises, its functions under regulation 39, it must give the originator or sponsor a written notice.

(4) The notice must—

- (a) give details of the temporary ban or variation,
- (b) state the FCA's reasons for the temporary ban, or the revocation of the temporary ban or the variation of the temporary ban,
- (c) inform the originator or sponsor that they may make representations to the FCA within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the originator or sponsor has referred the matter to the Tribunal),

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (d) inform the originator or sponsor when the temporary ban, or the revocation or variation of the temporary ban, takes effect, and
 - (e) inform the originator or sponsor of their right to refer the matter to the Tribunal and an indication of the procedure for such a reference.
- (5) The FCA may extend the period allowed under the notice for making representations.
- (6) If, having considered any representations made by a person to whom the notice was given, the FCA decides—
- (a) to impose the temporary ban, or revoke or vary the temporary ban, in the way proposed,
 - (b) not to impose the temporary ban, or revoke or vary the temporary ban, in the way proposed,
 - (c) to revoke the temporary ban, or the variation of the temporary ban, which has taken effect,
 - (d) if the temporary ban has been imposed or varied, not to revoke the temporary ban or variation of the temporary ban, or
 - (e) to impose or vary the temporary ban in a different way,
- it must give the person written notice.
- (7) A notice given under paragraph (6)(a), (d) or (e) must inform the person to whom it is given of the person's right to refer the matter to the Tribunal and provide an indication of the procedure for such a reference.
- (8) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), whether a matter is open to review is to be determined in accordance with section 391(8) of FSMA 2000.

Public censure

- 41.—(1) If the FCA considers that—
- (a) a regulated person has contravened a relevant requirement,
 - (b) a member of the management body of a regulated person, other than a securitisation repository, was knowingly concerned in the contravention by the regulated person of a relevant requirement,
 - (c) another member of the senior management of a regulated person, other than a securitisation repository, was knowingly concerned in the contravention by the regulated person of a relevant requirement, or
 - (d) a regulated person has failed to comply with regulation 38 as an originator, sponsor or SSPE, in a case where the temporary prohibition was imposed by the FCA,
- the FCA may publish a statement to that effect.
- (2) If a regulator considers that an individual on whom a temporary prohibition has been imposed under regulation 37 by that regulator has breached the prohibition, the regulator may publish a statement to that effect.
- (3) If the PRA considers that a regulated person has failed to comply with regulation 38 as an originator, sponsor or SSPE, in a case where the temporary prohibition was imposed by the PRA, the PRA may publish a statement to that effect.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Financial penalties

42.—(1) If the FCA considers that—

- (a) a regulated person has contravened a relevant requirement,
- (b) a member of the management body of a regulated person, other than a securitisation repository, was knowingly concerned in the contravention by the regulated person of a relevant requirement,
- (c) another member of the senior management of a regulated person, other than a securitisation repository, was knowingly concerned in the contravention by the regulated person of a relevant requirement, or
- (d) a regulated person has failed to comply with regulation 38 as an originator sponsor or SSPE, in a case where the temporary prohibition was imposed by the FCA,

the FCA may impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.

(2) If a regulator decides that an individual on whom a temporary prohibition has been imposed under regulation 37 by that regulator has breached the prohibition, the regulator may impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate on that individual.

(3) If the PRA considers that a regulated person has failed to comply with regulation 38 as an originator, sponsor or SSPE, in a case where the temporary prohibition was imposed by the PRA, the PRA may impose a penalty of such amount as it considers appropriate.

(4) A penalty imposed by a regulator under this regulation is payable to that regulator and may be recovered as a debt owed to that regulator.

Warning notice

43.—(1) If the FCA proposes—

- (a) to refuse under regulation 27 an application under regulation 26 for registration as a third party verification service,
- (b) to withdraw the registration of a third party verification service under regulation 31,
- (c) to refuse an application to withdraw a person's registration to provide a third party verification service under regulation 32,
- (d) to impose a temporary prohibition under regulation 37,
- (e) to publish a statement in respect of a person under regulation 41,
- (f) to impose a penalty on a person under regulation 42,

it must give the person a warning notice.

(2) If the PRA proposes—

- (a) to impose a temporary prohibition under regulation 37,
- (b) to publish a statement in respect of a person under regulation 41,
- (c) to impose a penalty on a person under regulation 42,

it must give the person a warning notice.

(3) A warning notice about a proposal to impose a temporary prohibition in relation to management functions under regulation 37 must set out the terms of the proposed prohibition.

(4) A warning notice about a proposal to publish a statement under regulation 41 must set out the terms of the statement.

(5) A warning notice about a proposal to impose a penalty under regulation 42 must state the amount of the proposed penalty.

(6) A warning notice must inform the person concerned that the person may make representations to the regulator who gave the notice within such period as may be specified in the notice (whether or not the person concerned has referred the matter to the Tribunal).

Decision notice

44.—(1) If, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice, the FCA decides—

- (a) to refuse under regulation 27 an application under regulation 26 for registration as a third party verification service,
- (b) to withdraw a person’s registration to provide a third party verification service under regulation 31,
- (c) to refuse an application to withdraw a person’s registration to provide a third party verification service under regulation 32,
- (d) to impose a temporary prohibition under regulation 37 (whether or not in the terms proposed),
- (e) to publish a statement in respect of a person under regulation 41 (whether or not in the terms proposed),
- (f) to impose a penalty on a person under regulation 42 (whether or not of the amount proposed),

the FCA must give the person concerned a decision notice.

(2) If, having considered any representations made in response to the warning notice, the PRA decides—

- (a) to impose a temporary prohibition under regulation 37,
- (b) to publish a statement in respect of a person under regulation 41,
- (c) to impose a penalty on a person under regulation 42,

it must give the person a decision notice.

(3) A decision notice about a decision to impose a temporary prohibition in relation to management functions under regulation 37 must set out the terms of the prohibition.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

Consultation in relation to certain enforcement action

45.—(1) The FCA must consult the PRA before giving a warning notice under regulation 43(1) (a), (b), (c), (e) or (f) or a decision notice under regulation 44(1)(a) (b), (c), (e) or (f) in relation to a person who—

- (a) is a PRA-authorised person, or
- (b) has a qualifying relationship with a PRA-authorised person.

(2) The FCA must consult the PRA before giving a warning notice under regulation 43(1)(d) or a decision notice under regulation 44(1)(d) if as a result of the prohibition in question an individual would be prohibited from performing a management function in relation to a PRA-authorised person.

(3) The PRA must consult the FCA before giving a warning notice under regulation 43(2).

(4) A person has a qualifying relationship with a PRA-authorised person for the purposes of this regulation if the person is a member of the PRA-authorised person’s immediate group.

(5) In this regulation “immediate group” has the meaning given in section 421ZA of FSMA 2000⁽³⁹⁾.

Statement of policy

46.—(1) Each regulator must prepare and issue a statement of policy with respect to—

- (a) the imposition of a prohibition under regulation 37,
- (b) the period of a prohibition under that regulation,
- (c) the imposition of penalties under regulation 42, and
- (d) the amount of penalties under that regulation.

(2) The policy must require the regulator, in determining the amount of the penalty to be imposed on any person, to take account of all relevant circumstances including, where appropriate—

⁽³⁸⁾ Section 393(4) was amended by paragraph 32 of Schedule 9 to the Financial Services Act 2012.

⁽³⁹⁾ Section 421ZA was inserted by section 48(2) of the Financial Services Act 2012.

Changes to legislation: The Securitisation Regulations 2024 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) the impact, gravity and duration of the contravention for which the penalty is to be imposed;
 - (b) the extent of the person's responsibility for the contravention;
 - (c) the financial position of the person;
 - (d) the amount of profit gained or loss avoided as a result of the contravention, so far as this can be determined;
 - (e) the amount of loss sustained as a result of the contravention by any other person, so far as this can be determined;
 - (f) the level of co-operation by the person with the regulator (without prejudice to the need to ensure that the person accounts for or makes good any profit sustained or loss avoided as a result of the contravention);
 - (g) any previous contravention by the person for which a penalty was or could have been imposed under regulation 42.
- (3) A regulator may at any time alter or replace a statement issued by it under this regulation.
- (4) If a statement issued under this regulation is altered or replaced by a regulator, the regulator must issue the altered or replacement statement.
- (5) A regulator must, without delay, give the Treasury a copy of any statement which it issues under this regulation.
- (6) A statement issued under this regulation by a regulator must be published by the regulator in the way appearing to the regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.
- (7) The regulator may charge a reasonable fee for providing a person with a copy of the statement.
- (8) In exercising, or deciding whether to exercise, its power under regulation 37 (temporary prohibition relating to management functions) or under regulation 42 (financial penalties) in the case of any particular contravention, a regulator must have regard to any statement of policy published by it under this regulation and in force at the time when the contravention in question occurred.

Statement of policy: procedure

47.—(1) Before a regulator issues a statement under regulation 46, the regulator must publish a draft of the proposed statement in the way appearing to the regulator to be best calculated to bring it to the attention of the public.

(2) The draft must be accompanied by a notice that representations about the proposed statement may be made to the regulator within a specified time.

(3) Before issuing the proposed statement, the regulator must have regard to any representations made to it in accordance with paragraph (2).

(4) If the regulator issues the proposed statement, it must publish an account, in general terms, of—

- (a) the representations made to it in accordance with paragraph (2), and
- (b) its response to them.

Status: Point in time view as at 23/05/2024.

PART 10

Saving and transitional provisions

Pre-2019 securitisations

- 52.—(1) In relation to pre-2019 securitisations—

- (a) Part 2 (designated activities) applies only for the purposes of enabling the FCA by rules or directions to impose, on persons other than PRA-authorized persons, requirements with respect to the matters mentioned in regulation 5(2), other than requirements with respect to STS criteria or STS notifications, and

- (b) Part 4 (simple, transparent and standardised securitisations) does not apply.

(2) The revocation of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017 by section 1(1) of, and Schedule 1 to, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 does not affect the continued application in relation to pre-2019 securitisations of paragraphs 2 to 4A of Article 43 of that Regulation (which relate to the use of the designation “STS” or “simple, transparent and standardised”), as those paragraphs had effect immediately before the main commencement day.

(3) The provisions of Part 8 of these Regulations, of FSMA 2000, and of FSMA 2000 as applied by Schedule 1 to these Regulations, apply in relation to a contravention on or after the main commencement day of Article 43(2) of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017, as remaining in force by virtue of paragraph (2), as those provisions apply in relation to a contravention of regulation 12 (use of STS designation).

(4) If the FCA or the PRA, in the exercise of any of its rule-making powers, makes rules which require an investor to apply in relation to pre-2019 securitisations—

- (a) the due diligence requirements contained in the provisions specified in Article 43(5) of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017, subject to the modifications specified there, or
- (b) the requirements contained in the provisions specified in Article 43(6) of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017, subject to the modifications specified there,

the revocation of the EU Securitisation Regulation 2017 by section 1(1) of, and Schedule 1 to, the Financial Services and Markets Act 2023 does not affect the continued exercise by the FCA or the PRA (as the case may be) for the purposes of the rules in question of any functions that it had immediately before the main commencement day under the provisions so specified as so modified.

- (5) In this regulation “pre-2019 securitisations” means—
- (a) securitisations the securities of which were issued before 1 January 2019, or
 - (b) securitisations in relation to which the following conditions are met—
 - (i) the securitisations do not involve the issue of securities,
 - (ii) the initial securitisation positions of the securitisations were created before 1 January 2019, and
 - (iii) no new securitisations positions of the securitisations have been created on or after that day.
