The Service Address (Rectification of Register) Regulations 2024

Part 5

Change of address to default address without prior notice

Power to change address to default address without notice

- 10.—(1) This regulation applies where the registrar—
- (a) is not satisfied that a relevant person’s registered service address meets the service address requirements, and
 - (b) does not consider it necessary to provide a period for objections to be made to the relevant person’s registered service address being changed to a default address.
- (2) The registrar may change the relevant person’s registered service address.
- (3) The change in the relevant person’s registered service address is effected by the registrar proceeding as if the relevant company had given notice under the applicable notice requirement.
- (4) The registrar may act under this regulation on the registrar’s own motion or following an application under regulation 4.
