The Procurement Regulations 2024

Part 2

Transparency of procurements under the Procurement Act 2023

Contract subject-matter

14.—(1) In these Regulations, “contract subject-matter” means the following information, so far as it is known to the contracting authority when the information is published—

- (a) whether the contract is mainly for the supply of goods, services or works,
- (b) a description of the kinds of goods, services or works which will be supplied,
- (c) a summary of how those goods, services or works will be supplied,
- (d) the estimated date when, or period over which, the goods, services or works will be supplied,
- (e) the estimated amount of goods, services or works which will be supplied,
- (f) the relevant CPV codes, and
- (g) the geographical classification, where it is possible to describe this.

(2) In these Regulations, “geographical classification” means—

- (a) the area where the goods, services or works are to be supplied in the United Kingdom, by reference to the relevant ITL 1, ITL 2, and ITL 3 areas listed on the webpage entitled “International Geographies” on the website for the Office for National Statistics⁽¹⁾ as amended from time to time, or
- (b) where the goods, services or works are to be supplied outside the United Kingdom, the name of the country and, where appropriate, the region where they are to be supplied.
