The Countryside Access (Local Access Forums) (Wales) Regulations 2001

Membership of a forum

8. An appointing authority must not appoint as a member of a forum any person who appears to the authority to have or to be likely to have such pecuniary or other interest in the matters on which the forum is required to advise as is likely to have a substantially adverse effect on the ability of that person properly and effectively to discharge the function of a member of the forum.
