(2) The National Assembly may, after giving the appellant and the local planning authority written notice of its intention to do so, proceed to a decision on an appeal notwithstanding that no written representations have been made within the relevant time limits if it appears to it that it has sufficient material before it to enable it to reach a decision on the merits of the case.

(3) In this regulation, "relevant time limits" ("terfynau amser perthnasol") means the time limits prescribed by these Regulations or, where the National Assembly has exercised its power under regulation 9, any later time limits.
