EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

These Regulations further amend the National Health Service (General Ophthalmic Services) Regulations 1986 (“the principal Regulations”) which regulate the terms on which general ophthalmic services are provided under the National Health Service Act 1977.

Regulation two contains provisions amending the length of time contractors, as defined in the principal Regulations, have to respond to complaints made by or on behalf of patients or former patients. The time permitted to contractors to formally acknowledge complaints is reduced from three to two days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday and bank holidays), whereas the time permitted to provide a complainant with a written summary of investigations and conclusions is increased from 10 to 20 days(excluding Saturdays, Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday and bank holidays).
