

SCHEDULE 7

UK CROSS-BORDER MOVEMENT OF HAZARDOUS WASTE

UK cross-border Consignments into Wales

4.—(1) If a cross-border consignment into Wales is rejected wholly or in part, the consignee must—

- (a) indicate on the cross-border consignment note (if he or she has received one) or otherwise provide a written record of his or her rejection of the consignment (or part of it) and the reasons for such rejection;
- (b) retain a copy of the note or record;
- (c) give a copy to the carrier; and
- (d) as soon as reasonably practicable, send a copy to the consignor, and (if different from the consignor) the producer or holder indicated on the cross-border consignment note.

(2) On being informed that the consignee will not accept delivery of a cross-border consignment into Wales or part, the carrier must—

- (a) inform the ^{F1}NRBW ; and
- (b) seek instructions from the hazardous waste producer or holder indicated on the cross-border consignment note and take all reasonable steps to ensure they are fulfilled.

(3) Before a rejected cross-border consignment into Wales is moved from the original delivery destination, the carrier must ensure that—

- (a) a consignment note is completed in accordance with regulation ^{F2}36 or 43; and
- (b) a copy of the note is sent to SEPA (where the waste is transported from Scotland) or the Northern Ireland Department of the Environment (where the waste is transported from Northern Ireland) ^{F3} or the Agency (where the waste is transported from England)].

(4) Where a cross-border consignment into Wales from Scotland or Northern Ireland ^{F4} or England] is accepted, the consignee must send a copy of the cross-border consignment note to SEPA (where the waste is transported from Scotland) or the Northern Ireland Department of the Environment (where the waste is transported from Northern Ireland) ^{F5} or the Agency (where the waste is transported from England)].
