The New Maintained Schools (Wales) Regulations 2005

PART 3

Categories of Temporary Governor

Temporary staff governors

10.—(1) A “temporary staff governor” is a person appointed to be a member of a temporary governing body of a new school in accordance with this regulation.

(2) The local education authority in the first case and the promoters in the second case must—

(a) determine whether a temporary staff governor should be included on the temporary governing body of the new school in accordance with the Government Regulations (as modified by these Regulations) and, if they so determine,

(b) appoint a temporary staff governor.

(3) No person may be appointed under paragraph (2) unless he or she is employed to work at a maintained school, other than as a school teacher, at the time when he or she is appointed.

(4) A temporary staff governor at a new school is, upon ceasing to be employed at a maintained school, disqualified from continuing to hold office as such a governor
