41.—(1) Any notice required by virtue of these Regulations to be given to any person by the National Assembly may be given by it—

- (a) by delivering it to the person or by leaving it at the person's proper address or by sending it by post to the person at that address;

(2) For the purposes of this regulation and section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978⁽¹⁾ (service of documents by post) in its application to this regulation, the proper address of any person to whom a notice is to be given shall be his or her last known address, except that—

- (a) in the case of a body corporate (other than a limited liability partnership) or its secretary, it shall be the address of the registered or principal office of the body;
- (b) in the case of a limited liability partnership or a member of the partnership, it shall be the address of the registered or principal office of the partnership; and

(4) In relation to that notice, that address shall be treated as his or her proper address for the purposes of this regulation and section 7 of the Interpretation Act 1978 in its application to this regulation, instead of that determined under paragraph (2).
