The Non-Domestic Rating (Alteration of Lists and Appeals) (Wales) Regulations 2005

PART 5

Appeals: General

Notice of hearing

27.—(1) Where an appeal is to be disposed of on the basis of a hearing, the clerk must give the parties not less than four weeks' notice of the date, time and place appointed for the hearing.

(2) The clerk must advertise the date, time and place appointed for any hearing by causing a notice giving such information to be conspicuously displayed —

- (a) at the valuation tribunal's office,
- (b) outside an office of the relevant authority appointed by the authority for that purpose, or
- (c) in another place within that authority's area.

(3) The notice required by paragraph (2) must name a place where a list of the appeals to be heard may be inspected.

(4) Where the hearing of an appeal has been postponed, the clerk must take such steps as are practicable in the time available —

- (a) to notify the parties to the appeal of the postponement; and
- (b) to advertise the postponement.
