TEMPERATURE CONTROL REQUIREMENTS

Hot holding defences

7.—(1) In any proceedings for an offence consisting of a contravention of paragraph 6, it will be a defence for the accused to prove that—

(a) a well-founded scientific assessment of the safety of the food at temperatures below 63°C has concluded that there is no risk to health if, after cooking or re-heating, the food is held for service or on display for sale—

(i) at a holding temperature which is below 63°C, and

(ii) for a period not exceeding any period of time specified in that scientific assessment; and

(b) at the time of the commission of the alleged offence, the food was held in a manner which was justified in the light of that scientific assessment.

(2) In any proceedings for an offence consisting of a contravention of paragraph 6, it will be a defence for the accused to prove that the food—

(a) had been kept for service or on display for sale for a period of less than two hours; and

(b) had not previously been kept for service or on display for sale by that person.

Changes to legislation:
