TRAFFIC MANAGEMENT ACT 2004 NETWORK MANAGEMENT DUTIES GUIDANCE ON INTERVENTION CRITERIA FOR WALES

Incident management and contingency planning. (See NMDG paragraphs 29 and 50)

35.—(1) Has the authority established contingency plans for dealing with situations outside the authority's control promptly and effectively, as far as is reasonably practicable?

(2) Has the authority provided evidence to demonstrate that it has ensured that all parties involved in making these contingency arrangements work, have been, or are, fully consulted during their development?

(3) Have these parties the information they need to put the plans into practice quickly?
