The Natural Mineral Water, Spring Water and
Bottled Drinking Water (Wales) Regulations 2007

PART 3

Spring water

Marking, labelling and advertising of spring water

11.—(1) No person may cause any bottle to be marked or labelled with the description “spring water” unless the water contained in it—

- (a) is bottled as specified in regulation 10; and
- (b) is intended for consumption in its natural state.

(2) No person may cause any bottle containing water and marked or labelled with the description “spring water” to be marked or labelled with—

- (a) a trade description including the name of a locality, hamlet or other place, unless that trade description refers to water the spring of which is exploited at the place indicated by that description and is not misleading as regards the place of exploitation of the spring; or
- (b) a trade description that is different from the name of the spring or the place of its exploitation unless the place of exploitation or the name of the spring is also marked or labelled on the bottle, using letters at least one and a half times the height and width of the largest of the letters used for that trade description.

(3) No person may cause any water to be bottled in a bottle marked or labelled with the description “spring water” unless the bottle is also marked or labelled with—

- (a) the name of the place where the spring in question is exploited; and
- (b) the name of the spring; and
- (c) in any case where the water has undergone an authorised ozone-enriched air oxidation technique, the words “water subjected to an authorised ozone-enriched air oxidation technique”, which words must appear in proximity to the particulars referred to in subparagraphs (a) and (b).

(4) Where in accordance with paragraph (2)(b) a bottle containing spring water is required to be marked or labelled with the place of exploitation or the name of the spring—

- (a) the same requirement also applies to any written advertisement for that spring water; and
- (b) in any other advertisement, at least equivalent importance must be given to the place of exploitation or the name of the spring as is given to the trade description.

(5) No person may advertise any spring water in contravention of paragraph (4).
