Regulations 2011

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision about visiting requirements for children and young people who were looked after by a local authority but have ceased to be so as a result of being detained in an institution, either having been remanded to prison custody or following conviction and sentencing by a court. Those who will have ceased to be looked after will be children and young people who, prior to entering custody, were either provided with accommodation under section 20 of the Children Act 1989 ("the 1989 Act") or who had been remanded to local authority care under section 23(1) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969 on sentencing.

These Regulations are made under section 23ZA of the 1989 Act (inserted by section 15 of the Children and Young Persons Act 2008) which confers a duty on a local authority ("the responsible local authority") to ensure that children who have ceased to be looked after by it as a result of prescribed circumstances are visited by a representative of the responsible local authority and have access to advice, support and assistance.

The prescribed circumstances for the purposes of section 23ZA(1)(b) of the 1989 Act are that the child is detained in a young offender institution, a secure training centre or a secure children's home (regulation 3).

Regulation 4 makes provision about the frequency of visits; the responsible local authority must arrange for

Mae Rheoliad 7 yn gwneud darpariaeth mewn perthynas â dyletswydd yr awdurdod lleol cyfrifol o dan adran 23ZA(2)(b) o Ddeddf 1989 i drefnu bod cyngor, cefnogaeth a chymorth ar gael i'r plentyn.

Regulation 5 provides that during each visit, the representative must speak to the child in private unless it is not appropriate to do so or the child refuses.

Regulation 6 places a duty on the representative to provide a report of each visit and sets out what must be included in that report. It also provides that a copy of the report must be given to the child, unless it would be inappropriate to do so, and to certain other persons.

"relevant youth offending team case manager" ("rheolwr achos tîm troseddau ieuencid perthnasol") means the person within the responsible local authority's youth offending team(2) who is managing A's case;

"responsible local authority" ("awdurdod lleol cyfrifol") means the local authority which looked after A immediately prior to A being detained;

"working day" ("diwrnod gwaith") means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday or a Bank Holiday within the meaning of the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971(4).

(2) These Regulations do not apply to a child who is a relevant child for the purposes of section 23A of the 1989 Act(5).

(1) For the meaning of a child who is "looked after" see section 22(1) of the 1989 Act, as amended by section 107 of, and paragraph 19 of Schedule 5 to, the Local Government Act 2000 (c.22), section 2 of the Children (Leaving Care) Act 2000 (c.35) and by section 116(2) of the Adoption and Children Act 2002 (c.38). "Local authority" is defined by section 105(1) of the 1989 Act as, in relation to Wales, "the council of a county or county borough".

(2) Under section 39(1) of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998 (c.37) a local authority has a duty to establish one or more youth offending teams for its area.

(3) 2000 c.14.

(4) 1971 c.80.

(5) Section 23A(2) provides that a "relevant child" is a child who: (a) is not being looked after by any local authority; (b) was, before last ceasing to be looked after, an eligible child for the purposes of paragraph 19B of Schedule 2 to the 1989 Act; and (c) is aged 16 or 17. Section 23B of the 1989 Act sets out additional functions of the responsible authority in respect of relevant children.
