Establishment and functions of the committee

Establishment of the committee

3. Velindre National Health Service Trust will establish the committee.

Functions of the committee

4. The committee is responsible for exercising Velindre National Health Service Trust's functions in relation to shared services, including the setting of policy and strategy and the management and provision of shared services to Local Health Boards and National Health Service Trusts.

PART 3

Membership of the committee

Membership of the committee

- 5.—(1) The members of the committee consist of—

- (a) a chair;
- (b) the chief officers or their nominated representatives; and
- (c) the person who has been designated as the accountable officer for shared services.

(2) For the purposes of regulation 5(1)(c), the person who is designated as the accountable officer for shared services, means the person who has been designated as accountable officer for shared services by the person who has been designated as an additional accounting officer, with responsibility for the NHS in Wales, in accordance with section 133(2) of the Government of Wales Act 2006 ^{M5}.

(3) Where a chief officer intends to nominate a representative for the purposes of regulation 5(1)(b), the nomination must be in writing addressed to the chair of the committee, and must specify whether the nomination is for a specific length of time.

M5 2006 c. 32. In accordance with section 129(6) of the Government of Wales Act 2006, the Permanent Secretary of the Welsh Government is the principal accounting officer for the Welsh Ministers. In accordance with section 133(2) of the Government of Wales Act 2006, the Permanent Secretary may designate other members of staff of the Welsh Government as additional accounting officers. The Director General for Health and Social Services has been designated as an additional accounting officer responsible for the budgets for which he has administrative responsibility. Additional accounting officers may appoint accountable officers in certain public bodies, which include NHS Trusts. Accountable officers have their responsibilities set out in an Accountable Officer Memorandum.

Appointment of the chair and vice-chair

- 6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) the chair of the committee is appointed by the committee.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Velindre National Health Service Trust Shared Services Committee (Wales) Regulations 2012. (See end of Document for details)

(2) The first chair of the committee is appointed by Velindre National Health Service Trust for a period of six months.

(3) The committee must appoint a vice chair of the committee from amongst the chief officers or their nominated representatives.

(4) Where the committee appoints the chair and vice chair of the committee in accordance with paragraphs (1) and (3), the appointments must be subject to standing orders relating to the committee and, in relation to appointments made in accordance with paragraph (1), the committee must satisfy itself that the person appointed has the necessary skills and experience to perform the duties of the chair.

(5) Where Velindre National Health Service Trust appoints the chair in accordance with paragraph (2), the appointment must be subject to Velindre National Health Service Trust's standing orders.

Eligibility requirements for members of the committee

7.—(1) All members must fulfil the requirements for eligibility in the Schedule to these Regulations and must continue to fulfil the requirements while that member holds office.

(2) Chief officers may only hold office on the committee provided he or she continues to hold office as a chief officer of a National Health Service Trust or Local Health Board.

(3) A nominated representative of a chief officer may only hold office on the committee provided he or she continues to hold office, as appropriate, as an officer member of the chief officer's Local Health Board or an executive director of the chief officer's National Health Service Trust.

(4) Any person appointed pursuant to regulation 6(3) to be a vice chair may only hold the office of vice chair on the committee provided that person continues to hold office, as appropriate, as a chief officer or as an officer member of the chief officer's Local Health Board or an executive director of the chief officer's National Health Service Trust.

Tenure of office of chair and vice chair

8.—(1) This regulation applies to any person who is appointed as chair or vice chair of the committee.

(2) Subject to these Regulations, a chair or vice chair holds and vacates office in accordance with the terms of that person's appointment.

(3) A chair or vice chair may be appointed for a period of no longer than four years.

(4) Subject to paragraph (5) a chair or vice chair may on the expiration of his or her term of office be re-appointed in accordance with regulation 6(1) or 6(3) respectively.

(5) A person may not hold office as a chair or vice chair for the committee for a total period of more than eight years, and a person may not have consecutive appointments as a vice chair or, subject to paragraph (6), a chair.

(6) The first chair of the committee appointed by Velindre National Health Service Trust in accordance with regulation 6(2), may, when his or her term of appointment comes to an end, be appointed to the position of chair by the committee if he or she is successful in the appointments process run by the committee in accordance with its standing orders.

(7) References to the tenure of office of the vice chair are to his or her appointment as vice chair and not to his or her tenure of office as a member of the committee.

Termination of appointment of chair or vice chair

9.—(1) The committee may, remove a chair or vice chair from office if it determines that—

(a) it is not in the interests of the committee; or
(b) it is not conducive to the good management of the committee, for that chair or vice chair to continue to hold office.

(2) If it comes to the notice of the committee that a chair or vice chair appointed has become ineligible under the Schedule to these Regulations, the committee must remove that chair or vice chair from office.

(3) A chair or vice chair appointed must immediately notify the committee if that chair or vice chair becomes ineligible under the Schedule to these Regulations.

(4) If a chair or vice chair has failed to attend any meeting of the committee for a period of six months or more, the committee may remove that chair or vice chair from office unless it is satisfied that—

- (a) the absence was due to a reasonable cause; and
- (b) the chair or vice chair will be able to attend such meetings within such period as the committee considers reasonable.

(5) A chair or vice chair may at any time resign his or her office by notice in writing to the committee but subject to the terms of that chair or vice chair's appointment.

(6) Reference in this regulation to removal of a vice chair or the resignation of a vice chair from office is to the removal of the appointment as vice chair or resignation from the appointment as vice chair, as appropriate, and not to the removal or resignation of the member who has been appointed as vice chair from office on the committee.

Suspension of chair or vice chair

10.—(1) Before making a decision to remove a chair or vice chair from office under regulation 9, the committee may suspend the tenure of office of that chair or vice chair for such period as it considers reasonable.

(2) Where a chair or vice chair is suspended in accordance with paragraph (1), the committee must immediately notify that chair or vice chair, each of the committee members and Velindre National Health Service Trust in writing, stating the reasons for his or her suspension.

(3) A chair or vice chair whose tenure of office is suspended under paragraph (1) may not perform the functions of chair or vice chair.

(4) Reference in this regulation to suspension of a vice chair is to the suspension of the appointment as vice chair and not to the suspension of the member who has been appointed as vice chair from office on the committee.

PART 4

Meetings and proceedings of the committee

Meetings and proceedings

11.—(1) Velindre National Health Service Trust must agree standing orders for the regulation of the meetings and proceedings of the committee.

(2) The meetings and proceedings of the committee must be conducted in accordance with standing orders relating to the committee.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Velindre National Health Service Trust Shared Services Committee (Wales) Regulations 2012. (See end of Document for details)

Powers of vice-chair

12. Where the chair of the committee—

- (a) has died;
- (b) has ceased to hold office; or
- (c) is unable to perform the duties of chair owing to illness, absence or any other cause, the vice-chair may act as chair until a new chair is appointed or the existing chair resumes the duties of chair, as the case may be.

Lesley Griffiths
Minister for Health and Social Services, one of the Welsh Ministers.

SCHEDULE

Regulation 7(1)

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Eligibility requirements for members

General requirements

1.—(1) This Schedule applies in relation to eligibility for appointment as a member of the committee.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (4), (5), (6) and (8), a person is not eligible for appointment as a member of the committee if that person—

- (a) has within the preceding five years been convicted in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man of any offence and has received a sentence of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) for a period of not less than three months without the option of a fine;
- (b) is the subject of a bankruptcy restrictions order or an interim order or has made a composition or arrangement with creditors;
- (c) has been dismissed, other than by reason of redundancy, from any paid employment with a health service body; ^{F2}...
- (d) has had his or her membership as chair, member or director of a health service body [^{F3}(other than a clinical commissioning group)] terminated, other than by reason of redundancy, voluntary resignation, reorganisation of the health service body, or expiry of the period of office for which that person was appointed [^{F4} or
- (e) has been removed from office as the chair or a member of the governing body of a clinical commissioning group.]

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a) the date of conviction is deemed to be the date on which the ordinary period allowed for making an appeal or application with respect to the conviction expires or, if such an appeal or application is made, the date on which the appeal or application is finally disposed of or abandoned or fails by reason of its not being prosecuted.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(c), a person is not to be treated as having been in paid employment by reason only of having held the position of member, associate member or director of a health service body [^{F5}(other than a clinical commissioning group), or of having held the position of chair or member of the governing body of a clinical commissioning group].

(5) Where a person is ineligible by reason of paragraph (2)(b)—

- (a) if the bankruptcy is annulled on the ground that the person ought not to have been adjudged bankrupt or on the ground that the person's debts have been paid in full, that person becomes eligible for appointment as a member on the date of the annulment;
- (b) if the person is discharged from bankruptcy, that person becomes eligible for appointment as a member on the date of the discharge;
- (c) if, having made a composition or arrangement with creditors, the person's debts are paid in full, that person becomes eligible for appointment as a member on the date upon which such debts are paid in full; and
- (d) having made a composition or arrangement with creditors, that person becomes eligible for appointment as a member on the expiry of five years from the date on which the terms of the deed of composition or arrangement were fulfilled.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2013.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Velindre National Health Service Trust Shared Services Committee (Wales) Regulations 2012. (See end of Document for details)

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), where a person is ineligible by reason of paragraph (2)(c), that person may, after the expiry of two years from the date of dismissal, apply in writing to the Welsh Ministers to remove the ineligibility, and the Welsh Ministers may direct that the ineligibility ceases.

(7) Where the Welsh Ministers refuse an application to remove an ineligibility, no further application may be made by that person until the expiry of two years beginning with the date of the application and this paragraph applies to any subsequent application.

(8) Where a person is ineligible by reason of paragraph (2)(d), that person becomes eligible for appointment as a member on the expiry of two years from the date of termination of membership or such longer period as may have been specified by the body which terminated the membership, but the Welsh Ministers may, on application being made in writing to them by that person, reduce the period of ineligibility.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision for the establishment, functions, constitution and membership of the Velindre National Health Service Trust Shared Services Committee (“the committee”) including its procedures and administrative arrangements.

Part 2 of these Regulations makes provision for the establishment of the committee and exercise of functions by the committee.

Part 3 of these Regulations makes provision for —

- (a) the composition and membership of the committee (regulation 5);
- (b) the appointment of the chair and vice-chair to the committee (regulation 6);
- (c) eligibility requirements for members of the joint committee (regulation 7 and the Schedule); and
- (d) tenure of office, termination of appointment and suspension of the chair and vice chair of the committee (regulations 8 to 10).

Part 4 contains provisions in relation to the meetings and proceedings of the committee including the powers of the vice-chair (regulations 11 and 12).

The Welsh Ministers' Code of Practice on the carrying out of regulatory impact assessments was considered in relation to these Regulations. As a result, a regulatory impact assessment has been prepared as to the likely costs and benefits of complying with these Regulations. A copy can be obtained from the Finance Department, Department of Health, Social Services and Children, Welsh Government, Cathays Park, Cardiff, CF10 3NQ.
