The Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (Wales) Order 2012

PART 2 E+W

Applications

Applications for outline planning permission E+W

3.—(1) Where an application is made to the local planning authority for outline planning permission, the authority may grant permission subject to a condition specifying reserved matters for the authority's subsequent approval.

(2) Where the local planning authority who are to determine an application for outline planning permission are of the opinion that, in the circumstances of the case, the application ought not to be considered separately from all or any of the reserved matters, they must within the period of one month beginning with the receipt of the application notify the applicant that they are unable to determine it unless further details are submitted, specifying the further details they require.

(3) Where layout is a reserved matter, the application for outline planning permission must state the approximate location of buildings, routes and open spaces included in the development proposed.

(4) Where scale is a reserved matter, the application for outline planning permission must state the upper and lower limit for the height, width and length of each building included in the development proposed.

(5) Where access is a reserved matter, the application for outline planning permission must state the area or areas where access points to the development proposed will be situated.

Applications for approval of reserved matters E+W

4.—(1) An application for approval of reserved matters must—

- (a) be made in writing to the local planning authority on a form published by the Welsh Ministers (or a form substantially to the like effect);
- (b) include the particulars specified or referred to in the form;
- (c) be accompanied by such plans and drawings as are necessary to deal with the matters reserved in the outline planning permission;
- (d) except where the application is made by electronic communications or the local planning authority indicate that fewer are required, be accompanied by 3 copies of the form; and
- (e) except where they are submitted by electronic communications or the local planning authority indicate that fewer are required, be accompanied by 3 copies of any plans, drawings and information accompanying the application.

(2) Any plans or drawings required to be provided by paragraph (1)(c) must be drawn to an identified scale and, in the case of plans, must show the direction of north.

(3) Where an application is made using electronic communications the provisions of article 32 apply.

Applications for planning permission E+W

5.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this article, an application for planning permission must—

- (a) be made in writing to the local planning authority on a form published by the Welsh Ministers (or a form substantially to the like effect);
- (b) include the particulars specified or referred to in the form;
- (c) except ^{F1}in the case of a section 73 application or where the application is made pursuant to] section 73A(2)(c) (planning permission for development already carried out) of the 1990 Act ^{M1}, be accompanied, whether electronically or otherwise, by—
 - (i) a plan which identifies the land to which the application relates;
 - (ii) any other plans, drawings and information necessary to describe the development which is the subject of the application;
 - (iii) except where the application is made by electronic communications or the local planning authority indicate that fewer are required, 3 copies of the form; and
 - (iv) except where they are submitted by electronic communications or the local planning authority indicate that fewer are required, 3 copies of any plans, drawings and information accompanying the application.

(2) Any plans or drawings required to be provided by paragraph (1)(c)(i) or (ii) must be drawn to an identified scale and, in the case of plans, must show the direction of north.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (3) to (5) of article 3, in the case of an application for outline planning permission, details need not be given of any reserved matters.

(4) An application for planning permission for development consisting of mining operations or the use of land for mineral-working deposits must—

- (a) be made on a form provided by the local planning authority;
- (b) include the particulars specified or referred to in the form; and
- (c) comply with the requirements of paragraph (1)(c).

(5) Where an application is made using electronic communications the provisions of article 32 apply.

M1 Section 73 was amended by sections 42(2), 51(3) and 120 of, and Schedule 9 to, the 2004 Act. Section 73A was inserted by section 32 of, and paragraph 16 of Schedule 7 to, the Planning and Compensation Act 1991 \(c. 34\).

Applications in respect of Crown land E+W

6. An application for planning permission in respect of Crown land must be accompanied by—

- (a) a statement that the application is made in respect of Crown land; and
- (b) where the application is made by a person authorised in writing by the appropriate authority, a copy of that authorisation.

Design and access statements E+W

[^{F2}7.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), paragraph (3) applies to an application for planning permission—

- (a) for major development;
- (b) where any part of the development is in a designated area, for development consisting of—
 - (i) the provision of one or more dwellinghouses; or
 - (ii) the provision of a building or buildings where the floor space created by the development is 100 square metres or more.

(2) Paragraph (3) does not apply to—

- (a) a section 73 application;
- (b) an application for planning permission—
 - (i) for mining operations;
 - (ii) for a material change in use of the land or buildings; or
 - (iii) for waste development.

(3) An application for planning permission to which this paragraph applies must be accompanied by a statement (“a design and access statement”) which complies with paragraph (4).

(4) A design and access statement must—

- (a) explain the design principles and concepts that have been applied to the development;
- (b) demonstrate the steps taken to appraise the context of the development and how the design of the development takes that context into account;
- (c) explain the policy or approach adopted as to access, and how policies relating to access in the development plan have been taken into account; and
- (d) explain how any specific issues which might affect access to the development have been addressed.

(5) In paragraph (1) “designated area” (“ardal ddynodedig”) means—

- (a) a conservation area; or
- (b) a property appearing on the World Heritage List kept under article 11(2) of the 1972 UNESCO Convention Concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and National Heritage (a World Heritage Site).]

Notices of applications for planning permission E+W

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), an applicant for planning permission must give requisite notice of the application to any person (other than the applicant) who on the prescribed date is an owner of any of the land to which the application relates, or a tenant—

- (a) by serving the notice on every such person whose name and address is known to the applicant; and
- (b) where the applicant has taken reasonable steps to ascertain the names and addresses of every such person, but has been unable to do so, by publication of the notice after the prescribed date in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land to which the application relates is situated.

(2) In the case of an application for planning permission for development consisting of the winning and working of minerals by underground operations, instead of giving notice in the manner provided for by paragraph (1), the applicant must give requisite notice of the application to any person (other than the applicant) who on the prescribed date is an owner of any of the land to which the application relates, or a tenant,—

- (a) by serving the notice on every such person whom the applicant knows to be such a person and whose name and address is known to the applicant;
- (b) by publication of the notice after the prescribed date in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land to which the application relates is situated; and
- (c) by site display in at least one place in every community within which there is situated any part of the land to which the application relates, leaving the notice in position for not less than 7 days in the period of 21 days immediately preceding the making of the application to the local planning authority.

(3) The notice required by paragraph (2)(c) must (in addition to any other matters required to be contained in it) name a place within the area of the local planning authority to whom the application is made where a copy of the application for planning permission, and of all plans and other documents submitted with it, will be open to inspection by the public at all reasonable hours during such period as may be specified in the notice.

(4) Where a local planning authority maintain a website for the purpose of advertisement of applications for planning permission [^{F8}other than EIA applications], the notice required by paragraph (2)(c) must (in addition to any other matters required to be contained in it) state the address of the website where a copy of the application, and of all plans and other documents submitted with it, will be published.

(5) Where the notice is, without any fault or intention of the applicant, removed, obscured or defaced before the period of 7 days referred to in paragraph (2)(c) has elapsed, the applicant will be treated as having complied with the requirements of that paragraph if the applicant has taken reasonable steps to protect the notice and, if need be, replace it.

(6) The date prescribed for the purposes of section 65(2) of the 1990 Act (notice etc of applications for planning permission)^{M5}, and the “prescribed date” (“dyddiad rhagnodedig”) for the purposes of this article, is the day 21 days before the date of the application.

(7) The applications prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (c) of the definition of “owner” in section 65(8) of the 1990 Act are minerals applications, and the minerals prescribed for the purposes of that paragraph are any minerals other than oil, gas, coal, gold or silver.

(8) In this article—

“minerals applications” (“ceisiadau mwynau”) means applications for planning permission for development consisting of the winning and working of minerals;

“requisite notice” (“hysbysiad gofynnol”) means notice in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 2 or in a form substantially to the like effect, but will not include notice served using electronic communications; and

“tenant” (“tenant”) means an agricultural tenant as defined in section 65(8) of the 1990 Act, of land any part of which is comprised in the land to which an application relates.

Certificates in relation to notices of applications for planning permission E+W

11.—(1) Where an application for planning permission is made, the applicant must certify, in a form published by the Welsh Ministers or in a form substantially to the like effect, that the requirements of article 10 have been satisfied.

(2) If an applicant has cause to rely on paragraph (5) of article 10, the certificate must state the relevant circumstances.

Publicity for applications for planning permission E+W

12.—(1) An application for planning permission must be publicised by the local planning authority to which the application is made, in the manner prescribed by this article.

(2) [F⁹Subject to paragraph (3A), in] the case of an application for planning permission for development which—

- F¹⁰(a)
- (b) does not accord with the provisions of the development plan in force in the area in which the land to which the application relates is situated; or
- (c) would affect a right of way to which Part 3 of the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981 (public rights of way) ^{M6} applies, the application must be publicised in the manner specified in paragraph (3).

(3) An application falling within paragraph (2) (“a paragraph (2) application”) must be publicised by giving requisite notice—

- (a) by site display in at least one place on or near the land to which the application relates, for not less than 21 days; and
- (b) by publication of the notice in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land to which the application relates is situated.

[F¹¹(3A) In the case of an EIA application, the local planning authority must publicise the application in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (7A) and, where the environmental statement is submitted with the application, by giving requisite notice—

- (a) by site display in at least one place on or near the land to which the application relates for not less than 30 days; and
- (b) by publication of the notice in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land to which the application relates is situated.]

(4) In the case of an application for planning permission [F¹²which is neither a paragraph (2) application nor an application falling within [F¹³paragraph (3A) or (4A)]], if the development proposed is major development the application must be publicised by giving requisite notice—

- (a) (i) by site display in at least one place on or near the land to which the application relates for not less than 21 days; or
(ii) by serving the notice on any adjoining owner or occupier; and
- (b) by publication of the notice in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land to which the application relates is situated.

[F¹⁴(4A) In the case of a section 73 application which does not fall within subparagraph [F¹⁵(2) (c) or (3A)], the application must be publicised by giving requisite notice—

- (a) by site display in at least one place on or near the land to which the application relates for not less than 21 days; and
- (b) in such other manner as the local planning authority consider appropriate.]

(5) In a case to which neither paragraph (2) [F¹⁶, [F¹⁷paragraph (3A),] paragraph (4) nor paragraph (4A)] applies, the application must be publicised by giving requisite notice—

- (a) by site display in at least one place on or near the land to which the application relates for not less than 21 days; or
- (b) by serving the notice on any adjoining owner or occupier.

(6) Where the notice is, without any fault or intention of the local planning authority, removed, obscured or defaced before the period of 21 days referred to in paragraph (3)(a), (4)(a)(i) [F¹⁸, (4A)] or (5)(a) [F¹⁹, or before the period of 30 days referred to in paragraph (3A)(a),] has elapsed, the authority will be treated as having complied with the requirements of the relevant paragraph if they have taken reasonable steps to protect the notice and, if need be, replace it.

(7) Where the local planning authority maintain a website for the purpose of publicising applications for planning permission [^{F20}other than EIA applications] the following information must be published on the website—

- (a) the address or location of the proposed development;
- (b) a description of the proposed development;
- (c) the date by which any representations about the application must be made, which must not be before the last day of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the information is published;
- (d) where and when the application may be inspected; ^{F21}...
- (e) how representations may be made about the application [^{F22}; and
- (f) that, in the case of a householder application or a minor commercial application, in the event of an appeal that proceeds by way of the expedited procedure, any representations made about the application will be passed to the Welsh Ministers and there will be no opportunity to make further representations.]

[^{F23}(7A) The local planning authority must ensure it maintains a website for the purpose of publicising EIA applications and the following information must be published on the website—

- (a) the address or location of the proposed development;
- (b) a description of the proposed development;
- (c) the fact that the development is subject to an environmental impact assessment procedure;
- (d) the environmental statement, any relevant scoping opinion or scoping direction and any further information or any other information;
- (e) in accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Data Protection Act 1998, the main reports and advice issued to the authority at the time the information is published (if any);
- (f) in accordance with the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, information other than that required under any other sub-paragraph which is relevant to the decision and which only becomes available after the time the information required by this paragraph was first published;
- (g) where, when and the means by which the application and the environmental statement may be inspected;
- (h) how copies of the environmental statement may be obtained and the cost of such copies;
- (i) the date by which any representations about the application must be made, which must not be before the last day of the period of 30 days beginning with the last date on which the environmental statement is published either on the website, in accordance with paragraph (3A) or in accordance with regulation 19 of the EIA Regulations;
- (j) other details of the arrangements for public participation in the decision-making procedure including a description of the procedure for the publication of any additional information subsequently submitted by the applicant;
- (k) how representations may be made about the application;
- (l) details of the person or body responsible for taking the decision;
- (m) that, in the case of a householder application or a minor commercial application, in the event of an appeal that proceeds by way of the expedited procedure, any representations made about the application will be passed to the Welsh Ministers and there will be no opportunity to make further representations.]

(8) If the local planning authority have failed to satisfy the requirements of this article in respect of an application for planning permission at the time the application is referred to the Welsh Ministers under section 77 of the 1990 Act (reference of applications to Secretary of State)^{M7} or any appeal to the Welsh Ministers is made under section 78 of the 1990 Act (right to appeal against planning decisions and failure to take such decisions)^{M8}, this article will continue to apply as if such referral or appeal to the Welsh Ministers had not been made.

(9) Where paragraph (8) applies, when the local planning authority have satisfied the requirements of this article, they must inform the Welsh Ministers that they have done so.

(10) In this article—

“adjoining owner or occupier” (“perchennog neu feddiannydd cyffiniol”) means any owner or occupier of any land adjoining the land to which the application relates; and

“requisite notice” (“hysbysiad gofynnol”) means notice in the appropriate form set out in Schedule 3 or in a form substantially to the like effect.

(11) Paragraphs (1) to (6) apply to applications made to the Welsh Ministers under section 293A of the 1990 Act (urgent Crown development: application)^{M9} as if the references to a local planning authority were references to the Welsh Ministers.

[^{F24}Reference of applications to the Welsh Ministers E+W

13.—(1) On referring any application to the Welsh Ministers pursuant to a direction under section 77 of the 1990 Act (reference of applications to the Secretary of State), a local planning authority must as soon as reasonably practicable—

- (a) serve on the applicant a notice of reference; and
- (b) send to the Welsh Ministers a copy of the application file.

(2) The local planning authority must send a copy of the notice of reference to the Welsh Ministers at the same time as the notice is sent to the applicant.

(3) An applicant upon whom a notice of reference is served may choose to submit a full statement of case to the Welsh Ministers.

(4) An applicant who so chooses must send—

- (a) the full statement of case so that it is received by the Welsh Ministers within 4 weeks beginning with the day on which the notice of reference is served;
- (b) a copy of the full statement of case to the local planning authority at the same time as it is sent to the Welsh Ministers.

(5) In this article—

- (a) “application file” (“ffeil y cais”) means the application together with accompanying documents and all correspondence with the local planning authority relating to the application; and

- (b) “notice of reference” (“hysbysiad o atgyfeirio”) means a notice—
- (i) informing the applicant that the application has been referred to the Welsh Ministers;
 - (ii) setting out the reasons given by the Welsh Ministers for issuing the direction; and
 - (iii) notifying the applicant that—
 - (aa) if the applicant so chooses, the applicant may submit a full statement of case to the Welsh Ministers;
 - (bb) if the applicant so chooses, the full statement of case must be received by the Welsh Ministers within 4 weeks beginning with the day on which the notice of reference is served; and
 - (cc) a copy of the full statement of case (if applicable) must be sent to the local planning authority at the same time as it is sent to the Welsh Ministers.]
