The Planning (Hazardous Substances) (Wales) Regulations 2015

PART 4

Enforcement (hazardous substances contravention notices – appeals, effect and register)

Register of hazardous substances contravention notices

19.—(1) A hazardous substances authority must keep a register containing the following information in respect of each hazardous substances contravention notice issued by them—

- (a) the address of the land to which the notice relates;
- (b) the date of service of copies of the notice;
- (c) a statement of the alleged contravention of hazardous substances control, the steps required by the notice to remedy the contravention, and the period within which such steps are to be taken;
- (d) the date specified in the notice as the date on which it is to take effect;
- (e) the date and effect of any variation of the notice;
- (f) the date of any appeal to the Welsh Ministers against the notice and the date of the final determination of the appeal.

(2) The entry relating to the hazardous substances contravention notice and everything relating to the notice must be removed from the register if the notice is quashed by the Welsh Ministers or withdrawn.

(3) The register must include an index of entries in the register.

(4) Every entry in the register must be made within 14 days of the relevant information being available to the hazardous substances authority.

(5) The register must be kept at the principal office of the hazardous substances authority.

(6) Every register kept under this regulation must be available for inspection by the public at all reasonable hours.
