The Children (Secure Accommodation)
(Wales) Regulations 2015

Court Authorisation

Duty to inform parents and others of intention to place child in secure accommodation

5. Where a local authority intends to apply to a court to place a child whom it is looking after in secure accommodation, it must, as far as is reasonably practicable, notify, as soon as possible—

- (a) the child's parents;
- (b) any person who is not a parent but has parental responsibility for the child;
- (c) the child's independent visitor, if one has been appointed; and
- (d) any other person who that local authority considers should be informed.
