2016 No. 58

The Town and Country Planning (Environmental Impact Assessment) (Wales) Regulations 2016

PART 13

Miscellaneous

Extension of the period for an authority's decision on a planning application

57.—(1) For the purposes of section 78 of the 1990 Act (right to appeal against planning decisions and failure to take such decisions), in determining the time which has elapsed without the relevant planning authority giving notice to the applicant of their decision, where—

- (a) the authority have notified an applicant in accordance with regulation 10(1) that the submission of an environmental statement is required; and
- (b) the Welsh Ministers have given a screening direction in relation to the development in question,
- (c) no account is to be taken of any period before the issue of the direction.

(2) Where it falls to an authority to determine an EIA application, articles 22 (time periods for decision) and 23 (applications made under planning condition) of the 2012 Order have effect as if each of the references in article 22(2)(a) and 23 to a period of 8 weeks were a reference to a period of 16 weeks.
