FORM RHW16

Commencement Information

I16 Sch. Pt. 16 in force at 1.12.2022 , see reg. 1 (as amended by The Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 (Commencement No. 2 and Consequential Amendments) Order 2022 (S.I. 2022/906), art. 9), see Regulations

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Guidance notes for contract-holders

This notice is the first step requiring you to give up possession of the dwelling identified at Part C. You should read it very carefully. If you do not give up possession by the date given in Part D, your landlord may apply to the court for an order requiring you to give up possession.

If you are in any doubt or need advice about any aspect of this notice, you should first contact your landlord. Many problems can be resolved quickly by raising them when they first arise. If you are unable to reach an agreement with your landlord, you may wish to contact an advice agency (such as Citizens Advice Cymru or Shelter Cymru) or independent legal advisors. Disputes regarding your contract may ultimately be settled through the county courts. If you believe you are at risk of homelessness as a result of receiving this notice, you should contact your local authority for support.

Restrictions on giving this notice

First six months of occupation

In accordance with section 175 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within the first six months of the occupation date of the contract. If the occupation contract is a substitute occupation contract (as defined in section 175(3) of that Act), this notice may not be given within the first six months of the occupation date of the original contract. This restriction does not apply if the occupation contract falls within Schedule 9 to that Act:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Supported accommodation  | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Repealed – not applicable  | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Breaches of statutory obligations

In accordance with section 176 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given at a time when there is a breach of any statutory obligations listed in Schedule 9A to that Act:

- 1. Failure to provide written statement;*
- 2. Six month restriction following failure to provide written statement within the period specified in section 31 (of that Act);*
- 3. Failure to provide information;*
  - 3A. Failure to provide valid energy performance certificate;*
- 4. Breach of security and deposit requirements;*
- 5. Prohibited payments and holding deposits under the Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019;*
  - 5A. Failure to ensure that working smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms are installed;*
  - 5B. Failure to supply electrical condition report etc.;*
  - 5C. Failure to provide gas safety report to contract-holder.*

This notice may not be given unless the requirements of section 44 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 have been complied with.

In accordance with section 75 of the Housing Act 2004, this notice may not be given in relation to an HMO which is unlicensed in accordance with that Act.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Withdrawal of previous notice

In accordance with section 177 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, if the landlord has previously given a notice under section 173 of that Act and has subsequently withdrawn it, the landlord may not give the contract-holder(s) a further notice of termination under section 173 of that Act within six months of the date that the notice was withdrawn. This is subject to the exception that within 28 days of the first notice of termination under section 173 of that Act (which was subsequently withdrawn), the landlord can give the contract-holder(s) one further notice of termination.

Retaliatory possession claim

A contract-holder may enforce or rely upon the landlord's obligations in relation to fitness for human habitation and to keep the dwelling in repair under sections 91 and 92 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. If the landlord issues this notice in response, a court may consider that the landlord is making a possession claim to avoid complying with those obligations (a retaliatory claim). In accordance with section 217 of that Act, the court may refuse to make an order for possession if it considers that the possession claim is a retaliatory claim.

In accordance with section 177A of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within six months of the court refusing to make an order for possession because it considered the claim to be a retaliatory claim.

Restrictions on bringing a possession claim

Time limits

In accordance with section 179 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord may not make a possession claim before the date listed in Part D of this notice or after two months of that date.

Guidance notes for contract-holders

This notice is the first step requiring you to give up possession of the dwelling identified at Part C. You should read it very carefully. If you do not give up possession by the date given in Part D, your landlord may apply to the court for an order requiring you to give up possession.

If you are in any doubt or need advice about any aspect of this notice, you should first contact your landlord. Many problems can be resolved quickly by raising them when they first arise. Disputes regarding your contract may ultimately be settled through the county courts. If you believe you are at risk of homelessness as a result of receiving this notice, you should contact your local authority for support.

Two-month minimum notice period

An occupation contract may have a two-month minimum notice period because:

- a) it is a converted contract: immediately before the coming into force of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the occupation contract was an assured shorthold tenancy (paragraph 25A of Schedule 12 to that Act), or
- b) the occupation contract falls within Schedule 8A to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act (section 174A of that Act):

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Accommodation for students in higher education   | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Supported accommodation  | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Restrictions on giving this notice

First four/six months of occupation

In accordance with section 175 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within the first six months of the occupation date of the contract. If the occupation contract was an assured shorthold tenancy immediately before the coming into force of that Act (a converted contract), this notice may not be given within the first four months of the occupation date of the contract. In either case, this restriction does not apply if the occupation contract falls within Schedule 9 to that Act:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Supported accommodation  | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Repealed – not applicable  | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Breaches of statutory obligations

In accordance with section 176 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given at a time when there is a breach of any statutory obligations listed in Schedule 9A to that Act:

- 1. Failure to provide written statement;*
- 2. Six month restriction following failure to provide written statement within the period specified in section 31 (of that Act);*
- 3. Failure to provide information;*

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

- 3A. Failure to provide valid energy performance certificate;
- 4. Breach of security and deposit requirements;
- 5. Prohibited payments and holding deposits under the Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019;
- 5A. Failure to ensure that working smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms are installed;
- 5B. Failure to supply electrical condition report etc.;
- 5C. Failure to provide gas safety report to contract-holder.

This notice may not be given unless the requirements of section 44 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 have been complied with.

In accordance with section 75 of the Housing Act 2004, this notice may not be given in relation to an HMO which is unlicensed in accordance with that Act.

Withdrawal of previous notice

In accordance with section 177 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, if the landlord has previously given a notice under section 173 of that Act and has subsequently withdrawn it, the landlord may not give the contract-holder(s) a further notice of termination under section 173 of that Act within six months of the date that the notice was withdrawn. This is subject to the exception that within 28 days of the first notice of termination under section 173 of that Act (which was subsequently withdrawn), the landlord can give the contract-holder(s) one further notice of termination.

Retaliatory possession claim

A contract-holder may enforce or rely upon the landlord's obligations in relation to fitness for human habitation and to keep the dwelling in repair under sections 91 and 92 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. If the landlord issues this notice in response, a court may consider that the landlord is making a possession claim to avoid complying with those obligations (a retaliatory claim). In accordance with section 217 of that Act, the court may refuse to make an order for possession if it considers that the possession claim is a retaliatory claim.

In accordance with section 177A of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within six months of the court refusing to make an order for possession because it considered the claim to be a retaliatory claim.

Restrictions on bringing a possession claim

Time limits

In accordance with section 179 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord may not make a possession claim before the date listed in Part D of this notice or after two months of that date.

Guidance notes for contract-holders

This notice is the first step requiring you to give up possession of the dwelling identified at Part C. You should read it very carefully. If you do not give up possession by the date given in Part D, your landlord may apply to the court for an order requiring you to give up possession.

If you are in any doubt or need advice about any aspect of this notice, you should first contact your landlord. Many problems can be resolved quickly by raising them when they first arise. If you are unable to reach an agreement with your landlord, you may wish to contact an advice agency (such as Citizens Advice Cymru or Shelter Cymru) or independent legal advisors. If you believe you are at risk of homelessness as a result of receiving this notice, you should contact your local authority for support.

Minimum notice period

A prohibited conduct standard contract has a minimum notice period of two months. An introductory standard contract has a minimum notice period of six months, unless it falls within Schedule 8A to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act (see section 174A) in which case the minimum notice period is two months:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Accommodation for students in higher education   | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Supported accommodation  | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Restrictions on giving this notice

First six months of occupation (introductory standard contracts only)

In accordance with section 175 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within the first six months of the occupation date of the introductory standard occupation contract. This restriction does not apply if the occupation contract falls within Schedule 9 to that Act:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Supported accommodation  | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Repealed – not applicable  | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Breaches of statutory obligations

In accordance with section 176 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given at a time when there is a breach of any statutory obligations listed in Schedule 9A to that Act:

1. Failure to provide written statement;
2. Six month restriction following failure to provide written statement within the period specified in section 31 (of that Act);
3. Failure to provide information;
- 3A. Failure to provide valid energy performance certificate;
4. Breach of security and deposit requirements;
5. Prohibited payments and holding deposits under the Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019;
- 5A. Failure to ensure that working smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms are installed;
- 5B. Failure to supply electrical condition report etc.;
- 5C. Failure to provide gas safety report to contract-holder.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

This notice may not be given unless the requirements of section 44 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 have been complied with.

In accordance with section 75 of the Housing Act 2004, this notice may not be given in relation to an HMO which is unlicensed in accordance with that Act.

Withdrawal of previous notice

In accordance with section 177 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, if the landlord has previously given a notice under section 173 of that Act and has subsequently withdrawn it, the landlord may not give the contract-holder(s) a further notice of termination under section 173 of that Act within six months of the date that the notice was withdrawn. This is subject to the exception that within 28 days of the first notice of termination under section 173 of that Act (which was subsequently withdrawn), the landlord can give the contract-holder(s) one further notice of termination.

Retaliatory possession claim

A contract-holder may enforce or rely upon the landlord's obligations in relation to fitness for human habitation and to keep the dwelling in repair under sections 91 and 92 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. If the landlord issues this notice in response, a court may consider that the landlord is making a possession claim to avoid complying with those obligations (a retaliatory claim). In accordance with section 217 of that Act, the court may refuse to make an order for possession if it considers that the possession claim is a retaliatory claim.

In accordance with section 177A of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within six months of the court refusing to make an order for possession because it considered the claim to be a retaliatory claim.

Restrictions on bringing a possession claim

Time limits

In accordance with section 179 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord may not make a possession claim before the date listed in Part D of this notice or after two months of that date.

Guidance notes for contract-holders

This notice tells you that your landlord intends to begin proceedings for possession of the dwelling identified at Part C. You should read it carefully and seek advice about your circumstances as quickly as possible.

The earliest date on which possession proceedings can begin will depend on the ground(s) on which possession is sought, which are listed at Part D. Explanations of the restrictions applicable to particular grounds are provided below.

If you are in any doubt or need advice about any aspect of this notice, you should first contact your landlord. Many problems can be resolved quickly by raising them when they first arise. If you are unable to reach an agreement with your landlord, you may wish to contact an advice agency (such as Citizens Advice Cymru or Shelter Cymru) or independent legal advisors. If you believe you are at risk of homelessness as a result of receiving this notice, you should contact your local authority for support.

Restrictions on proceedings following this notice

Restriction applicable to the breach of contract ground

The landlord may make a possession claim in reliance on a breach of section 55 (anti-social behaviour and other prohibited conduct) on or after the day on which the landlord gives the contract-holder a possession notice specifying a breach of that section.

The landlord may not make a possession claim in reliance on a breach of any other term of the occupation contract before the end of the period of one month starting with the day on which the landlord gives the contract-holder a possession notice specifying a breach of that term.

In either case, the landlord may not make a possession claim after the end of the period of six months starting with the day on which the landlord gives the contract-holder the possession notice.

Restriction applicable to the estate management grounds

The landlord may not make a possession claim before the end of the period of one month starting with the day on which the landlord gives the contract-holder a possession notice, or after the end of the period of six months starting with the day on which the landlord gives the contract-holder the possession notice.

If a redevelopment scheme is approved under Part 2 of Schedule 8 to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 and is subject to conditions, the landlord may give the contract-holder a possession notice specifying estate management Ground B before the conditions are met.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Restriction applicable to the estate management grounds (continued)

The landlord may not give the contract-holder a possession notice specifying estate management Ground G (accommodation not required by successor):

- (a) before the end of the period of six months starting with the day on which the landlord (or in the case of the joint landlords, any one of them) became aware of the previous contract-holder's death, or
- (b) after the end of the period of 12 months starting with that day.

The landlord may not give the contract-holder a possession notice specifying estate management Ground H (departing joint contract-holder) after the end of the period of six months starting with the day on which the joint contract-holder's rights and obligations under the contract ended.

Restrictions applicable to the recovery of possession ground provided by sections 165, 170 and 191

The landlord may make a possession claim on or after the day on which the landlord gives the contract-holder a possession notice, but the landlord may not make a possession claim after the end of the period of six months starting with that day.

The landlord may not give the contract-holder a possession notice specifying the ground in section 165, 171 or 191 (as applicable) after the end of the period of two months starting with the date specified in any notice given under section 163 or 168 or the contract-holder's break clause (as applicable) as the date on which the contract-holder would give up possession of the dwelling.

Restrictions on giving this notice

Occupation contract must contain a landlord's break clause

In accordance with section 194 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may only be given if the fixed term standard contract contains a landlord's break clause. The contract may only contain a landlord's break clause if it is for a term of two years or more or is listed in Schedule 9C to that Act:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 (to that Act)</li> <li>2. Supported accommodation</li> <li>3. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.</li> <li>4. Accommodation for homeless persons</li> <li>5. Service occupancy</li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>6. Service occupancy: police</li> <li>7. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services</li> <li>8. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development</li> <li>9. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements</li> <li>10. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works</li> </ol> |

First 18 months of occupation

In accordance with section 196 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given during the first 18 months of the occupation contract. This restriction does not apply if the occupation contract falls within Schedule 9 to that Act:

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts</li> <li>2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2</li> <li>3. Supported accommodation</li> <li>4. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.</li> <li>5. Repealed – not applicable</li> <li>6. Accommodation for homeless persons</li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>7. Service occupancy</li> <li>8. Service occupancy: police</li> <li>9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services</li> <li>10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development</li> <li>11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements</li> <li>12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works</li> </ol> |

Breaches of statutory obligations

In accordance with section 197 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given at a time when there is a breach of any statutory obligations listed in Schedule 9A to that Act:

1. Failure to provide written statement;
2. Six month restriction following failure to provide written statement within the period specified in section 31 (of that Act);
3. Failure to provide information;
- 3A. Failure to provide valid energy performance certificate;
4. Breach of security and deposit requirements;
5. Prohibited payments and holding deposits under the Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019;
- 5A. Failure to ensure that working smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms are installed;
- 5B. Failure to supply electrical condition report etc.;
- 5C. Failure to provide gas safety report to contract-holder.

This notice may not be given unless the requirements of section 44 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 have been complied with.

In accordance with section 75 of the Housing Act 2004, this notice may not be given in relation to an HMO which is unlicensed in accordance with that Act.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Retaliatory possession claim

A contract-holder may enforce or rely upon the landlord's obligations in relation to fitness for human habitation and to keep the dwelling in repair under sections 91 and 92 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. If the landlord issues this notice in response, a court may consider that the landlord is making a possession claim to avoid complying with those obligations (a retaliatory claim). In accordance with section 217 of that Act, the court may refuse to make an order for possession if it considers that the possession claim is a retaliatory claim.

In accordance with section 198 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within six months of the court refusing to make an order for possession because it considered the claim to be a retaliatory claim.

Restrictions on bringing a possession claim

Time limits

In accordance with section 200 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord may not make a possession claim before the date listed in Part D of this notice or after two months of that date.

Two-month minimum notice period

An occupation contract may have a two-month minimum notice period because:

- a) it is a converted contract: immediately before the coming into force of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the occupation contract was a tenancy or licence for a fixed term containing a landlord's break clause (paragraph 25D of Schedule 12 to that Act), or
- b) the occupation contract falls within Schedule 8A to the Renting Homes (Wales) Act (section 195A of that Act):

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Accommodation for students in higher education   | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Supported accommodation  | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Restrictions on giving this notice

Occupation contract must contain a landlord's break clause

In accordance with section 194 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may only be given if the fixed term standard contract contains a landlord's break clause.

If the contract is a converted contract, it may only contain a landlord's break clause if immediately prior to the coming into force of that Act, the tenancy or licence also contained a landlord's break clause.

If the occupation contract was made after the coming into force of that Act, it may only contain a landlord's break clause if it is for a term of two years or more or is listed in Schedule 9C to that Act:

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| 1. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 (to that Act) | 6. Service occupancy: police                              |
| 2. Supported accommodation  | 7. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services            |
| 3. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 8. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 4. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 9. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 5. Service occupancy  | 10. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works   |

First four/18 months of occupation

In accordance with section 196 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within the first 18 months of the occupation date of the occupation contract.

If the occupation contract was a tenancy or licence for a fixed term containing a landlord's break clause immediately before the coming into force of that Act (a converted contract), this notice may not be given within the first four months of the occupation date of the contract.

In either case, this restriction does not apply if the occupation contract falls within Schedule 9 to that Act:

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Prohibited conduct standard contracts  | 7. Service occupancy                                       |
| 2. Tenancies and licences which are occupation contracts because of notice given under Part 2 of Schedule 2 | 8. Service occupancy: police                               |
| 3. Supported accommodation  | 9. Service occupancy: fire and rescue services             |
| 4. Accommodation for asylum seekers, etc.   | 10. Temporary accommodation: land acquired for development |
| 5. Repealed – not applicable  | 11. Temporary accommodation: short-term arrangements       |
| 6. Accommodation for homeless persons   | 12. Temporary accommodation: accommodation during works    |

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Breaches of statutory obligations

In accordance with section 197 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given at a time when there is a breach of any statutory obligations listed in Schedule 9A to that Act:

1. Failure to provide written statement;
2. Six month restriction following failure to provide written statement within the period specified in section 31 (of that Act);
3. Failure to provide information;
- 3A. Failure to provide valid energy performance certificate;
4. Breach of security and deposit requirements;
5. Prohibited payments and holding deposits under the Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019;
- 5A. Failure to ensure that working smoke alarms and carbon monoxide alarms are installed;
- 5B. Failure to supply electrical condition report etc.;
- 5C. Failure to provide gas safety report to contract-holder.

This notice may not be given unless the requirements of section 44 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 have been complied with.

In accordance with section 75 of the Housing Act 2004, this notice may not be given in relation to an HMO which is unlicensed in accordance with that Act.

Retaliatory possession claim

A contract-holder may enforce or rely upon the landlord's obligations in relation to fitness for human habitation and to keep the dwelling in repair under sections 91 and 92 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016. If the landlord issues this notice in response, a court may consider that the landlord is making a possession claim to avoid complying with those obligations (a retaliatory claim). In accordance with section 217 of that Act, the court may refuse to make an order for possession if it considers that the possession claim is a retaliatory claim.

In accordance with section 198 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, this notice may not be given within six months of the court refusing to make an order for possession because it considered the claim to be a retaliatory claim.

Restrictions on bringing a possession claim

Time limits

In accordance with section 200 of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016, the landlord may not make a possession claim before the date listed in Part D of this notice or after two months of that date.

NOTICE OF LANDLORD'S INTENTION TO END RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF A JOINT CONTRACT-HOLDER DUE TO NON-OCCUPATION

This form is for use by a landlord to give notice to a joint contract-holder under section 225(3) of the Renting Homes (Wales) Act 2016 that the landlord intends to end the joint contract-holder's rights and obligations under the occupation contract because it is a term of the occupation contract that the joint contract-holder must occupy the dwelling as his or her only or principal home and the landlord believes that the joint contract-holder does not occupy or intend to occupy the dwelling.

Part A: Landlord	Part B: Joint Contract-Holder Who the landlord believes does not occupy and does not intend to occupy the dwelling
Name:  Address:	Name:  Address (if known):
Part C: Other Joint Contract-Holder(s)	Part D: Dwelling
Name(s):   The landlord must give a copy of this notice to each of the other joint contract-holders.	Address:
Part E: Notice of Intention to End Rights and Obligations of the Person Named at Part B
A joint contract-holder is required to occupy the dwelling if it is a term of the occupation contract (however expressed) that he or she must occupy the dwelling as his or her only or principal home.  The occupation contract of the above dwelling provides as follows:  Insert the term of the occupation contract which requires the joint contract-holder to occupy the dwelling as his or her only or principal home.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the The Renting Homes (Prescribed Forms) (Wales) Regulations 2022. (See end of Document for details)

Part E: Notice of Intention to End Rights and Obligations of the Person Named at Part B (continued)
The landlord believes that the joint contract-holder named at Part B does not occupy the dwelling and does not intend to occupy the dwelling.
If the joint contract-holder named at Part B occupies or intends to occupy the dwelling, he or she must inform the landlord in writing before the end of the warning period on [date] .....
During the warning period, the landlord will make such enquiries as are necessary to satisfy himself or herself that the joint contract-holder named at Part B does not occupy or does not intend to occupy the dwelling.
If at the end of the warning period the landlord is satisfied that the joint contract-holder named at Part B does not occupy or does not intend to occupy the dwelling, the landlord intends to end the joint contract-holder named at Part B's rights and obligations under occupation contract.
If the joint contract-holder named at Part B does not respond by the above date stating he or she occupies or intends to occupy the dwelling, the landlord may be able to end that person's rights and obligations under the occupation contract on the issuing of a further notice ( Form RHW30 ).
Note: The specified date must be four weeks from the day on which this notice is given to the joint contract-holder named at Part B.
